SILVER MEDAL CERTIFICATE
 Don Head Molly's Huberta, a junior 4 year old cow in the Don Head herd at Richmond Hill, Ontario, has been awarded a Silver Medal certificate by the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club. She is a daughter of the superior and Silver medal bull, Brampton Molly's Pinnacle. In 305 days Huberta produced 10,776 lbs. of milk and 591 lbs. of fat. It takes a great producing cow in the Jersey breed to win a Medal of Merit certificate, but such an honour has recently come to Brampton W R Bloy Pinn, a Jersey cow bred and owned by B. H. Bull & Son, Brampton, Ontario. This outstanding daughter of Brampton World's Record went on test as a senior 4 year old, and in 305 days, on 3 times milking produced 13,610 lbs. of milk and 761 lbs. of fat.

Henderson Ave Home & School
 On Wednesday, May 19th, the Henderson Ave Home and School held its first Annual meeting, when an evening entertainment was provided by pupils of grades 6, 7 and 8 and two guest artists. Guest artists were the Misses Martin, young talented daughters of Hugh Martin, Music supervisor of our school area. The girls gave several piano and vocal selections, separately and as duets with Mrs. Martin accompanying the duets. The pupils of grade 8 presented a play called Mock Court, written by a pupil, Peter Kerslake and the parents found this item both amusing and very well acted. Pupils of grades 6, 7 and 8 recited "The Highway Man", very ably also. The children and Mr. Martindale and Mrs. Robinson who were responsible for them were thanked by Mr. C. Armstrong. The Annual reports of the different officers and convenors were then read, and added up to a very successful first year for the new association. The retiring president, C. Armstrong wished the new executive continued success and called on Mrs. H. E. LeMasurier, district chairman for Federation to duly install the new officers. President, Mrs. A. Lennie, vice-president, J. Forrest, Rec'l. Sec'y, Mrs. Parker, Corr. Sec., Mrs. Vauxvix, Treas., B. Wiley, Executive members, C. Armstrong, F. Harry, K. Stephenson, Mrs. A. MacDonald and Mrs. K. Richan. The approval of the members was given to spend $75.00 on shrubbery for the beautification of the school property, this money was raised by the successful Movie Night and much credit goes to all responsible. The attendance for largest percentage of parents present was won by grade 8, Mr. Martindale's class. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Welt and her committee.

Visitor From England
 Mrs. V. Jackson, 37 Grandview Ave. is very happy to have with her on a five week visit, her mother Mrs. Sherwood, from England who arrived on the Manitoba on Monday May 24th. She will sail for home again on July 1st. We are very pleased that Mrs. Jackson is feeling much better after her lengthy confinement to bed and will be up and around to enjoy her mother's visit. We hope Mrs. Sherwood will enjoy her brief stay in our community.
