Orlando-Garner Team Up Against Hamilton Toughs

Jack Diamond and Alex Jensen, the current rages of the Tag team fans at the Thornhill Farmers market, will be meeting some real stiff opposition next Tuesday when they collide with that very rugged pair Al Orlando and Red Garner, former middleweight champ. Diamond and the blonde Swede have been having it all their own way the last few weeks and some of their wins have been very unpopular to say the least and the fans have been hollering for some team to give them a real going over. Orlando and the Langstaff wrestler have never been teamed up, before but both are top men and a rugged type of grappler and combined together might be just the medicine for the two Hamilton stars.

Test Champ
The semi-final will have two wrestlers of the same style in there when Stoney Brooks, the Campbellford Flash will test the skill of Tommy Sullivan, Canadian Middleweight Champion. Stoney watched Sullivan wrestle last week against Jack Diamond and feels that he will be able to give the Irish wonder a good hard-fought match. Stoney has this to say, "I feel that I should get a chance at Sullivan's title, I think that I stand as good a chance as anyone, and one thing is sure, Sullivan will know that he has been in one of the toughest bouts of his life."

Says He Will Startle Fans
Sylvain Richard, the ever-popular French star who manages to look better every time out will be meeting another powerful wrestler as well as a very popular one in the person of Jacques Du Bois of Sudbury. Du Bois went to England last summer with Mangotich, Orlando, and Co., and has only recently returned. He says he has plenty of new and sensational stuff to offer. In Richard he will be giving away plenty of weight but claims that he will startle the fans out of seven years growth next Tuesday.

"Burn Out" hold
Harold Van Dyke, that very tough Richmond Hill wrestler will be meeting Billy Foster who hails from Brampton and is currently being coached by Gerry Sullivan, big brother of the champion. Foster figures on making a big impression locally but the fans are betting that the very rugged Mr. Van Dyke will put the squeeze on Brother Foster. Van Dyke has developed a new hold called "The Burn Out." Maybe he is going to burn out Billy next Tuesday.

$6,000,000 New Development Needs Markham Approval

According to reliable reports received this week there is yet no basis to a news report appearing in a Toronto daily stating that a $6,000,000 development of homes, stores and industry from western Germany will be located in Markham township. The proposed plan which was to locate on a 100-acre farm tract at the corner of No. 7 Highway and Don Mills Road has yet never received the approval of either the Planning Board or Council.

Plans for the project were submitted to Markham township planning board by C. J. MacCharles Real Estate, and Alan Graham, vice-president of Milton (Canada) Industries Ltd. who is now in Dusseldorf negotiating with German industrialists interested in locating in Canada.

At least two of the German firms are manufacturers of armaments, Mr. McCharles said.

The plan calls for 150 homes to sell for about $16,000; 30 acres designated for industry with a six-acre park serving as a buffer between homes and factories; and 10 acres for commercial use, including some 3,300 feet of frontage on Highway 7.

The realty firm is negotiating with a large restaurant chain interested in building a large drive-in restaurant, 2 chain stores are negotiating for suitable frontage with plans for a large shopping centre. The area is being planned by E. P. Fisher, town planning consultant with the real estate firm.
