Miss Nancy Stephenson

Miss Nancy Stephenson, formerly of Oak Ridges, who graduated from Aurora High School in 1954 will enter the Nurses Training School at the Toronto General Hospital on January 24. Mrs. C. L. Stephenson and Miss Anne Stephenson spent the week-end in Montreal. They sang on the "Nos Futures Engagées" program on Sunday evening.

Cubs and Scouts

Donald Anderson, the new scout leader, who had been assisting L. Hopkins with the Oak Ridges Cubs, wishes to extend an invitation to all boys between the ages of 12 and 16 yrs. who are interested in Scouting, to the meetings to be held at the Oak Ridges School on Wednesday at 7.30 p.m. The Cubs meeting is on Mondays at 6.30 p.m. at the school, under the leadership of L. Hopkins, assisted by Ted Clarke.

Presentation

One evening last week, a party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Carruthers on Lake Ave., for Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Bunn prior to their departure from Oak Ridges. They have been in the butcher business on Lake Ave. for several years, and having now sold the business to Mr. and Mrs. Kafets, they will soon leave for California. Between 50 and 60 neighbours got together to give Mr. and Mrs. Bunn and their 5 year old daughter Brenda a grand send-off and presented them with a silver tray and a purse of money.

Brownies

An enrollment of Brownies is to take place on Saturday, January 22, at Oak Ridges School, and on January 29, if possible the Brownies will be taken to Nobleton for skating. Brownies who do not skate will attend the Saturday morning meeting as usual.

Plan Guider Rally

The Guider Meeting held in Trinity Church at Aurora, under chairmanship of Commissioner J. Gunn of Oak Ridges, discussed the Open Air Rally on May 15. About 35 leaders attended. There will be nine companies and 12 packs taking part in the contests and competitions. The Brownies will be presenting and acting nursery rhymes and the guides will demonstrate signalling and first aid. This event will be open to the public and should prove interesting to parents with children.

Church Parade

The Jefferson Brownies and Cubs attended the morning service at St. John's Anglican. About 30 children were there under the Cubmaster E. H. Ensor and Brown Owl Mrs. Ensor. Tawny Owl Miss Little was also present.

Ice Carnival

Saturday morning, January 15, saw some of the Oak Ridges Community Centre Committee on the ice at Lake Wilcox, joining the skaters near Mr. and Mrs. S. Beamish' Home, Blue Spruce. They were there to inspect the ice and the Blue Spruce grounds in regards to the Ice Carnival being arranged for a Saturday in February. J. Smith, president, was busy deciding where lights would be needed and Mr. Norman Taylor has offered to help the committee with this matter. The Community Queen will be presented to the public in a decorated cutter, to receive many prizes.

Happy Birthday

Obituary

Leonard Ross Auckland

Mr. Leonard Ross Auckland, in his 47th year, passed away suddenly with coronary thrombosis at Scarborough on Monday, January 10.

Mr. Auckland was born on a farm at Hope in Vaughan Twp. He attended Hope School. During his lifetime he worked for a road construction company and the Acme Farmers Distributors. At the time of his death he was a foreman at the hydro plant at Islington. Mr. Auckland was a steward in Hope United Church, Danforth, Toronto. He was a past master of the Orange Lodge.

Mr. Auckland is survived by his wife, the former Jean Downey, his son Ronald, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Luke Auckland, King City, his brother Harry of Toronto, his sister Myrtle (Mrs. I. McQuarrie, Hope), his brother Stanley, Mount Albert, his sister Vera (Mrs. Ed. Willett, Langstaff), his brother Harold, Toronto, his sisters Evelyn (Mrs. Vic Jones, Aurora) and Viola (Mrs. George Maynard, Richmond Hill).

Rev. C. M. Curtis of Hope United Church, Danforth, Toronto, officiated at the service, assisted by Rev. Douglas Davis of Stauffville. The interment was at Pine Hill cemetery on Thursday, Jan. 13.

P. S. LEGGE

Mr. P. S. Legge, a veteran in Municipal affairs in both Newmarket and Whitchurch townships is the new Deputy-Reeve of Whitchurch township for 1955.

Elected by acclamation in last December's voting Deputy-reeve Legge succeeds Mrs. Fred Timbers who retired from office at the end of the year.

Mr. Legge will join Reeve I. McLaughlin as one of Whitchurch's two representatives on York County Council.

