"Back to School" Brings Smiles

While the more usual entrance is surrounded by officials at dedication ceremonies, Korean kids clamor about the rear window ledges of the first large school in the Seoul area built with materials supplied by the United Nations Korean Reconstruction Agency (UNKRA). The 11-room primary school which will seat 550 children was built under UNKRA's $1.8 million program for classroom construction for 1953. The reconstruction agency's project was continued through 1954 with a further $1 million, in addition to a $2.6 million stockpile of construction materials.
