K-V-W League Champions

— Lagerquist studio
Coming right up from the cellar, Oak Ridges Girls' Softball team walked away with the King-Vaughan-Whitchurch League Championship last week at King City Ball Park when they won final series from Vellore 10-8. The third game of the two out of three Much credit goes to team manager, Charlie Swan, and coach Reid Himes, both shown with the girls in the picture above, and to Capt. E. C. Hawman who wish to extend a special thank-you to all team supporters.

Also competing in the league were teams from King and Maple. Vellore won one game in the play-off series to Oak Ridges' two.

Henderson Ave. School News
The children did a grand job in collecting baskets. A whole truck load was sent to the local market. The fruits of their efforts will surely be sweet.
The mass running-around and children dashing across the school grounds, the jumping and ball throwing you've seen for past weeks, is not mad hysteria, but the senior pupils practicing for the School Area Field Day which was held on October 13, at Powell Road School. Hope to report a reverse from last year with Henderson in first place. Results will be given next week.
2nd Thornhill Cub News
On Saturday, October 9, great activity was noticed on the baseball field on the Gambia farm when many cubs and their parents and members of the group committee were busy flying kites of many shapes and sizes. It was a nice breezy day, and all the youngsters are to be commended on their handling of their kites.
Cub News
Dave Seggie will be leaving our local cub pack in the near future. He regrets doing so, but he has been appointed District Cubmaster for the whole area,

The draw prize, a box of groceries was won by Miss Velma Findlay of Unionville. Next party will be riday, October 22.

Browns Corners Church
A beautifully decorated altar made a fine setting for the Thanksgiving service at Browns Corners Church Sunday morning. Rev. A. C. Huston preached a splendid sermon on Gratitude and Betty Huston's solo had a lovely appeal.
Announcements regarding next Sunday's anniversary services were made. In the morning, October 17, the speaker will be Rev. E. Newberry of Trinidad and there will be special music by the choir. In the evening, Rev. J. Wallens, assistant minister and Christian Education director of Timothy Eaton Memorial church will be the speaker while the Whitevale quartette, Mr. Edwin Bruce, Mr. White, Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. Milne will supply the music. Come early for a good seat.
CGIT
CGIT will be held next Monday, October 18, at the home of Margaret Brodie, Headford. This is initiation night. You can't afford to miss it.
Welcome to Miss Jean Howard of Barrie who has joined Mrs. Jas. Powell on the teaching staff at Buttonville school.