Thieves Enter Watson nPlant

Watson Food Products plant in King City had its second break-in this year early last week. Entrance to the plant was gained by breaking the glass in a window. Only a few potato chips were taken.

The first break-in occurred Sunday night, January 2 when a piano accordion valued at $300 was taken. Some damage had been done to machinery in the plant. No money was taken as Mr. Stan Watson does not keep a safe in the King City plant.

Mr. Watson was advised at the end of that week that the accordion had been located in a pawn shop in Toronto. It had been pawned for $25.

Christian Mission Speaker From Israel Addresses King W.A.

The Rev. Ronald Adeney of the Christian Mission for the Jews in Jaffa and Tel-Aviv visited the members of the W.A. of All Saints Anglican Church, at King City last week bringing greetings from their prayer partner Miss Katie Provart of the Christian Missions in Israel. Rev. Adeney who arrived in Toronto on January 7 on his way to the United States, has been preaching in Toronto churches. He spoke in his address to the W.A. of the need for more Christian Jewish leaders in Israel. The Christian Jewish leaders can come into closer contact with the Jewish people, stated Rev. Adeney. Because of the lack of teachers, Rev. Adeney himself taught in the schools.

Mrs. E. Burt, the prayer partner secretary, introduced Rev. Adeney and Mrs. Ross Walker conveyed the thanks of the group for his enlightening address. The Devotional period of the meeting was taken by Mrs. S. Monsoon. Rev. D. C. H. Michell installed the officers for this year. Plans were made for a pancake supper to be held on February 22. The W.A. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Rawlings.

Trustee Donald Findlay gave a report on the progress being made on a new garbage dump in King Township. The gravel pit owned by Mr. McConnell on the Mary Lake property and land owned by Glen Aston, Lot 19, King Township have been under consideration but no further action has been taken, said Mr. Findlay.

Trustee Findlay moved that King Twp. be requested to obtain a 30 mile speed limit sign and install it on Keele St. at the northern boundary, charging the village with the cost of the sign. A proposal that gravel trucks be routed west on Eversley side-road was referred to King Township council.

Brother And Sister Nuptials Create Happy Celebration

Saturday, January 15, was an eventful day for Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roffey of Bond Ave., Oak Ridges when their daughter Edith Eleanor was joined in marriage to Ross E. DeGeer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeGeer of Oak Ridges at 3 o'clock. Then Miss Loretta Josephine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of Oak Ridges became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Roffey's son, James Albert Roffey, at 5 o'clock in the evening.

The DeGeer-Roffey nuptials took place at the Salvation Army Citadel in Aurora officiated by Lieutenant-Marshall. Attired in a cocktail-length gown of lace over tulle, and carrying a bouquet of white sweet peas and red rose buds, and upon her head, a finger-tip veil held in place by a hand-made tiara, the bride Edith Eleanor, was given in marriage by her father, and attended by her sister, Mrs. Betty Stuart as matron-of-honour, who wore a pink taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of carnations, roses and sweet peas. The groom's brother Mr. Charles DeGeer acted as best man, and the bride's brother Jack Roffey, and brother-in-law Albert Stuart were the ushers. Mrs. Roffey wore a beige suit with brown accessories and trimmed with ocelot and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a silver blue suit, trimmed with navy blue, and wore pink roses.

For travelling, the bride chose a suit of brown and yellow pic and pie and wore brown accessories. After the honeymoon the happy couple will reside on Bond Ave., Oak Ridges.

For the wedding of Loretta Smith and Albert Roffey, solemnized in the home of the groom on Bond Ave., the bride chose a white tulle long-sleeved gown with a lace yoke and a finger-tip veil held in place by a halo of roses. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and roses and was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Betty Stuart also acted as her maid of honour, and Mr. Albert Stuart was best man. The bride's mother chose a gown of grey corded silk with a corsage of red roses. The wedding service was conducted by Rev. J. F. Morris of Aurora.

In attendance at both weddings were the five grandsons, Mrs. Eleanor Roffey, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hayball and Mr. E. Taylor, all of Oak Ridges, and Mrs. DeGeer of Box Grove, Ontario.

Late Frank Legge In 84th Year Lifelong Oak Ridges Resident

The funeral of the late Francis Alexander Legge, a highly esteemed and lifelong resident of the district was held last Saturday afternoon from St. John's Church, Oak Ridges and was largely attended by friends and relatives.

