The opening meeting for the season of the Home and School week held at the school on Tuesday night, September 15 with a record attendance.
During the business meeting it was announced that Miss Gray's room received the banner for the most parents present this month.
Clare Ingram introduced the speaker, Rev. John V. Mills (Toronto, editor of the Public School Trustees Association Journal "Argus"). He spoke on Church and School week.
A presentation of a beautiful silver tea service was made to the principal, A. M. Hill, who has taught in Unionville Public School for 25 years. One of his first entrance pupils, Mrs. Fern (Kennedy) McDonald of Toronto made the presentation. Mrs. Bradley also made the presentation of a beautiful sheaf of red roses to Mrs. Hill.
In thanking everyone for their kindness, Mr. Hill said that he had enjoyed his work here with the boys and girls. The meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostesses.

Koreen of Noranda are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbertson.

Wedding

Ainton-O'Neil
White gladioli and salol vine formed an attractive setting in the Stouffville United Church on Saturday for the marriage of Fay O'- Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.
E. O'Neil, Stouffville and Gordon Minton, son of Mrs. Mary Minton and the late Fred Minton, Union-ville.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a redingote gown of white taffeta and net with Elizabethan collar and carried a star shaped bouquet of white gladioli and salol leaves. Her veil of tulle illusion fell softly from a coronet of pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.
The attendants, Miss Joy O'- Neil, sister of the bride, Mrs. Donald Campbell and Miss Verna Coyte, wore shaded nylon net gowns of simlap styling in coronation purple, grapevine and delphinium blue, with pearl tiaras, and carried bouquets of shaded glad-dioli and ostrich feathers. Miss Joan Wilson of Cannington made a charming little flower girl, wearing a shaded net gown of Paris blue, and carrying a bouquet of pink gladioli. Master Jimmy Wilson was the ring bearer in white flannels and a navy blue jacket.
The groomsmen were Donald Campbell and ushers were Neil Stiver, Rae Troyer, Jack Goode and Jack Gordon.
Mrs. Charles Nolan was at the organ. Lorne Boadway sang two solos, "I love you truly" and "A Wedding Prayer." For the reception in the United Church parlors, the bride's mother received in a full length long fitted gown of twilight mauve tissue taffeta with a wrist corsage of pink gladioli petals. The mother of the groom assisted, wearing a full length gown of flamingo and green shot silk organza with a corsage of pink gladioli.
After the reception the bride and groom left for a motor trip to Ottawa, Boston and New York. For travelling the bride chose a blue-grey suit of wool with red accessories. On their return, the happy couple will reside in Stouffville.
We are very pleased to hear that Mrs. F. Frisby is improving. If any of her friends wish to write her, she is staying at the home of her nephew Wesley Clement, 1079 Doverscourt, Toronto.
Harvest Home
The Lutheran Church was well filled for the Harvest Home services, which were held last Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Telfer Rennie of Stouffville and Mrs. Mary Minton and Charlie of Unionville spent the week-end with Mr. H. Ogden at his cottage at Holme's Point.
We wish a speedy recovery to the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jensen, who at present is in Denver, Colorado Hospital.
Mrs. G. A. Gamble is home again from Indianapolis to be with her mother Mrs. J. Melrose who is convalescing from a recent operation.
Before leaving for Wheaton College, Illinois, Grover Burgess gave a dinner in honour of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Burgess at the Guild of All Arts Inn, Scarboro.
The following evening a group of young people and friends gathered at Grover's home to extend best wishes prior to his departure last Thursday evening.
Mr. Roy Foote had the misfortune to break his ankle a few days ago.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Casely motored to Cannington to visit their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs.
Bruce Anderson.
Miss Mary Airde who has been visiting with Mrs. Clarke Young and Mr. Grant McNeil this week to return to her home in Scotland.
Miss Georgia Taylor of Clifford visited with Mr. and Mrs. Toogood the past week-end.
Shower
Miss Margaret Rainey entertained in honour of Miss Evelyn Stiver at a Miscellaneous shower on Monday evening, when nearly 50 guests were present. The popular bride-to-be who will be wed on September 30, received many lovely gifts.
Miss Jean Warne was rushed to the hospital in Toronto on Saturday when she accidentally ran the scissors into her eye.
We are sorry to hear Mrs. Tom Burnett has been on the sick list this week.

Conservate moisture and topsoil by deep plowing with GLENCOE!
... the sub-tiller with fast power lift The rugged Glencoe sub-tiller plow breaks up the hardpan, allowing moisture to be absorbed faster and deeper. The exclusive power lift (or alternate hydraulic lift) enables the plow to be raised or lowered, instantly—from the tractor seat. Penetration may be set at any depth up to 14". Each shank has strong double springs for fast, trouble free clearance of obstacles.
Glencoe prices are lower—5', 7', 10' or 12' models available. Write

Obituary
Mrs. Laura Camplin Mrs. Laura Camplin who for many years has been a resident of Unionville passed away at her home here on Monday September 14.
She was the beloved wife of the late Arthur Camplin and sister of Mrs. Joe Miller (Gertrude) of Port Perry and Mrs. Ernest LaRose (Annetta) of Unionville.
The late Mrs. Camplin was a member of Central United Church, Unionville and until her illness a few years ago, was a worker there.
The funeral service which was conducted by Rev. W. Butt, Union-ville, and Rev. Crossley Hunter, Toronto, was held from her home here on Wednesday at 2 p.m. Interment was made in Forest Lawn Mausoleum, Yonge St.

Football Casualty Colin Dick's schoolmates were very much concerned when he suffered a dislocated elbow playing football at the school last Friday.
Taken to the Sick Children's Hospital, x-rays were taken and the arm placed in a cast. Colin was hospitalized for several days under observation as it was thought he had also chipped the elbow.
Orange Home News
Thirty-five members of the Galt L.O.L. gave a party for the children and staff of the Orange Home on Saturday, September 12.
Last Friday night, the Birchcliffe Lodge enjoyed a party and tour of the home, topped off with a concert put on by the children and finished off the evening with refreshments.
Six girls and six boys from the Home were up bright and early last Saturday in order to join in the L.T.B. tag day in Toronto.
