1st Jefferson Group M.A. Meets

Fifteen ladies attended the inaugural meeting of the 1st Jefferson Group Mothers' Auxiliary, which was held Tuesday evening, March 16.

Scoutmaster Fred Chevis, guest speaker for the occasion, gave a most interesting and informative talk on the fundamentals of scouting; its origin and growth; program and method; as well as the scout promise, law, slogan and motto as laid down over 50 years ago by Lord Baden-Powell.

Touching briefly on every aspect of Scouting, Mr. Chevis said, "The idea behind the proficiency badges (seven of which may be earned by each scout) is to help the boys learn a trade. Knowledge acquired through scouting often points the way to a boy's future vocation."

To conclude his address, Mr. Chevis quoted the following excerpt found among the papers of the late Baden-Powell: "I believe that God put us in this jolly world to be happy and enjoy life. Happiness doesn't come from being rich, nor merely from being successful in your career, nor by self-indulgence. One step towards happiness is to make yourself healthy and strong while you are a boy, so that you can be useful and so can enjoy life when you are a man."

But the real way to get happiness is by giving out happiness to other people. Try and leave this world a little better than you found it and when your turn comes to die, you can die happy in feeling that at any rate you have not wasted your time but have done your best."

More boys are needed in the 1st Jefferson Scout troop and Scoutmaster Chevis would be very glad to hear from at least five or six prospective members.

As this was the first meeting of the newly organized executive of the Mothers' Auxiliary, Mrs. Passmore introduced the executive members to those present as follows: President, Mrs. John Passmore; vice-president, Mrs. Jas. Fletcher; secretary and press Mrs. H. Robertson; treasurer, Mrs. Jack Hall; membership Mrs. Harry Pridham; social convener, Mrs. Thos Dick; Sunshine convener, Mrs. Alex Love and Sewing convener, Mrs. Ross Kerwin.

Mrs. Kerwin then made a motion that a membership fee of 50c a year be adopted by the auxiliary, with an additional collection of 10c at each meeting. All present were in favor of this procedure.

It was also announced that a Tea, sponsored by the M.A., will be held Wednesday afternoon, May 5, from 2-4 p.m., at the home of the president, Mrs. J. Passmore. Everyone is invited to attend.

The meeting closed with the reading of the "Mothers' Promise."

Open House For Cubs & Scouts
Please don't forget the 1st Jefferson Group Cubs and Scouts is holding "Open House" at the new school Tuesday, March 30, from 8 to 10 p.m.

There will be a distribution of badges; the appointment of new senior sizers as well as the leaping up ceremony for those cubs who are now ready to go on up to scouts. Cubmaster and Mrs. E. Ensor would like to see the boys' parents and friends come out in support.

A letter was read from the Link Institute in England. The latter part of the program was a movie presented by Mrs. L. Orange Home School Entertains
All the school-age children of the L.T.B. and Orange Home participated in their annual 'show of the year' held last Friday night.

Over 200 guests, comprising parents and friends of the children crowded into the large recreation room in the basement of the Home, after enjoying a complete tour of the three-story building that houses around 80 children and a working staff of about 8 or 10 under Matron Gladys Freethy.

The program staged by the 43 school children at the Orange Home, was most ably directed by Miss Barbara Brown and S. J. Brown.

We have often remarked on the clear diction these youngsters possess and it seemed that this year, with Miss Brown supervising their musical education, the children have made a further improvement in harmonizing. The Junior Choir's renditions of The Train, Good Pierrot, and Young Musician were sung in a very bright manner while the Senior choir's offering of The Bay of Biscay, the Bugle Horn and Some Folks Do, carried their listeners along with them in a most enjoyable style.

The program was nicely rounded out with various skits, plays and recitations, interspersed here and there with words of greeting from various L.O.L. officials introduced by D. S. Macpherson, Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

The youthful square-dancers, along with their very young caller, received a good big hand from the audience.

Following the concert, refreshments were served in the dining hall. Among those present were Mrs. Amy Johnston, Rev. A. A. Chote, Charles Carrey, Murray Steele and Mrs. Irene McKee.