Mr. Legge passed away in Private Patient's Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital on Wednesday January 12th after an illness of some two months. Born August 16th, 1870 a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Legge he was throughout his life an active and public spirited citizen of the Oak Ridges community.

He was a very successful farmer and as the owner of Bond Lake Farm was one of Ontario's pioneer Holstein breeders. He built up a famous herd which was known as one of the best in Ontario. He made a study of the improved farming methods and was always in the lead with new and progressive ideas.

Retiring from the farm some thirty years ago he continued to live in the community. For some time he was associated with the Warren Paving Company and spent some time in the Maritimes as a superintendent for that organization.

As a boy he attended at Oak Ridges Public School, and from his retirement he gave many years of service as school trustee and chairman of the School Board. In this post he rendered outstanding service to the section during a period of growth and development.

Devoted to his church he served with distinction for many years as Warden of St. John's. Since 1918 he was a member of Richmond Masonic Lodge, and for many years was an active worker in the North York Liberal Association.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. C. H. Michell and interment followed in the church yard of St. John's. The pall bearers were six nephews: Stuart Legge, Kenneth Legge, Horace Cappell, Jack Cappell, Cecil Gould and Harry Hill.

The late Mr. Legge is survived by one son Homer in Toronto, one daughter, (Claudia) Mrs. C. R. Davis, Toronto, one brother Ernest Legge, and two sisters, Mrs. W. R. Cappell and Mrs. O. St. George Freer of Toronto. His wife, the former Elizabeth Palmer predeceased him four years ago.

116 Year Old King City Building Is To Be Demolished

One of the oldest buildings in King City on the corner of King Street and Hoop Street is to be torn down in the near future to make way for a store. The frame plank, two-storey building was erected in August of 1838 by J. Andrews, the great grandfather of Bruce Hall. Four generations of the family have lived in the house.

Mr. Ernest Smith, Kingsview Subdivision recently purchased the Hall property which consists of two two-storey houses on a third of an acre of land. Mr. Smith intends to tear the buildings down, and build a store on the site. Bruce Hall will use the front part of the store belonging to Bill Jensen for his business.

Bob McLeod Chosen Chairman Of King City Trustees For '55

Trustee Bob McLeod became chairman of the trustees for King City at the first meeting held this year at the Masonic Hall on Wednesday, January 12. Mr. McLeod succeeds Mr. Donald Findlay, who has been chairman of the trustees for the past two years.

Chairman McLeod begins his third year as trustee for King City and will retain his position as road commissioner, as will trustee Alex Campbell the positions of Water Commissioner and Fire Commissioner for this year. Mr. Ewart Patton will continue as maintenance man for street lights and Mr. Frank Morrison for pump house and waterworks.

A by-law to provide for the establishment and regulation of a volunteer Fire Department in the police village of King City passed three readings and was adopted by King City trustees. Mr. David Glass was officially appointed as fire chief in the by-law.

Trustee Donald Findlay gave a report on the progress being made on a new garbage dump in King Township. The gravel pit owned by Mr. McConnell on the Mary Lake property and land owned by Glen Aston, Lot 19, King Township have been under consideration but no further action has been taken, said Mr. Findlay.

Loses Boat In Wilcox Lake Fire

Wilcox, the iceboat owned by M. Bob McLeod, King City, was destroyed by fire Sunday night, January 9, when the Old Willow Beach dance hall was burnt to the ground at Lake Wilcox. The boat which had a 500 square foot sail was stored in the building. Eight people had often at one time been taken rides across the lake on the iceboat. Mr. McLeod, who has two other iceboats, the Zip and the Eskimo, said he would not replace the Wilcox.

IF YOU LIVE IN THE COUNTRY A DEPENDABLE DEALER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTOR IN THE CAR YOU BUY!

Those of us who live in the country realize the importance of a dependable car . . . one that will start easily on winter mornings, one that is in thoroughly good condition, one that requires a minimum of service. Because we cater exclusively to people in this area we understand the importance of good cars and good service. We make it a point to see that all our used cars are inspected carefully and put in as good condition as it is possible to get them. When we put the Bill Drinkwater Motors sticker on a car it is your assurance of a good car, backed by service that understands the problems of country driving and living. Listed below are some remarkably good values in used cars. You are welcome to come and see them in King, and drive them. If you have no means of transportation at present we will be glad to pick you up, without obligation. Simply telephone King 50.

And remember that for a new car too, there is nothing more important than the service and integrity of the dealer you buy from.
