EDGELEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1 Maple
Telephone Maple 110R3

W.L. Assisted by their music teacher, Miss Isobel Gould, Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Peelar favored the members of the Edgeley Women's Institute, and a member of their family as host on a happy organ recital at their home on July 2, when Mrs. Peelar chose this novel and pleasant way of raising her talent money for the Women's Institute talent fund.
Mr. and Mrs. Peelar are very fortunate in the possession of a Hammond organ and in both being quite musical.
Bert, as Mr. Peelar is known to all, opened the program with two sacred numbers "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross and 'Have Thy Own Way, Lord', with Miss Gould accompanying on the violin. Then came the sentimental number "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen" to be followed by "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." The guests were then taken back many years as he played the sentimental numbers "When You and I Were Young Maggie" and brought back to the present by "The Word is Waiting for the Sunrise" and the "Indian Love Call." He then closed his part of the program with "Perfect Day" again with Miss Gould and her violin assisting.
Miss Gould rendered a very delightful medley of tunes and then Mrs. Peelar started the second half of the recital with "Bells of St. Mary" which is a favorite with all and particularly good on the organ as they listened to Mrs. Peelar really "ring the bells." This was followed by "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "At Dawning." Then came "Meditation with Miss Gould and her violin joining in. Next was My Blue Heaven to be followed by The Rosary. She then started everyone's toes tingling with Wine Women and Song which she followed with Artist Life and Tru-mere. Next came One Fleeting Hour and then she chose the delightful and appropriate melody Memories.
Mrs. Peelar then graciously thanked all present for their support, and Miss Gould for her assistance.
Mrs. E. Phillips then voiced the sentiment of all present as she congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Peelar on their fine talent and friendly gesture in sharing with their friends. She then prevailed upon Miss Gould to sing and she very kindly rendered a vocal number while accompanying herself at the organ.
The guests then enjoyed a pleasant social period during which Mrs. Peelar served a most sumptuous lunch.
Finally the guests began to disperse, all with the united thought, "What an enjoyable evening!" and all wished Bert and Eva continued success in their musical efforts and hoped they may again be favored with such a musical treat in the near future.
