O'Brien-Jenkins Nuptials At St. Mary's Catholic Church

O'Brien - Jenkins Nuptials
Spring flowers decorated the Altar of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Richmond Hill, on April 24 for the marriage of Kathleen Veronica Jenkins, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Jenkins and the late Ernest Jenkins to Mostyn Anthony O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terence O'Brien, Richvale. The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. Frederick McGinn and Liturgical music throughout the mass was provided by the Choir of the Church of The Martyrs, Bradford.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Jenkins, and wore a cocktail length redingote gown of French blue lace over nylon tulle and satin. She wore a finger-tip veil of blue illusion net trimmed with Chantilly lace falling from a transparent coronet studded with seed pearls and tiny sapphires. The bride carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

The maid of honour, Miss Rita Pender wore a gown of pink lace with matching pink flowered hat and carried a bouquet of red roses. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Roberta Jenkins wore a floor-length yellow nylon gown with a matching yellow flowered hat and carried a nosegay of Spring flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Jr., brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were Monty O'Brien, Gertrude O'Brien and Ernest Jenkins.

During the signing of the register a lovely rendition of "Because" was sung by Mrs. Constance Savage. The wedding breakfast was held in the dining room of the Richmond Theatre Grill where the bride's mother received in a lavender lace dress with a corsage of pale yellow roses. The groom's mother assisted her in a gown of grey lace with corsage of yellow roses.

Daughter Of Immigrant Parents Dies At 94

A pioneer of this district, Mrs. Margaret M. Lynett, died at Our Lady of Mercy Hospital, Toronto, on Tuesday, at the age of 94. Mrs. Lynett had been admitted to the hospital following a fall two years ago when she broke her hip. Prior to this time she had been living with her son, Jack, at Kleinburg.

Born in 1860 at Jefferson, Mrs. Lynett was the eldest daughter of Irish immigrant parents, James McWilliams and Teresa Hocter, her parents coming to Canada in the 1850's. There were seven boys and two girls in the McWilliams family and Mrs. Lynett was the last to survive. Mrs. Lynett predeceased her husband, Frederick J., who operated a creamery business in Richmond Hill before his death in 1918.

Horticultural Highlights

By Richmond Hill Horticulturists
On May 8, 1954, the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society presents its first flower show of the year. It is the "Daffodil Show" under the sponsorship of Mr. Wm. Campbell. It should be wonderful to see all our local daffodils on display. You too can show your daffodils. All you have to do is take your blossoms to the Lions Community Hall on Saturday, May 8, between the hours of 4.30 and 6.30 p.m. Bring your own container and Mr. Campbell will be there to assist you in displaying your flowers to the best advantage. An entry fee of 5c will be charged for each entry to a maximum of 50c. Judging will be by Mr. Ernie Kohler between 6.30 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. The public is invited to come and see the Daffodil Show in the evening. During the evening there will be plant sale for members only. Plants, bulbs and bushes will be brought in with name tags attached and all members can buy these at a very nominal price. Mr. Joe Boyer will be looking af-
