The Liberal is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. Donald McCallum, telephone King 132M, and in Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox, Miss Marilyn Hawman, telephone TU, 4-1912.

King City Notes

All Saints Anglican
Rev. Canon J. W. McDonald gave the sermon at All Saints Anglican Church, King City, on Sunday, November 14. Canon McDonald in his address encouraged the congregation to attend the series of services conducted by the Rev. Gerald Gregson in All Saints Anglican Church, King City in December. "We should have Christ in our hearts." The purpose of the mission is to hear more about Christ, stressed Canon McDonald.

Fellowship Meeting
Mrs. Charles Robson presided at the Fellowship meeting at Teston United Church on Monday evening, November 8. Mr. Aubrey Gordon, King City, gave an illustrated address on the trip he had taken to the south-western United States.

Mission Band
There were 17 children present at the mission band meeting at King City United Church on Wednesday, Nov. 10. Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson was in charge in the absence of Mrs. V. Doner and Mrs. V. Gordon. The following officers were elected at the meeting: President, Douglas Parsons; secretary, Jane Abrahams; treasurer, Sheila Bell.

King City United
The monthly meeting of King City United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Ross Stuart on Thursday, November 11. Mrs. Ewart Patton conducted the worship service. Mrs. H. Ratcliffe gave the introduction to the new study book on India. Mrs. J. Norris gave a message on Christian citizenship. The election of officers will take place at the next monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Gordon.

Discussion Period
On Sunday, Nov. 28, 28 laymen of Ashbury West United Church, Toronto, will hold a discussion period on church subjects in the afternoon in King City United Church. The King Sunday School teachers will serve them a dinner at 5 p.m. The visitors will be present at the regular evening service.

St. Andrew's W.M.S.
The regular monthly meeting of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, St. Andrew's W.M.S., was held at the home of Mrs. Johnston Egan on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 10. Mrs. C. Black, president, presided. Mrs. H. Pickell read the scripture. Mrs. R. Farren read the study book chapter, "Shadows are Frontiers". Mrs. William Willoughby gave two readings "Only Love Itself" and "Let's Laugh". Mrs. T. L. Williams, vice-president of rural district section, brought greetings from Toronto West Presbyterian. In her address, Mrs. Williams read excerpts from the W.M.S. booklet entitled, "What does the W.M.S. Mean to You?" The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. Black. At the meeting will be held the election of officers.

Fire Brigade Party
Members of Aurora, Schomberg, Maple and Richmond Hill fire brigades had a good time at a party sponsored by King City

Gordon Orr Named R.O. For King City

A special meeting of the village trustees was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 9. Trustee Alex Campbell moved that Gordon Orr be the returning officer for nominations and polling if any.

Requests Permit
A letter sent by Miss Marion McLelland, King City, to Chairman Don Findlay, was discussed. Miss McLelland wishes to convert a building at the back of her property to a shop and living quarters. After discussion the trustees voted a recommendation to the township that a permit be granted to Miss McLelland for the conversion of the back building for commercial or to include residential quarters if the same are of auxiliary residential use to the front building.

Accounts
Commissioner of Waterworks, Alex Campbell, moved payment of a bill amounting to $4.86 for re-arrangement of pump house wiring, repairs to magnetic switch, repairs to pump bearing. Payment was approved of a bill of $9.10 for the installation of a light in front of the Post Office. A bill of $53.25 for hydrant material and labor was also approved.

Purchase Lantern Supply
The purchase of lanterns to be the property of the village was discussed. "The village needs lanterns in case of washouts," said Trustee Alex Campbell. The trustees also noted there were no lanterns to warn pedestrians at night when the sidewalks were being fixed. The trustees agreed to ratify the purchase of six lanterns to be village property.

