Memorial Service

A number from Carrville United Church congregation attended the Memorial Service for Mrs. E. E. Kent at the sister church at Thornhill on Sunday, Rev. Fred Smith of Oak United Church, Toronto, a former friend of the Kent family for many years was the guest speaker. He paid a fine tribute to the memory of Mrs. Kent and gave a note of encouragement to the family and congregation as well.

Home and School

The November meeting of Carrville Home and School Association was held on Thursday evening in the school.

Mrs. H. Nicholls the president was in the chair.

As well as the parents present a goodly number of the children were present as the meeting took the form of an auction sale.

C. Chevis did a most efficient job as auctioneer and J. Bushell was cashier. Many and varied were the articles offered for sale. When the proceeds were added there was over $35 realized. The Home and School Association has given a donation toward the radio and record player for the senior room.

The junior room was the winner of the picture of "Prince Charles and Princess Ann," to be hung in their class-room this month. They had the largest attendance of parents at the meeting.

Congratulations are in order for the teachers and pupils of Carrville Public School for selling the most poppies in this area where 2-room schools are concerned. The children sold over $45 worth. As well as receiving a letter of congratulations they also received the silver cup which they will hold for a year.

Personals
Miss Mix and Miss Bond are at Carrville school at present. They are student teachers from Toronto Normal School.

Mrs. Cloughton of Highland Creek is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Bushell, Birch Avenue.

Mrs. Stanley Wood visited on Friday with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Evring.

Reports of the Area Convention held at the Royal York were given by Mrs. Yerex and Mrs. Zuefelt. Both spoke of the splendid reports of W.I. work given and the addresses heard. The members were told to remember the Women's Institute exists primarily as an adult education group, and also that we are non-partisan, non-political and non-sectarian.

Mrs. J. Dewsbury, convener of the meeting, read a short article on "Happiness in the Institute" and the benefits that accrue from participation in its activities.

The tea table was appropriately decorated with red poppies. Mrs. W. Sayers, Mrs. A. Cruickshanks, Mrs. Mead, Mrs. G. Masters and Mrs. C. Clarke were hostesses.

Above mentioned cattle are a good lot, good size. All young cattle are vaccinated, also cows except two and bred by Maple and Toronto District Cattle Breeders.
