Trousseau Tea

Prior to the recent marriage of Miss Marion Middleton, Mrs. Robert E. Middleton entertained at a trousseau tea assisted by Mrs. Chas. Ash, Edgeley, and Mrs. John Ash, Concord.

Those pouring tea were Mrs. L. Wellman, Queensville, Mrs. J. Barton in the afternoon and Mrs. R. Kirk and Mrs. H. Ness and Mrs. J. McEwen in the evening. Others who assisted were Miss Nancy Kirk, Miss Evelyn McCarthy of King, Miss Jean Ash of Edgeley, Miss Katharine Price of Holly, Miss Ann Walker of Sharon, Miss Dorothy Baker, Mrs. C. Price of Holly, Mrs. J. Baker Mrs. D. Wilson of Toronto and Miss Gretta Middleton.

Sympathy
Carrville community was shocked and saddened by the news received of the passing of Mrs. E. E. Kent. We would like to express very sincere sympathy to Rev. Dr. E. E. Kent and his family during their bereavement.

Rev. H. E. Wellwood of Richmond Hill occupied the pulpit at Carrville United Church on November 8 and gave a very encouraging message, which was most fitting due to the passing of our minister's wife.

W.A.
The November meeting of the Carrville United Church Women's Association met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss E. Sheppard. There were 15 ladies present and Mrs. A. Read presided over the meeting. The theme of the meeting was Fellowship.

Mrs. Baker read the scripture and explanation.
Mrs. Read asked the ladies to observe a two minutes silence in memory of Mrs. E. E. Kent, who was an honorary member, and who had passed away that day. Mrs. Read led in prayer.

Following the reading of minutes the business was discussed. The tea and bake sale which was held on October 30, cleared over $30. The Ways and Means Committee turned in their books and it was revealed they had cleared over $80 this year. They also made and sold doll ornaments and cleared enough to buy peach petal dishes, which consist of 100 each of dinner plates, small plates, cups and saucers and six sets of cream and sugar. This committee has worked very faithfully with the help of other members and are entitled to a great deal of credit.

The cent-a-day money was turned in by Mrs. Wynn and over $40 had been given. The W. A. voted to give the building committee $150 to help them clear their debt.

The names were exchanged for the Christmas meeting.
The December meeting was planned to be an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. George Pitts. This will be the election of officers. Mrs. George and Mrs. DeBrocco are devotional convenors and all are to bring a few sandwiches or cookies for lunch.

The hostess Miss Sheppard assisted by Mrs. George, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Bone served lunch.
Carrville School News
The pupils with their teacher George Green of the senior room at Carrville School enjoyed an instructive and educational day down at the Ontario Museum and the Parliament Buildings at Queen's Park. They first visited the Museum, having their lunch in the restaurant there. They were taken from there to the Parliament Buildings. Each child was given a jig-saw puzzle of the province. Mrs. Chevis also went on the trip to help in the care of the children.

Cup-N-Saucer Party

On Thursday evening a Ken-Deer Cup-N-Saucer party was held at the home of Mrs. R. Middleton. There were 21 ladies present and enjoyed a quiet evening of games. Those who received prizes for highest points in contests were Mrs. George, Mrs. Wynn, Mrs. Read, Miss Dorothy Baker, Mrs. McEwen and Mrs. Wm. Baker. Mrs. Chas. Lilley and Mrs. McLaren received the door prize.

Home and School

Carrville Home and School Association will meet in the school on Thursday evening. There is to be an auction sale as one of the features of the evening. Parents and friends are invited to come. Anyone may donate home baking or candy if they wish for the sale.

Wedding

ASH-MIDDLETON

Bronze gold and white chrysanthemums and Maiden Hair fern decorated the altar of Carrville United Church on Saturday, October 17, for the marriage of Marion Murel Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Middleton of Carrville and James Edward Ash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ash, Edgeley. Dr. E. E. Kent officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Wm. George assisted at the organ and Mr. Jack Oliver, uncle of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Benediction".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of nylon tulle, featuring alencon lace panels in skirt front and bodice of alencon lace over taffeta with mandarin collar. Her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion was caught to a beaded headress and she carried a cascade of pink roses and white baby chrysanthemums. The bride wore a gold chain bracelet with heart locket which is over 50 years old and which was her grandmother's.

She was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Jean Ash, who as bridesmaid wore a gown of coronation blue taffeta, with tulle insert forming a bustle back. Her headress was of matching tulle and she wore matching nylon mittens. She carried a cascade of dusky pink roses.

Miss Gretta Middleton, sister of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a floor-length dress of autumn rose taffeta, the skirt in tiered design with contrasting bustle sash. Her headress and nosegay were of blue flowers.

The groomsmen were Mr. John Ash, Concord, cousin of the groom, and ushers were Alan Teskey, cousin of the bride, William Ash, brother of the groom, and Robert Middleton, brother of the bride.

At the reception at the church hall, the bride's mother received in a dress of imported French lace in navy blue with grey hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The groom's mother assisted her wearing a dress of Periwinkle blue silk faille, trimmed with mink, with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Following the reception the bride and groom and attendants called on Mrs. Adeline Whitney of Concord and Miss Minnie Reisman, who were unable to attend the wedding.

For travelling the bride chose a toast brown gabardine suit with forest green accessories and green top coat. She wore a corsage of yellow roses. Following a motor trip to Northern Ontario, Quebec and Elora, Mr. and Mrs. Ash will live at Edgeley.

Out-of-town guests came from Bradford, Ingersoll, Victoria Harbour, Wainman, Ontario, Elora, Toronto, Thistletown, Queensville, Keswick, Newmarket and Sharon.

Convalescing
We are pleased to hear that John Varley who has been very ill at Sunnybrook Hospital is making satisfactory progress.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Frank Woolcott is suffering from pneumonia and is in a nursing home at Richmond Hill. His many friends hope he will soon be home again.

Social Notes
Robert, Gretta and Nancy Middleton spent Saturday afternoon with their sister, Mrs. Jas. Ash at Edgeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood and Drew had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purvis at Newtonbrook.

Mrs. H. Ness visited on Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Rutherford at Newmarket. Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker at Newmarket.

Mrs. A. Hayter is visiting her niece at Long Branch for a few days.

Women Workers
The Vaughan Women Workers' bake sale planned for November 14 will be postponed to 21 due to the Santa Claus parade.
