Borden-MacKenzie
 All Saints Anglican Church, King, was the scene of a wedding of wide interest when Jennifer MacKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Crawford, became the bride of Mr. Robert Laird Borden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borden. The service was conducted by Canon C. G. Moton of St. Simon's Church, Toronto, on June 19. The wedding music was played by Mr. M. Y. Wilson. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of white organza. Her fingertip veil fell from a bridal wreath and she carried white gladioli.
 The bride was attended by Miss Ann Borden, maid of honour and bridesmaids, Mrs. W. H. Giles, Miss Louise Mastin and Miss Mary Jean Borden. The attendants wore floor length gowns of coral nylon net and carried bouquets of coral-pink sweet peas. Their headbands were of matching flowers.
 The groomsmen were Mr. Hugo Grount and ushers were Mr. Perry Borden, Mr. Donald McLean and Mr. William Weeks.
 During the signing of the register, the guests sang the hymn "Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven."
 For the reception held at "Kinkyle" the bride's mother received the guests in a gown of ice blue chantung with a small flowered hat and black accessories. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a Turquoise ensemble with white accessories.
 For travelling, the bride chose a yellow and brown silk print frock with brown hat and jacket. Returning from a trip to Cape Cod, the couple will reside in Toronto. Out of town guests were from Montreal, Guelph and Brant.
