CANADA'S DIABETICS

In addition to the great number of known cases of diabetes, there are a great many who do not know they have the disease. Diabetes, in its earliest stages, may not be obvious to the sufferer who can easily regard the continual tiredness, hunger and thirst as unimportant symptoms and, by neglect, might allow the disease to become firmly established. Any person who is over 50 and overweight or with a history of diabetes in the family, should have periodic medical examinations to check up on any possibility of contracting the ailment. By following their doctor's orders as to treatment and general way of life, most of the cases under doctors' care are able to live almost normal lives.

Congratulations to Master Teddy Hood who celebrated his 5th birthday on Monday of this week. Proud new grandparents in the community are Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Rumney and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stephenson hope to bring their new son, John Kenneth, home from the East General Hospital on Christmas Eve.

Alleen Easton was rushed to the East General Hospital last Sunday afternoon, where she underwent an emergency appendectomy. We are glad to report she is making a good recovery. Mrs. S. J. Egan is spending the holiday season with Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gray at Kirkland Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid are motoring to Florida where they will join Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson for Christmas.

Proud possessor of a new portable typewriter is Mrs. S. J. English who received one from the congregation and Sunday School of Brown's Corners church in appreciation of her many services throughout the year. Misses Dorothy Hood and Joan Stephenson also received token gifts for their assistance at the piano and organ.

Sunday School Concert

Star shine and moonlight — footsteps on crunchy snow and high children's voices — Friday night had everything that the traditional Christmas concert requires. And from all over the countryside people made their way to the tiny, brightly lighted church in its setting of tall evergreens. Norman Reid was the jovial master of ceremonies at Brown's and the children outdid themselves. There were songs and recitations and skits. Dorothy Hood and Mrs. Harold Steffler had prepared "Mother Goose Entertains" for their group of small children.

Mrs. Ross Hord and Mrs. Norman Reid and Charles Turner all had a hand in the training of groups.

Santa Claus came at last to top off the evening, and distributed gifts from a well laden tree. W. I. Entertainers

Girls of Club 15, their mothers and their leader, Mrs. George Kelly were guests of honour when W.I. members held a Christmas party for them at the home of Mrs. Russell Boyington last Saturday afternoon.

In appreciation of her work with junior groups, Mrs. Kelly was presented with a life membership pin.
