Home & School Assn.

The next regular meeting of the association will be held in the school on Tuesday, January 11. The guest speaker will be Rev. C. Chambers from Thornhill Presbyterian Church, who will have as his subject "Religion in the Home and School". Guest soloist will be Miss Elena Nelson from Charles Howitt School.

Mark-Vaun Women's Institute

Historical Research and Current Events will be the theme of the January meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Thirgood, Fairview Avenue, on Thursday, January 6. Roll call will be "A Clipping from a Local Paper". A hearty welcome is extended to all ladies in the community.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hicks and family spent Christmas Day and New Year's with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Suter, Westwood Lane. Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Hicks on Christmas week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blakely and family from Guelph. On Sunday, January 2, they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Graham from Port Credit and Mr. and Mrs. Terry from Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Johnston, Essex Avenue, have been on the sick list for the past few weeks and we hope they are feeling better at time of writing. It would be quite a task to report all the children who are confined to their homes with measles, mumps, flu, etc. Judging from reports we have received, we are sure that school attendance for the first day after the holidays must have been unusually low. It is to be hoped that these contagious diseases will soon be over for this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edney from Bradford have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. M. Holt, Garden Avenue, for the past two weeks. Also visiting with the Hols for New Year's were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edney and son

Michael from Calgary, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edney of Agincourt. Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward, Garden Avenue, are receiving congratulations this week on the birth of a son, on December 27. Mr. and Mrs. O. Brodie spent Christmas Day with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunt of Toronto and their family Sharon, Douglas and Miriam. On Christmas Sunday the Brodies entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kerwin of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunt, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. McKinstry of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Grant, Stop 20, are still enjoying a "Christmas Holiday" trip to Beamsville and Hamilton to visit their daughters and families. New Year's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hyett, Garden Ave., were Mr. and Mrs. Wainman from Sudbury and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaren and family from Port Credit. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuirl Mr. and Mrs. Long, Willowdale, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Hicks were entertained Christmas week by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Aston, Charmingwood, No. 7 Highway East. Mr. McGuirl was principal of Langstaff School for several years, and Mr. Long is the Editor of the "Enterprise", weekly newspaper of Willowdale. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. George Townsend and family, No. 7 East, on the death of Mr. Townsend's mother, Mrs. Albert Townsend, who passed away suddenly on Friday, December 24. (Held from last week) The Langstaff Cub Packs A and B enjoyed their Christmas party at the Langstaff School on December 21. Games were played and carols sung. Following refreshments, each cub was presented with a bag of candy. The next meeting of Pack B will be on January 4 at Langstaff School and for Pack A at the Charles Howitt School on January 6.

Mrs. Jack MacDonald and children of Caledon had been visiting her mother, Mrs. C. E. Steckley. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett and family moved this week to their new home on the 6th Con.

G. Saunderson Trustee S.S. 6

George Saunderson was re-elected to the Board of S. S. No. 6 Maple at the annual meeting held December 29, at Maple Community Centre. Also nominated for the office were Bruce McClelland and Percy Walton.

The 1955 Board consists of Mr. Saunderson, G. M. Hamilton, and W. R. Johnson. George Bailey, secretary-treasurer, read the financial report showing a substantial balance on hand.

R.C.M.P. In Training

Small arms training on a pistol range is but one of the many instruction courses taken by Royal Canadian Mounted Police recruits; they are also given rigorous training in laboratory work, photography, fingerprint identification, and scores of other specialized studies. Their story is told in the CBC Trans-Canada network series "The Quiet Force" which has been applauded for its technical accuracy. The weekly series reveals the story of the R.C.M.P. of today, whose main weapons in checking crime and apprehending criminals are science, perseverance, and intelligence.

Program-Planning

At the annual program-planning meeting of the executive of Victoria Square W.M.S., Headford was represented by Mrs. Acreman. The meeting, in charge of Mrs. McCague, was held at the home of Mrs. P. McRoberts. The annual reports to Presbytery were filled out.

School Meeting

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of School Section 3 was held on Wednesday evening, Mr. J. Revcraft was elected chairman of the meeting. Reports from the treasurer and the chairman of the board were given and adopted. The retiring trustee, Mr. Elmer Leek, was re-elected for a further term, and Mr. Freeman Barker was chosen to represent this school section at the Federation of Agriculture.

Home & School

In an attempt to augment the membership of Headford Home and School Association, the President, Mrs. Fred J. Wilkins sent to all residents of this school section, a questionnaire. It is hoped these will be filled in frankly and returned promptly.

Socials

Bobby Lee has been spending the Christmas vacation in the city with his grandmother, Mrs. McDougall.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Beaton were guests at the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leuschner, Lorraine and Murray Acreman were in Hamilton on Sunday.

Mrs. Wes Clark has invited the ladies of the community to meet with members of Headford W.A. at her home on the evening of next Tuesday, January 11.

EARLY DETECTION

The woman who has a dry it is before symptoms are visible or a cough develops. Chest x-rays, which are free in most parts of Canada, can discover TB before there are other indications. In this way, there is still time for treatment to effect a cure.
