

RICHMOND HILL . . .

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1261 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

J. E. Smith, Mrs. Smith, Miss Alverna Smith are in Ottawa today for the opening of Parliament.

Miss Edna Izzard attended the Graduate Dinner held at Trinity College last week in honour of Mrs. Kirkwood, retiring dean of St. Hilda's College.

Stuart Parker, Walter Smith, Dennis Featherstonhaugh, Bill Hall, Paul Morley, Barry Smith, braved the elements last Saturday to see Varsity beat Western.

The Rev. E. Morley, formerly of St. Paul's Church, Toronto, is to be the guest preacher at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Councillor Floyd Perkins and Don Giffen of Richmond Hill joined a party of hunters at Compton's last Saturday evening. The hunters were successful in shooting eight deer.

A Corporate Communion for those being confirmed on Thursday evening is being held Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill. The Rev. A. A. Chote will be preaching on the topic "After Confirmation — what then?"

A Great Chapter meeting for the laymen of the Anglican Churches of this Diocese is being held on Tuesday evening at Newmarket. Those representing St. Mary's Church at this meeting will include Messrs. H. Stanford, C. J. Hart, D. Boyd, H. Kane and Bill Scrivener.

Mrs. J. Mabley of Benson Ave., was hostess Thursday evening to the Sugar and Spice Club. New members welcomed were Jean Ashworth and Phyllis Mabley. Card winners were: B. Baskerville, D. Saul, J. Wainwright. Hostesses of the evening were W. Cartier and M. Styau.

The Young Adult Group of the Richmond Hill United Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson of Mill St., last Tuesday evening. Emerson Lavender, teacher of history at Richmond Hill District High School, was the guest speaker and gave an interesting local address on "York County A Century Ago."

Mrs. Shirley Hicks and Mrs. MacTaggart have returned from a week's visit with Mrs. Clarence Mylks of Brockville who is convalescing after breaking her arm.

The Girl Guide Tea and Baking Sale was well attended and the girls wish to thank all those who gave donations and who turned out to make the event such a success. Among those who attended were: Mrs. E. Redelmeier, Dist. Commissioner; Mrs. Gunn, Area Commissioner; Mrs. Wilson, Deputy Provincial Commissioner and Mrs. W. Redelmeier.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church are organizing a Young People's Society, the first meeting of which was held last Sunday evening following the church service.

No election of officers was held at this meeting but was planned for the next meeting to be held November 22 when it is hoped more young people will be present. The age group is generally 16 and over but anyone close to the age limit is invited to attend. It is planned to hold the meetings two Sunday evenings a month following the church service.

The November meeting of the Presbyterian Evening Auxiliary was held Wednesday evening. Plans were made for the auxiliary's booth at the bazaar which will be convoked by Mrs. Wm. Campbell. Mrs. Russell Tilt will convene the afternoon tea.

It was announced that the Schneider's Supper would be held on Wednesday, November 18. Mrs. Robert Ross, Mrs. J. Parker, Mrs. Russell Tilt and Miss Mabel Mkie, along with the president, Miss Mary Gray, are in charge of arrangements for this supper.

Following a short devotional service toy animals for the bazaar were stuffed and finished.

A reunion was held last Friday night in the village when the members of the class of '32 of Richmond Hill High School got together to regale each other with tales of the good old days at R.H.H.S.

Among those staff members who taught the class and who attended the reunion were Mrs. W. A. Sheppard, Miss Helen Shaw, Mrs. Hardy Hill and Miss Edna Izzard. Miss Jones and Miss Shoebottom were unable to attend but sent their best regards.

During the evening the traditional "class sock" which is about 4 yards long and which was knit up by the whole class was found still to be in good shape after 21 years.

Warren Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Hall, Richmond Hill, is pictured following his marriage to Joyce Bozik of Newmarket, on November 7, at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Newmarket.

Wairen Hall Weds J. Bozik

Standards of white, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums formed the setting for the marriage of Joyce Irene Bozik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Bozik, Newmarket, to Warren Morley Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morley B. Hall, Richmond Hill, on Saturday, November 7, at 7 p.m. at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Newmarket. Rev. J. T. Rhodes officiated at the ceremony. Organist was J. F. Willis and Mrs. Ross Hall, aunt of the groom, was the soloist and sang "The Lord's Prayer and Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white strapless gown, the bodice being of lace over taffeta and the bouffant skirt of net over taffeta. The dress was completed by a jacket of lace over taffeta featuring a Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves. The bride's fingertip veil was caught to a Juliet cap and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Harry Londry was matron of honor and wore a rust colored gown of velvet designed with jaunter top and gored skirt. A rust colored nylon tulle stole covered her shoulders. She wore a matching velvet cap and carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. James Mingo, as bridesmaid, was dressed in a similar style in green velvet and Miss Christine Hall, junior bridesmaid, wore a gold velvet gown with matching cap and carried a bouquet of yellow and blue chrysanthemums.

Groomsman was Ronald Hall of Oshawa, and ushers were Gerald Paxton of Richmond Hill and Harold Forster of Victoria Square.

At the reception held at the King George Hotel, Newmarket, the bride's mother received in a gown of silver sculptured nylon with blue feather hat and black accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted her wearing a gown of coffee tone pure silk with matching hat and black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

For travelling to Buffalo the bride donned a grey flannel suit with white hat and green accessories and wore a white gardenia as a corsage.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside in Richmond Hill.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Belleville, Windsor, Detroit and Hagersville.

W. I. Convention
Delegates to the Central Ontario Area Women's Institutes' 51st Convention held at the Royal York Hotel Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week were Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. McGimpson, Mrs. A. Miller and Mrs. F. H. Lee. Great interest was evidenced in the girls' session on Thursday morning at which girls from Club 15 at Buttonville modelled nightwear they had made during the past year under the capable direction of Mrs. Geo. Kelly. Jean Brumwell, Aileen Easton and Gladys Gingell each displayed garments. At the Thursday luncheon the guests were introduced to Frank Peddie Toronto lawyer turned actor, who spoke to the assembly in a voice better known to his audience as that of Thomas Craig of the Farm Broadcast. At the closing session on Friday morning Mrs. Garnet Francey, retiring district president, tendered the courtesies to those who had worked so hard to make the convention helpful to the many delegates who attended.

Cancer Society Work
Mrs. Gordon Purves was a delegate at the Cancer Society Conference which ran concurrently with the W.I. at the Royal York last week. Mrs. Purves reports a great urgency among society workers to render greater assistance to sufferers. In this regard a bridge and euche to raise funds for the Cancer Society Christmas Gift Cupboard has been planned by the Buttonville W.I. for the evening of November 30 at Buttonville Hall. Support this deserving cause by rounding up your friends and bringing along your own table guests. Gifts of jams and jellons are appreciated. Refreshments will be served.

Butterfly Club
The Butterfly Club of Richmond Hill is planning a social gathering for Saturday evening, November 14, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Mill St. The evening will be devoted to a discussion on "The Butterfly Club in Canada."

Career Woman Plans Trip to Europe

To Receive $4,384

A busy Toronto career woman, aged 30, is making plans now for a three month trip through Europe when she retires. She has started a systematic savings plan with a Confederation Life Policy.

For only $10 a month, this plan will guarantee her $4,384 at age 60! In addition, her policy contains Confederation's Disability Benefit. If she should become totally disabled through accident or illness before age 50, this special benefit guarantees to keep putting aside $10 a month for her as long as she is so disabled, until the guaranteed value is payable.

Are you in need of a systematic savings plan that will protect your future, come what may? Your Confederation man will be glad to explain complete details for you!
