

Graduation Pins Presented By Langstaff Home And School

On Friday, June 11, the Grade 8 pupils of Langstaff Public School and their parents, along with the teaching staff, were guests of the Home and School Association at a Graduation banquet. The school auditorium was very festive with its brightly decorated tables, many bouquets of flowers and the huge cake iced in the school colors of grey and red.

Guest Speaker
During the evening there was an inspiring talk by Rev. C. H. Chambers, Minister of Thornhill Presbyterian Church, vocal selections by Mrs. Ada Rowe, monologues by Gary Skippin, and music at the piano by Mr. W. J. Downing.

Presents Graduation Pins
Mr. Everist assisted by Mrs. H. LeMasurier, presented the following students with graduation pins: Maria Anker, Betty Bever-

Special Awards
This year's two special awards were won by Viola Moss and Nancy Clement. Viola was presented with the cup for the highest academic proficiency by Barbara Ridout, last year's winner. Nancy won the cup for the person voted the best all-around student by the class itself and it was presented to her by Mrs. Morrison, the Home and School president.

There were a few closing remarks by Mr. H. LeMasurier and the evening ended with many expressions of congratulations and best wishes to all the students.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. J. ROY

Phone Avenue 5-2496

(Too late for last week)
Mr and Mrs Oscar Brodie, Stop 20 Yonge St., celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary Thursday, June 3. They spent a very enjoyable evening as guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunt, at the Dinner Dance at the Royal York.

Bridal Shower
Mrs. Robert Elliott entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Friday, June 4, in honour of bride-to-be Miss Shirley Thompson. The guest of honour's chair was decorated in pink and white — streamers ran to the ceiling and the arms were bedecked with flowers of white spirea and colored pansies. Shirley was assisted in opening the many gaily wrapped gifts by little Miss Margaret Elliott, to whom she is godmother, and who is to be flower girl at the wedding.

Guests present included Mrs. Ivor Williams, Mrs. Fern Russell, Mrs. John Elliott, Mrs. M. J. Croster, Mrs. C. Russell, Miss A. Hudson, Mrs. D. Madell, Mrs. E. Brooks, Mrs. Stringer, Mrs. W. Harris, Mrs. J. Martin, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Mrs. C. Thompson, Hostess Mrs. Robert Elliott, and daughter Miss Patricia Elliott. Those invited but unable to be present were Miss Hazel Stringer, Mrs. W. Armstrong, Mrs. G. Townsend, Mrs. H. Carroll, Miss Verna Carroll, Mrs. D. Carroll.

Mark-Vaun W.I.
The regular monthly meeting of the Mark-Vaun W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. L. Campbell, Willowdale, on Thursday, June 3. The new president, Mrs. Morrison, was in the chair. Regular monthly reports were given and special reports on the President's Conference at Guelph and the District Annual at Agincourt were given by Mrs. Morrison. Preliminary plans for a Family Picnic were made. This is to be held on the last Wednesday in July at the home of Mrs. Morrison's mother, Mrs. Mizen, Doncaster. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. White, Mrs. Holt, and Mrs. Van Horne. Several 'mum plants were won by those having lucky tea cups. There will be no meetings during July and August.

Sick List
Mrs. G. Townsend is ill in bed with scarlet fever.
Mr. George Clayton was rushed to Toronto General Hospital on Thursday, June 3, and is undergoing treatment for jaundice.
Two stitches were required to close a cut over the right eye of Georgie Lenneville, Sussex Ave., after he was hit by a baseball bat.

Mrs. A. T. Mathews, Stonehaven, No. 7 Highway, was brought home on Sunday from the Western Hospital where she has spent the past five weeks after undergoing an operation. Mrs. Mathews' doctor advises absolute quiet for a few days, after which she will be pleased to see her many friends and neighbors and to thank them personally for their thoughtful gifts of cards, flowers and fruit.

Personals
A happy group of Brownies and Guides entertained their mothers at a Picnic on Friday, June 11, in Thornhill Park. Frances Hicks, Essex Ave., was one of a group of Brownies who became Guides during the ceremonies of the afternoon.

We are glad to report that Gwenyth Green, Langstaff Side-road is progressing nicely after her unfortunate accident last week.
The last meeting of the season for the Junior W.I. was held at the home of Miss Kay McKinley, Garden Ave., on Wednesday, June 9. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of Pin-Up Lamps to Miss Shirley Thompson.

Many parties and presentations were held for Miss Shirley Thompson during the past week.
Mrs. Joan Suter was hostess at a Personal Shower held at the home of Mrs. N. Hicks, Essex Avenue. The members of the Junior W.I. and former fellow employees from the Bell Telephone Exchange, Thornhill, were among the guests. Maid of honor, Miss Elsie Gemmel assisted the bride in opening the many presents. Mrs. N. Hicks poured tea, and refreshments were served by Mrs. M. Holt, Francis Hicks, and Mrs. Joan Suter. The table was centred by a beautifully decorated cake with the inscription "Showers of Happiness, Shirley". About 25 guests from Toronto, Green River, Langstaff and Willowdale, gathered at the home of Mrs. Marshall Thompson, Richmond Hill, for a miscellaneous shower.

Miss Thompson was presented with a Kenwood blanket from the Sales and Servicing Department of the Bell Telephone Company, and bath towels and face cloths from the Commercial Employees' Association.

Wedding

SPENCELEY-BLAIR

An interesting wedding was solemnized in the Langstaff Baptist Church on Saturday, June 5, when Dorothy Ivy Spenceley was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Alfred Spenceley, to William Blair, son of Mr. D. Blair and the late Mr. David Blair of Glasgow, Scotland.

Rev. Albert Jones officiated at the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Rev. L. Coupland. Don Marritt sang, "I'll Walk Beside You", also "Because."

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace over chalk white satin with fitted bodice, the skirt having a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil of nylon illusion was caught to a lace cap with tiny sprays of white lilac. She carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses and white mums and fern.

Miss Mabel Baker was maid of honor. She wore a dress of orchid nylon tulle over French taffeta with matching hairband and carried roses and sweet peas.

Miss Shirley Stevens, cousin of the bride, and Miss Gwen Carter were bridesmaids wearing pastel green nylon tulle over French taffeta with matching hairbands. They also carried bouquets of roses and sweet peas.

The bride's twin cousins, Elaine and Ethyl Clarke, were flower girls and looked very sweet wearing yellow taffeta Bo-Peep dresses with matching bonnets and mitts. They carried nosegays of sweetpeas.

Stan Carter was groomsman. Ushers were Paul Spenceley and Bruce Stevens.

The congregation joined in the singing of the Wedding Hymn. The reception was held at the family residence, Langstaff. The bride's mother received the many guests wearing a rose-pink gown with white accessories and a corsage of roses and sweetpeas.

The happy couple left later for points east. For travelling, the bride wore a dress of turquoise bengaline made on princess lines with matching hat and heather rose coat with accessories of amber tone.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair will reside in Langstaff.

Ont. Dept. of Lands & Forests Aerial photographs will play an important part in the survey of woodlots of Southern Agricultural Ontario being carried out this summer by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests. Here A. N. Boissonneau, using small magnifying stereoscope, marks forest type boundaries on aerial photographs at Toronto head office. Photographs are placed in sketchmaster and type boundaries transferred to base maps to complete final forest type map.
