Social Notes
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. C. McKechnie of Helen Ave. on the arrival of a daughter Janice Louise, born September 16 at St. Michael's Hospital. A baby sister for Stewart.

A warm welcome to the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. C. Bowyer and their three children and to Mr. and Mrs. R. McNicol and their daughter. These two families moved into their new homes on Helen Ave. last week.

Mrs. R. Simpson of Yonge St. suffered a stroke last week-end. Her many friends and neighbours send their warmest wishes for her speedy recovery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilcocks of Arnold Avenue on their 25th wedding anniversary. The couple were at home to many friends and neighbours last Tuesday evening. A number of very beautiful silver gifts were received to mark the occasion.

Miss Lynn Giles of Centre St., whose marriage to Kenneth Garrett of Toronto will take place on October 10, was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts at showers held recently in her honour.

On September 11, the girls of the auditing department of Kresge's, where Lynn was previously employed surprised the bride-to-be with a miscellaneous shower. This was held at the home of Miss Gwen Cousineau in Toronto. Some useful pieces of stainless steel cooking utensils were presented to Lynn by the girls of the A. C. Neilson Research Company, where she now works. This presentation was made last Thursday at a gathering in Toronto. On Friday last over 40 of her friends and...

Thornhill surprised her with other miscellaneous shower at the home of her bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Summerville of Centre Street.

Fashion Show
A large crowd witnessed the Fashion Show in the United Church Hall last Thursday evening by the Cub and Scout Mothers Auxiliary. Many beautiful fall fashions from Jenny's Dress Shop were modelled before the audience by two girls from the Dorothy Fleming Modelling School, who donated their time, and by Mrs. Beaton and Mrs. D. Plaxton. The girls showed a wide selection of fur coats and jackets from Thornhill Furriers as well as many fashionable hats from the same firm.

Mrs. J. L. Gerome from Toronto acted as commentator, while Mrs. Bob Priestman accompanied at the piano with background music.

During intermission Miss Margaret Holland, from DuBarry Cosmetic Company, demonstrated a facial on Mrs. P. Woodger who received a gift of lipstick and brush from Miss Holland. Following this, prizes donated by DuBarry were won by the following: Mrs. Middleton, a wallet containing beauty aids, Miss Loretta Dean, a carton of perfumes, and Mrs. Boyes, a Home Success Course.

During the course of the evening Mrs. T. Jackson, District Commissioner for Cubs drew winning tickets, the holders of which received prizes donated by merchants in the District. The grand prize of the evening, a fur neck-piece, donated by Thornhill Furs, was won by Mrs. David Booth of Highland Park.

The finale of this most successful evening was the appearance of

R. Whatley Resigns
The Sunday School staff of Thornhill United Church met last Thursday evening in the Guild Hall. The resignation of R. Whatley as Sunday School Superintendent was accepted with regret, the teachers expressing their appreciation of all the work Mr. Whatley has done during the past years.

Arrangements were made for the Sunday School Rally on Sunday, September 27, at which time there will be promotions of scholars and the presentation of the Robert Raikes diplomas and seals for attendance in 1952. It was decided that the intermediates will worship with the congregation for this special service.

A meeting of the intermediate scholars was held after the Church service last Sunday morning, and due to the crowded conditions it was decided that beginning October 4, the intermediates (children 11 years of age and over) would hold their classes at 9:45 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

R. Poulter Reports On Sectional Planting In Park By Hort. Society

The last regular meeting and show of Thornhill and District Horticultural Society was held September 15 in Thornhill United Church Sunday School Hall.

Mr. Silfiant judged 152 entries of Specimen flowers, vegetables and flower arrangements.

R. Poulter gave a report of the Beautification Committee and explained how they were doing section planting of the park. Last spring 30 trees were planted. The next step will be the creation of two large beds in which about 250 shrubs will be planted. The third section will be the planting of a row of Norway maples and groups of flowering crabs.

Mr. Poulter reported they had received financial co-operation from the Police Village and the Community Centre Committee which has made it possible for the Society to carry out their project of beautifying the park and community.

Mr. Poulter also showed some coloured pictures of his recent trip to Florida and pictures of flowers taken in some of the local gardens.

Wins At C.N.E.
The Thornhill Society received a first prize and two seconds out of three entries in the Floral Section of the C.N.E. The flowers were grown by various members of the Society and arranged and exhibited by Mrs. A. Martindale and Mrs. W. Banks.

European Tour
Mr. Barry Rodgers has just returned from an extended tour of 13 European countries motoring through England and Scotland. Barry was able to report a great improvement in working conditions and living conditions in those two countries. He feels they are definitely on the way to pre-war standards.

Taking a walking tour in France, Italy and Austria. Barry encountered the rail strike in France and found that some business men went 200 miles to Belgium or Holland to mail their letters.

Going into Italy he visited St. Peters and saw the marvels of the murals painted by Michel Angelo. Also the bronze doors sculptured by this famous artist.

In Austria the boys camped close to the German border during a short outing happened to cross over the line. They were immediately picked up by the German border police and questioned for several hours then released. Barry reports that Canada just looked wonderful when he landed and he was so glad to be back.

Young People Raise Money For Greek Relief
A month's work ended last Saturday when nine Thornhill young people realized $50.00 for the Greek Earthquake Relief Fund. The nine had begun in mid-August to make ceramic ornaments, wooden lapel pins and other articles, which they sold at a garden-party bazaar at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.F.W. Buckler of Jane St. Orders for more ornaments were also received.

Intentions had been to hold the party on the lawn of the Buckler home. Rain cancelled that proposal but the bazaar was quite successful when held in the garage. A helping hand with the advertising was given by John Martin, principal of Thornhill School, who called school assemblies to let his pupils know of this event. Those taking part in the project were Misses Joan Weekes, Nancy Lee Short, Dorothy and Margaret Mills, Patricia Atkinson, Martha MacNeil, Bruce Whyard, David Iverson and Jack Buckler.

The group wishes to thank Mrs. A. C. Henderson, Mrs. P. Simpkins and Mrs. Chapman for their donations to the bazaar.
