C.N.E. Winners

King City Women's Institute won third prize of $35 in the C. N.E. competition "Five Ways to Improve the Exhibition" on Saturday, Sept. 11. Miss Eva Dennis, Mrs. Austin Rumble and Mrs. Howard Neill represented the W.I. at the exhibition. This is the third time King City has won prize money in this competition. In 1951 and 1952 second place was won. The Five Ways to improve the Exhibition were:

1. Provide a large new air conditioned women's building to house all women's activities and have a special Women's Day program.
2. Re-organize the exhibition trains to provide better service (a) queuing up to get on, (b) have some system of marking stops, (c) having more frequent stops (d) have some system of marking routes.
3. Conduct a publicity campaign against litter before the exhibition opens. Draw up anti-litter regulations and give attendants in the buildings and on the grounds authority to remind people of the regulations.
4. Provide more chair or bench accommodation in the less crowded areas for persons wishing to rest or for those who bring their own lunch, preferably under canvass, such as the place kept by the British American Oil Co.
5. Extend seats at the waterfront three to five hundred yards for those watching the water sports and roof them against the hot sun or rain.

Tour Lands and Forests
About 21 members of King City W.I. went on a tour of the Department of Lands and Forests at Maple on Tuesday, September 14. It was convened by Mrs. Archie Campbell, convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industries.

Student Minister
The pulpits of the three Presbyterian churches of Eversley, Strange and West King were occupied on Sunday, September 19 by Mr. Edward McKinlay, second year student of Knox College, Toronto. Recently returned from the iron ore development at Atikokan in Northern Ontario, Mr. McKinlay told of the rapid growth of the new area, comprised of homes featuring the last word in modern living.

Mr. McKinlay was the first and the last Presbyterian student in Atikokan because as a result of his work there this summer the mission board sent an ordained minister and his family to Atikokan last week. A new home awaited them and the construction of the church has already commenced.

Anniversary services will be held at the Presbyterian Church West King on Sunday Sept. 26 at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Schomberg United Church choir will provide the music at both services.

NORTH YORK: Council has ordered a traffic survey to be made of the entire municipality.

Many Attend Firemen's Ball At King Despite Bad Weather

Between $200 and $300 were the proceeds from the fireman's Dance on Sept. 15 in Lake Marie Pavilion. The inclement weather did not prevent a number of people from enjoying the dancing to Weir's orchestra. Wives and mothers of the volunteer firemen assisted at the refreshment booth in the pavilion, serving hot coffee, soft drinks and hot dogs to the dancers and onlookers.

Fire Commissioner Alex Campbell welcomed the crowd to the first King City Firemen's Dance, then handed the microphone over to secretary Bob McLeod of the volunteer fire brigade to act as M.C.

Thanks For Assistance
Mr. McLeod thanked all those who had donated prizes or assisted the brigade in any way. Lake Marie and King Athletic Association had given the use of the pavilion free to the volunteer brigade for the dance. Mr. Ron Wilson, King City presented a cheque for $60 to Bob McLeod, in lieu of the helmets. Deputy-reeve William Hodgson was asked to speak on behalf of the township of King.

Deputy Congratulates
"On behalf of the township," said Mr. Hodgson, "I would like to congratulate the trustees on the initiative in purchasing fire equipment for one of the most populated villages in the township, to give fire protection to the surrounding countryside and village. I would like to congratulate those who have volunteered, especially, fire chief David Glass, who has taken on a great responsibility.

Mr. Hodgson then asked for a big hand for the volunteers who would be giving up a lot of time to the brigade. Councillor Douglas Wellesley was also at the dance.

Trustee Speaks
Chairman of the Trustees Don Findlay, was invited to address the crowd. He said the trustees took a big step in purchasing the fire truck and money would now be needed to equip it and the brigade. Mr. Findlay then donated a newly issued $5 bill to be raffled.

Lucky Draws
Mr. Jack Wilson of the Toronto Chamber of Commerce was asked to make the first two draws. Miss Joyce Abram Con. 4 King, won a rhinestone necklace. Mrs. E. B. Johnston won a Ronsen lighter. These prizes were donated by Deputy-Reeve Hodgson.

Reeve Elton Armstrong of King Township was asked to make the next draw.

"I am very interested in any volunteer fire brigade in the district that will do a great deal towards saving lives and property," said the Reeve in making the draw.

Bill Patton of King City won a gallon of Prestone donated by Drinkwater Motors. The draw for the $5 bill was then made by Fire Chief Jones of Aurora, who congratulated the winner, Mrs. Donald McCallum and also offered congratulations to the brigade.
