Weddings

MOREHOUSE-THOMPSON

On the day of her parents' 25th wedding anniversary, with Dr. E. E. Kent officiating, Shirley Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, Langstaff, became the bride of Charles Rodrick Morehouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morehouse, Marathon, Ont.

The double ring service was held in a candlelight ceremony on Tuesday evening, June 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Thornhill United Church against a background of pink peonies and carnations, and white chrysanthemums.

Mr. John Oliver of the church choir sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because", accompanied by Mrs. W. Heath at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a waltz-length bouffant gown of accordinated pleated tulle skirt over satin, with a chantilly lace redingote. Her bridal illusion veil with edging of embossed roses, was caught to a chantilly lace and pearl studded headdress. She carried an all-white cascade of cala lilies and carnations.

Maid of honour, Elsie Gemmell, wore a ballerina-length gown of pink nylon marquisette over taffeta with white cuffed neckline and matching jacket. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Laura Thompson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Edith Malcolm wore similar gowns of pastel blue. The attendants' floral headdresses matched their gowns and they carried cascades of variegated pink carnations. Flower girl, Margaret Elliott, god-daughter of the bride, wore a short gown of white embroidered Swiss organdy over pink taffeta. Her floral head-dress matched her dress and she carried a nosegay of spring flowers.

Vincent Perry of the RCAF station at Trenton, was groomsman, and ushers were Marshall Thompson, brother of the bride, and Dennis Tugwood, also of the RCAF station at Trenton.

Receiving, the bride's mother wore an ankle-length gown of powder blue sheer with a corsage of red roses. Assisting was the groom's mother, wearing an ankle-length gown of mauve sheer with a corsage of white roses. For going away the bride chose a pastel mauve, full skirted dress of voile, set off by a white Man straw picture hat and corsage of white gardenia.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Fredericton, Campbellton and Bathurst, New Brunswick; Port Hope, Green River, Weston, Lansing, Toronto, Port Perry, Stouffville, and Trenton, Ontario; and Arcola, Saskatchewan.

After their honeymoon trip to New Brunswick, the couple will reside in Alberta, where the groom has received his posting with the RCAF.

BLAIR-SPENCELEY

Rev. Albert Jones officiated in Langstaff Baptist church when Dorothy Grey Spenceley was given in marriage by her father, to William Blair, son of Mrs. Blair, Glasgow, Scotland, and the late David Blair.

The bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace over white satin with fitted bodice and skirt falling into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of nylon illusion was caught to a lace cap with sprays of white lilac and she carried a bouquet of pink roses, sweet peas and mums.

Miss Mabel Baker was maid of honor and wore a dress of nylon orchid tulle over French taffeta with matching headband and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Miss Shirley Stevens and Miss Gwen Carter were bridesmaids, similarly gowned in green. The bride's twin cousins, Elaine and Ethyl Clarke, were flower girls in yellow taffeta. They carried sweet peas.

The groomsmen were Stan Carter and ushers were Paul Spenceley, brother of the bride, and Bruce Stevens. The bride's mother received at home wearing a rose pink lace gown with a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

STEP IN and DRIVE

TRY FORD BEFORE YOU BUY

This invitation comes from your Ford Dealer. He's inviting you to get behind the wheel of a Ford V-8 and compare it with any other car in its field. He's willing to bet that Ford's performance will be an eye-opener to you, because it's based on V-8 power—from a great V-8 engine made by Canada's most experienced V-8 builder.

He's sure you'll be impressed when you discover that Ford has the smooth ride and the road-holding steadiness that maybe you thought were available only in cars costing a lot more.

He believes you'll find that Fordomatic Drive operates more smoothly, more quietly and more efficiently than any other transmission on the road... and that Ford's power features—"Master-Guide" Power Steering, Power Brakes, Power Seat and Power Window Lifts—take practically every last ounce of effort out of driving.

He's convinced that when you add everything up you'll know why Ford is Canada's best buy. There's a Ford waiting for you to try at your Ford Dealer's now. Step in and drive.
