Wedding

WOODHEAD - BAKER - At a quiet evening wedding at Richmond Hill United Church on August 21, Lorna Mae Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Baker of Wright Street, Richmond Hill, was joined in holy wedlock to Jack Woodhead, son of Mr. Bertha Woodhead and the late Mr. Woodhead of Montreal.

The ceremony was conducted by the Reverend C. G. Higginson. Against a background of pastel gladioli the bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose an ice-blue ballerina length shantung gown embroidered with rhinestones and carried a nosegay of pink gladioli and blue carnations. Her small Juliette cap was studded with rhinestones.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Jean Stansfield, who wore a pink taffeta gown and navy straw hat. She carried a nosegay of cream gladioli and red carnations. The groomsmen were Charles Woodward.

For the reception at the Palm Room, the bride's mother received in a navy crepe gown with navy and white accessories with a corsage of red roses and white carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose navy crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations.

For travelling, the bride chose a pink dress with navy accessories. After returning from a trip to Northern Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Woodhead will reside in Montreal.

In Memoriams

STEPHENSON - In loving memory of a dear father, H. H. Stephenson, who passed away September 1, 1952. Silent is the face we loved so dear, Silent is the voice we loved to hear; Too far away for sight or speech, But not too far for thought to reach. Sweet to remember him who once was here, And who though absent, is just as dear.

— Lovingly remembered by Mrs. S. Stephenson, Marion, Robert and Edwin. *1w9

MCDONALD - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Sarah McDonald, who entered into rest August 25, 1941; Also a dear father and grandfather, Murdoch McDonald, who passed away September 8, 1931. Nothing can ever take away The love a heart holds dear. Fond memories linger every day. Remembrance keeps them near. There the bud of earth transplanted. For our coming, watch and wait, In the upper garden growing. Just within the Pearly Gate. Though my heart may break with sorrow, By the grief so hard to bear, We shall meet them some bright morning, In the upper garden there. — Sadly missed by family and grandchildren.
