GORMLEY

Correspondent:
Mrs. Chas. Milsted
Phone Stouffville 67104

Certainly we've had a variety of weather. On Saturday the heavy snow made driving difficult, but it also brought delight to the children's hearts. As one little boy put it, "This is what I've been praying for."

Miss Marilyn Sider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sider of Lansing, was one of the debutants who was presented recently to the Governor-General of Canada, the Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey. Mr. Peter Sider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ada Sider, was raised here.

We miss Mr. Jas. Stevens around the corner and hope he may soon be improved in health.

Miss Reatha Steekley and Mr. Bruce Steekley spent the weekend at "Homecoming" at Messiah College, Grantham, Penna., where their sister Margaret is attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Climenhage of Fort Erie spent the week-end with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Ash were hosts at a birthday party in honour of Mrs. Ash's father, Albert Rumble of Maple.

Friends will be pleased to learn that Miss Karen Jones, of Lansing, who has been in Thistletown Hospital for several months, suffering from polio, is able to be home again. Although she still has braces on her leg and must be very quiet, Karen is much better. Mrs. Jones was the former Verna Cherry.

Mrs. Edna Brubacher called on several on Monday to say goodbye as she leaves from Montreal on Friday for another missionary term in Nigeria, Africa.

Did you read in a Toronto daily recently the publicity given the Country Kitchen? This is the store on Avenue Road operated by our own "Henderson Sisters."

A cordial invitation is extended to you to attend the Young People's service in the United Missionary Church on Monday night, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m. Rev. D. Thornhill of St. Catharines will give an illustrated talk.

The lady teachers from the local schools attended the Women Teachers' Federation banquet at Country Acres, Newmarket, on Thursday night.

Donna Guthrie, Westwood Lane has been ill with complications following a severe cold.

Armistice Day
At the Armistice Day Parade on Sunday at the Armouries five men of the 3rd Armoured Regiment of the Governor General's Horse Guards were presented with the beautiful Queen's Coronation Medal. One of those so honoured was Sergeant K. D. Bradshaw of Richvale. Accompanying the medal which was presented by officer-commanding Lt. Col. J. D. Crasley was a scroll on which below the Queen's insignia, appear the words: Buckingham Palace. By command of her Majesty the Queen the accompanying medal is forwarded to Sergeant K. D. Bradshaw to be worn in commemoration of her Majesty's Coronation 2nd June, 1953.

Entertained
Mrs. Stanley Baker of Carrville Rd. entertained about twenty guests at a shower on Friday evening in honour of Miss Letty Donaldson whose marriage to Gerald Tupper of Willowdale is to take place next week. It was a delightful evening and the bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Brownies
Last Wednesday night District Commissioner, Mrs. Paul presented various badges to the Brownies and conducted an enrollment ceremony. Sharon Brown and Frances Paul were enrolled as Brownies.

Harriet Morning Star received her Golden Bar, Jacqueline Einbuden her Golden Hand, Carol Bursey and Marie Hayes each received their Dancer's Badge.
