Plan Laskay Anniversary

Plans for the 50th anniversary services of Laskay United Church was the main topic of the Laskay W.M.S. at the home of Mrs. William Bryson on Wednesday, May 5. The principal speakers during the services on Sunday, May 23, and the following Tuesday will be Dr. Archer Wallace of Maple, Rev. Alec Forrest of Port Credit and Rev. Crossley Hunter of Toronto. The Laskay ladies have planned a birthday party to take place after the morning service on May 23, in the Sunday School room. Mrs. Glen Dooks and Mrs. Lewis Marwood have offered to make the large birthday cake for the party.

At the W.M.S. meeting, Mrs. M. McMurchy read Edna Jacques' poem, "Spring Comes," and another poem by James Whitcomb Riley. Vera Hunter gave the reading, "I Heard Him Call" by Frances Stevenson, main speaker at the Newmarket Spring Rally.

Presentation
Mrs. Walter Shropshire and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Len Shropshire of Con. 3 King, were presented with gifts by the ladies of the Eversley W.A. at their home on Wednesday, May 5. The Shropshires are leaving King in June and are moving to a farm near Queensville with their children, Carolyn and Ross. The presentation address was prepared by Mrs. Laura Rolling and was read by Mrs. Fred Curtis, the president of the W.A.

The devotions were taken by Mrs. Ross Bovair and Mrs. Audrey Wade. Mrs. Fred Curtis gave the reading "My Mother's Apron" by the well-known Toronto columnist, Miss Mary Jane Scott. A poem was read by Mrs. Roy Bowen. The singing and contests were led by Miss Jessie Gelatly. The ladies closed the meeting with the hymn, "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds".

Presents Social Work Badges
The girls of All Saints' Anglican G.A. were presented with their Social Work badges by the rector, Rev. D. C. H. Michell at the morning service on Sunday, May 9. The ten girls, dressed in the G.A. uniform of navy skirt, blue tie and beanie and white blouse, received their badges for which they had worked during the year. The girls have studied the work being done at the Anglican Houses in Toronto, the Ingles House for girls, the Beverley Lodge for boys and the Strachan Houses, a home for aged persons, which was opened in 1934.

Kitchen Fire
A fire in the kitchen cabinet of Earl Campbell of Con. 5 King caused some souvenir war rifle shells in the cabinet to explode early Sunday morning, May 9. With the help of two of his daughters, Clair and Gerry, who carried water, Mr. Campbell, was able to extinguish the fire. Later James Ransom of Aurora was charged with having an unlicensed loaded Luger pistol.

Plant Sale
The annual spring plant sale will be held at All Saints' Anglican Church on Saturday, May 22, at 2 p.m., under the auspices of the W.A. Besides the vegetables and flowers for sale, there will be a Home Baking table.

All Saints' Sunday School
The Sunday School classes of All Saints' Anglican Church in King City are being held in the morning at 11:15 a.m. instead of in the afternoon. The classes commenced at the new time on Sunday, May 9. It is hoped that for the next two months, the parents of the children going to Sunday School, will find the new time more satisfactory.

Guest Speaker
Rev. Arthur Thompson of Toronto will be the guest of the young people of All Saints' Anglican Church when they hold their annual communion and church breakfast at 8 a.m. Sunday, May 16.

Laskay Sunday School
The pupils of Laskay, their parents and friends were shown four educational films at the Laskay United Church Sunday School room on Friday evening, May 7. Miss Jean Bryson of Laskay, who teaches at the Richvale Public School, was responsible for procuring and showing the movies, "The Story of Paper", a colored film, put out by the Abitibi Power and Paper Co. and three other movies obtained from the Richvale Public School, were shown on Friday. One of the other films was made up of pictures of "Prince Charles." Another "Black Bear Twins" showed the lives of two little bears and the third film was for the younger children, a collection of Mother Goose stories. Refreshments were served to a large audience of children and adults.

Public School Concert
The J. Arthur Rank production, "A Queen Is Crowned", was the main feature of the concert sponsored by the teachers and trustees of King City Public School held at the King United Church on Friday evening, May 7. Beside the film shown by George DeWitt of the National Film Board, there was also a musical program under the direction of Iltyd Harris of Aurora. The public school choir sang, "Land of Our Birth", the test piece which won them first prize at the York Music Festival. There were musical numbers by the junior and intermediate room choruses. The guest artists were some of the young people of Aurora, who received awards at the Kiwanis Music Festival. The following King public school pupils gave recitations: Donna Barns, Margaret Keens, Barbara Patton, Mary Carol Wotherspoon, Douglas Parsons and Peter Rawlings. The chairman of the school board, Lawrence Scott, was Master-of-ceremonies. The proceeds of the evening will go toward the purchase of a duplicator for the school.

King City Public School Choir

The King City Public School Choir under the direction of Iltyd Harris of Aurora won first prize in their class at the York Music Festival which was held at Woodbridge, the music centre for on Thursday afternoon, May 6. Singing "Land of Our Birth" in the four room choir under the forty young men from King, were praised by the adjudicator Clifford McAree who is the principal of the Forest Hill Branch of the Toronto Conservatory of Music in Toronto. The choir which received the second award was from the Keswick Public School. The children of the Loyal True Blue and Orange Home School, from Richmond Hill, won the third prize. The students from King were accompanied on the bus by their principal, Miss Eva Dennis.
