Christmas Party
In St. John Church hall, Rev. D. C. H. Michell and Capt. R. Prendergast and Sunday School teachers held a Christmas party for the children on Dec. 29. In spite of the driving sleet and snow, children and parents arrived prepared for a good time. Santa Claus was there and Mrs. L. Harnden presented the pageant from the Christmas Story. Refreshments were provided and everyone agreed it was a very successful party.

Church Bus
Rev. D. C. H. Michell would like more Oak Ridges people to take advantage of the free bus transportation to St. John's Church for the Sunday services.

There is a Bible class for the younger people at the same time as the church service. Rev. Michell in the near future will organize a confirmation class.

The bus starts from the CFRB sideroad at 10:55, down Yonge St., to North Rd at Wilcox Lake, circling the lake to Yonge St. again at the Log Cabin, thence to the church. Anywhere along the route, the bus may be flagged for a lift, and will wait at the church to carry the church-goers home.

On Wednesday, Dec. 29, Mrs. Leonard H. Ellins, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Oak Ridges, moved with his wife Norma and daughter to Richmond Hill, to take up residence on Lucas St. His daughter who has been attending the Eastern School of Commerce, now attends Richmond Hill District High School. Mr. Ellins son Robert, employed by Frigidaire, remains in the city, joining the family on week-ends.

St. John's Church W.A. will hold its annual meeting January 19, at the home of Frank Legge as guests of his sister, Mrs. Maud Capell at 2:30 p.m. The year's general report will be presented at the meeting.

Miss Kathleen Gunn and Mr. Rod Woolam attended a ball at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on Dec. 27. They joined several friends from Aurora and Richmond Hill.

A skating party has been planned by Mrs. M. B. Beynon at the Beynon Farm, South Temperanceville on Saturday morning for St. John's Bible Class. Refreshments will be served to the young skaters.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Porter of Bond Ave., Oak Ridges, were one of the many couples who entertained at home on New Year's Eve. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson, their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. Basten, Mr. and Mrs. Beckett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith held open house on New Year's Eve. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Rule met at the home of their daughter, Mrs. D. Barracough, Maple Grove, to welcome the New Year.

Birthdays
The exchange of gifts does not stop at Christmas in Mr. and Mrs. R. Woolley's home for there are three birthdays during the holiday season. Mr. B. Woolley celebrates his on Dec. 24, and the young folks held a party in his honor at the home of Mrs. W. Greary. On Dec. 29, Master Kenneth Woolley celebrated his 10th birthday with a party and cake and Dec. 30 Mrs. Lena Woolley celebrated hers with a small dinner party at home.

Fred Terry, a former resident of the area, now of Owen Sound, attended the funeral of Mrs. E. A. Bonnick at Aurora on Saturday.

Admiring TCA's first propeller-turbine Vickers Viscount and the first airliner of its type to see service in North America are TCA stewardesses Madeleine Boucher and Lou George. Captain G. R. Bryce, chief test pilot for Vickers-Armstrongs Ltd., who flew the Viscount to Canada explains some of its features to the girls.

NOTICE to Markham Township Residents re Debris Deposited in Stream Beds by Hurricane Hazel

It has been brought to our attention that the recent Hurricane has resulted in miscellaneous debris being piled on private property at different places along our rivers and streams. Such debris could aggravate a flood situation during the run-off next spring and cause further property damage by blocking the normal flow and lodging at bridges, etc.

You are therefore requested to inspect your property and clear away such debris well above high water mark. If you feel that the problem is too big to handle by yourself please contact us.