William A. Ross Dies In 87th Year

Mr. William Arthur Ross died of cancer in his 87th year at the home of his son, Hugh Ross, Lot 7, Con. 5, King, on Tuesday, Nov. 9. Mr. Ross was born on a farm on the 2th line of King where Dr. J. Barrie now lives. He attended King City Public School and Kinghorn Public School. Mr. Ross was a carpenter on the estate of the late Sir Henry Pellat, Lake Marie, for over 30 years. Before his recent illness he farmed 20 acres in Vaughan Township and an acre at the home of his son Hugh Ross. Mr. Ross had lived with his son Hugh and family for the past 27 years. His wife, the late Mary McCallum, died in 1920. He is survived by his daughters, Flossie (Mrs. W. Bruce) and Clara (Mrs. J. Hamilton) of Toronto, and Hugh of King. Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, King City, officiated at the funeral service. Interment was in King City cemetery.

Volunteer Brigade in the Legion Hall. About 50 members of the brigades were present. A draw for turkeys netted $38 for the general funds of King City Fire Brigade.

Guides
King City Girl Guide Association had a bridge and euchre party at the home of Mrs. H. J. Davie on Wednesday, Nov. 17. The proceeds of over $13 will be used for Brownie work. Mrs. Wells McDonald won the first prize of a cup and saucer in the bridge while Mrs. Muriel Roots won the consolation prize.

Cancer Meeting
The Cancer meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Kay Clark on Wednesday evening, November 10. Thirteen members were present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. T. L. Williams in December.

Euchre
Thirty attended the Laskay W.I. euchre held in the hall at Laskay on Thursday evening, Nov. 11. The ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. Laurie Boys, Mrs. Fred O'Brien and Mrs. R. Murdoch. Tom Walker, Len Glass and Ross Bryson took the men's prizes.

Laskay W.M.S.
The monthly meeting of Laskay W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Jesse Richards on Tuesday, November 9. Mrs. L. Zuefelt, of Richmond Hill was the speaker. Mrs. Zuefelt in her address told some very interesting historical facts about the Richmond Hill and King area. 1797 was the date the first school was opened in King Township. The survey of King Township started in 1800 was not finished until 1858. In 1837, the first stage coach went as far as Holland Landing. In 1818 the first minister came to Richmond Hill. Rev. William Jenkins was a Presbyterian minister. Five hundred people travelled from quite a distance to attend the first communion service. Children received a white handkerchief if they attended Sunday School, and a cuff if they would not come.

For the musical program at the meeting, Marlene Lloyd and Mary Ann McMurchy rendered piano selections. Mrs. Marvin Hunter sang "Grandfather's Clock".

King Institute
King Institute monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Cora Specht on Thursday, Nov. 9. Mrs. Specht gave a report on the Women's Hospital Auxiliary. Mrs. Specht tendered her resignation as Institute representative on the auxiliary board. A motion was passed to have a monthly report from the library representative, Mrs. Ross Walker. It was decided to send $50 to Captain Bell of the Salvation Army at Bradford, to purchase rubber boots for Flood Relief. The motto, "Remember we live to today" will be in History books tomorrow, was explained by Miss Lily Anderson. The roll call, an old school verse created a lot of fun. Current events were given by Mrs. Howard Niell.

An engraved silver spoon was presented to Mrs. Len Shropshire by Mrs. Cora Specht. An engraved silver spoon was also sent to Mrs. Stan Hunter. They were W.I. members who have recently moved from the district. A report was given by Mrs. Colin Stewart and Mrs. Laura Rolling on the 52nd annual convention of the Central Ontario Women's Institutes held at the Royal York Hotel, Nov. 3, 4 and 5. Developing today's youth for tomorrow was the theme carried out by the different speakers at the convention. The resolution for a distinctive Canadian flag sent in by King W.I. members was passed.

Special Bus
Mr. John Fisher will speak on Selling Canada to Canadians at Aurora High School on Wednesday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. Mr. Fisher will familiarize the people of York County with the museum at the Temple at Sharon. A bus will leave King City at 7:30. There will be a 25c charge for the bus. Pupils of Grade 7 and 8 and high school students are invited to attend. This is under the auspices of King City.

Shows
