Celebrates 106th Anniversary

On Sunday, Sept. 12 the 106th anniversary services were held at the 2nd Baptist Church, King. Rev. J. C. MacFarlane of Aurora was the speaker at both services. In the afternoon he chose as his text, "The New Testament Church" and in the evening, "We ought to obey God rather than Man."

Mrs. Baxter from Toronto sang "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" and "The Stranger of Galilee" at the afternoon service. In the evening the United Church Choir of Schomberg rendered two numbers.

Rev. W. E. Smalley, pastor of the three charges of Bethel Baptist Church, King City, 2nd Baptist Church, King, and Emmanuel Church, Kettleby, will be leaving at the end of September to take up his duties at three Baptist charges near Hamilton. Rev. Smalley and Mrs. Smalley will live at Binbrook, the locality of one of the three charges, 10 miles from Hamilton. The other two charges are at Caistor and Tyneside. Rev. Smalley has been pastor of the three charges in King for six years and three months.

Thanksgiving services will be held at Immanuel Baptist Church Sunday September 19. Rev. F. N. Poulton secretary of the Canadian Council of Churches will be the guest speaker at both services. Special music will be provided at the morning service by the Baptist Ladies choir and male

Tour Great Britain

Mrs. J. Grew and Miss Suzanne Grew returned Sunday, September 5, from a trip to England, Scotland and Wales. Miss Ann Borden accompanied them on the trip to England, but returned by plane on August 22.

Upon arriving at Southampton, a car was rented to take a motor tour of the South of England, Wales to the Isle of Skye. While in Wales they attended the Eisteddfod Music Festival. The religious song service sung partly in Welsh and partly in English was magnificent. At Stratford-on-Avon they attended one of the last written plays of William Shakespeare. On leaving the theatre Miss Grew was surprised to hear two children 7 and 10 years of age who were discussing the play with amazing knowledge of the characters, plot and background.

While in Scotland, the famous castles were visited including the home of Mary Queen of Scots. They also visited the cathedral cities of York and Lincoln. They arrived in London from their motor trip on August 1 and spent the remaining time sightseeing, attending the theatres in the famous city. They were fortunate, while in Westminster Abbey to hear the Kingston, Ont., boy's choir. Mrs. Grew and Miss Grew sailed August 26 for Canada where they were met at the boat by Mr. Grew and Tim Grew.

Baptism

On Sunday, September 5, Jennifer Lois Fogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fogg, Fogwood Farms, was baptized at All Saints Anglican Church, King City, Rev. D.C.H. Michell performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tetley are the godparents. Afterwards they were entertained at the Tetley home.

United Church W.M.S.

On Thursday, September 9, the W.M.S. of King City United Church met at the home of Mrs. I. L. Scott. Mrs. Ted Wallas took the worship service with India as the theme. Plans were made for the "Thankoffering" meeting on October 14, to be held in King City United Church. The auxiliaries of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Anglican churches in King City and district are being invited to attend. Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson read an article on India. Mrs. J. Rock led a discussion on the Missionary for Prayer in Japan.

Strange W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Strange, W.M.S., was held at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Whitley Finch, townline, King. Mrs. Black presided. Mrs. Robt. Farren read the chapter "A Widening Circle" from the Study Book. Mrs. Fred Gray, Richmond Hill, and Mrs. Wilfred Hodge, Maple, played two piano duets. Mrs. Hodge also rendered a piano solo. Mrs. Whitley Finch gave a reading entitled "Little things". Mrs. Donald McCallum gave excerpts from the book, "Gateways to the Bible." The Fall Rally of Toronto West Presbyterian in Parkdale Presbyterian Church on Thursday, October 7, was discussed. The Thankoffering meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Gray, Richmond Hill, on October 13.

The anniversary services at St. Andrew Presbyterian Church at Strange will be held Sunday, October 3, both morning and evening.

Guest Preacher

Dr. J. B. Skene, B.A., formerly of Vancouver was the preacher at the three Presbyterian charges in King. He read as the text for his sermon, Chapter 21 of Revelations "twelve foundations and in them twelve apostles". "We can't build from the ground up but from heaven down," said Dr. Skene. Before the sermon Dr. Skene read a letter from Dr. Edgar Forman, clerk of Presbytery, declaring the churches of West King, Strange and Eversley vacant.

Honor Rev. & Mrs. Witherspoon
A weiner and corn roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Abrahams, King City, on Friday evening, September 3, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. David Witherspoon and family who have left the community to live in Toronto.

Also at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Len Shropshire and family, Queenville, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowen and family. Rev. and Mrs. Witherspoon were recipients of a lovely aluminum tray.

Socials

Mrs. George Paton of Laskay celebrated her 81st birthday on Saturday, September 11.

Mrs. J. Egan, Miss E. Egan, of King and Mrs. Robert Farran of King City, visited Miss Elizabeth Wood, Mr. Clarence Wood and Miss Bessie Wood at Bradford last week.

Miss E. Courtney and her mother, Mrs. George Courtney spent a quiet holiday recently at Sturgeon Lake.

Mrs. Garnet Diceman and Mrs. Stanley Diceman attended a shower at Newmarket for Mrs. G. Diceman, niece, Miss Kathleen Diceman, last Thursday, Sept. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harmon from Northumberland were visitors last week of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Diceman, Hope. Six-year-old Faith Staley, King City, celebrated her birthday on Friday, September 10, with a party. Among her young guests were Susan Staley, her sister, Barbara Billings, Deenie Jarvis, Mary Ann Riddell, Kenzie and Doug DeCarle, Barbara Rawlings and Marie Minton. Sympathy is extended to Mr. George Billings, King City, whose mother, Mrs. Frank Billings passed away at her home at Kettleby on Saturday, September 11, after a lengthy illness. The service took place on Monday, September 13, and the interment was in Bond Head cemetery.

Plan Rural Shopping Centre
Near Laskay On Glass Farm

A site for a rural shopping centre has recently been purchased in King Township near Laskay. The area is 3 1/2 acres in size, and will eventually contain a series of stores with off-street parking. The development will have a rural character and be architect designed and landscaped. The property is located at the corner of the 6th Line and the King-Nobleton Road and is a portion of the farm of L. J.

Glass. Mr. William W. Barrett, lawyer, who has a summer cottage on the 7th line is the purchaser and developer. Mr. Barrett states that the initial development will be a general store or grocery store and future stores will be built as the community expands. The size and character of the first store will depend on the tenant. Mr. Barrett is now looking for a suitable tenant.

Heavy Enrolment At King
City Area Public Schools

At present there is an enrolment of 132 at King City Public School. Registered at the school are nine pupils from Temperanceville and 17 from Strange. These children are driven to school by Mr. John Dew in a small Langdon bus. The school board turned down a request of Hope school to have some of the grade 7 and 8 pupils come to King Public School as Carson Byce has at present 42 pupils in his grade 7 and 8 classroom. Grades 1 and 2 and grades 3 and 4 will be staggered for a while until the new classroom is ready for occupation. Miss Patton is teaching grades 1 and 2 in the morning. Mrs. Hemphill is teaching grades 3 and 4 in the afternoon.

Wedding

McQUARRIE-HOLLINSHEAD
A wedding of wide interest was solemnized in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Nobleton, on Saturday, September 4, when Ruth Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hollinshead became the bride of Bruce Isaac McQuarrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac McQuarrie. The service was conducted against a background of pink and white gladioli by Rev. W. R. Symons. Soloist Roger Rawlings sang "Where'er You Walk and O Perfect Love, and organist was Miss Dorothy Armstrong.

The bride, given in marriage by her father chose a strapless floor-length gown of white nylon tulle over white slipper satin, with a short-sleeved lace jacket and gloves of matching lace. Her finger-tip veil was held by a cap of white tulle over satin, and she carried a cascade of white gladioli, carnations and pink roses.

Miss June Hollinshead, sister of the bride, was maid of honour. Mrs. Mervyn McQuarrie and Miss Marion Burns, bridesmaids and Miss Diana McQuarrie, flower-girl. They wore strapless waltz-length gowns of net over taffeta and crinoline skirts, with lace jackets and gloves, and feather headdresses of colours matching their gowns, a shrimp, green, and gold. They carried cascades of gladioli and carnations of harmonizing colours. The flower girl wore a gold taffeta, waltz-length gown with a gold velvet sash matching the gold velvet band on her head and carried a nosegay of rose buds.

Mr. Mervyn McQuarrie was groomsmen for his brother and ushers were Mr. Kenneth McQuarrie and Mr. Douglas Hollinshead.

For the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received in a light blue crepe dress trimmed with rhinestones and accented by dark blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a dark blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Leaving for a trip to Northern Ontario the bride donned a beige suit dress, trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. Brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses completed her ensemble. On their return they will reside at Hope.

Out-of-town guests attended from Brampton, Mount Albert and Toronto.
