Overwhelming Success

Anne Of Green Gables Played By Cherry Hill Drama Group

Last week history was made in the Unionville area with the unveiling of the new stage at Cherry Hill Farm (the John Madsen Folk School), No. 7 Highway, Unionville, when the John Madsen Players presented "Anne of Green Gables," a three act comedy, to capacity audiences February 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Back in October, 1953, at the opening of the autumn folk school, Mrs. Betty Madsen made Drama classes available. O. W. D. (Dick) Fonger was the director. W. L. members will remember Mr. Fonger for his splendid direction of the A.C.W.W. pageant at Maple Leaf Stadium, Toronto, in the summer of 1953.

At this time, Mrs. Madsen, Mr. Fonger, and the Drama Group talked of forming a Lit. Theatre group and plans were laid which were the foundation for a much larger group in October 1954. Meantime, Mrs. Madsen had plans of her own, and during the summer an extension was added to the barn. This included an up-to-date theatre stage, large dressing and rehearsal rooms, wash rooms and showers, as well as extra craft rooms.

After the play was chosen, the real work started. The four principals: Anne, Marian McCowan, Myrilla, Doris Lapp, Rachael, Eleanor Malcolm, Matthew, Geo. Metcalfe, are all busy people in their private life but they still found time to devote to the play as did the other members making up the cost of 15. Director Dick Fonger gave many extra hours driving back and forth from Toronto to direct rehearsals at Cherry Hill often until midnight when rehearsals were over.

Then there were sets to be made and costume and property which were obtained through wonderful co-operation among the folk school members and the people from the surrounding neighbourhoods.

D. M. Ford of the Clayton-Ford Productions gave his time and enthusiasm, working on sets, and doing a masterly job on make-up for three of the four stagings. Assisting with make-up also, were Mrs. Fonger and Mrs. Maxine Miller, TV star. Mrs. Marie Dzin, of Whitevale, who is a hairdresser at her own establishment, gave her time every night for a whole week, so that the cast should be well turned out.

Originally it had been decided to stage the play for three nights only, but the public response proved so enthusiastic that on Monday of last week the cast agreed to hold over till Saturday.

No doubt such an overwhelming reception will serve as a new impetus for the group and many people will be waiting for news of the next production of the Madsen Players which is apparently under way now.

W.M.S. Meets

On Wednesday afternoon of last week W.M.S. members and friends met in Brown's Corners Church auditorium for the February meeting. Mrs. S. J. English was at the piano and Mrs. Wm. Rodick occupied the chair. A letter was read from Toronto Centre Presbyterial advising that the new missionary for prayer is Miss Aileen M. Ratz. The letter also advised that societies were being asked to make a voluntary increase in allocation and it was duly moved and carried that Brown's Corners should be raised to $300 for 1955.

Mrs. Norman Reid asked for knitters to work on bale material. Mrs. Rodick announced that John Brown had invited Explorers to meet at her home for their supper meeting. At the conclusion of business, Mrs. A. W. Miller sang a solo, after which the meeting was turned over to the committee in charge.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Wm. Rodick, Mrs. Stotts, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. D. Hood and Mrs. J. Rodick.

Mrs. John Black and Miss Nancy Spears each gave an interesting report on a day at the annual meeting of Centre Presbyterial.

A resume was given of the study book chapters on the Growth of the Indian Church. The meeting was concluded with a hymn and the Mizpah benediction.

Harmony Group
Following the W.M.S. meeting last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. A. Gardner called a Harmony meeting to decide several issues. Since the church has been recently redecorated the ladies wished to buy new carpet and samples and estimates were discussed. Red carpet was finally chosen and the order for completion of the work was sanctioned. It was also agreed to take over the refreshment booth at A. Symons' sale on March 22. W.L. Euchre and Tea

A successful euchre at which approximately 75 ladies were in attendance took place at Buttonville Hall Monday afternoon. There was an auction sale of house plants donated by A. Nightingale in the name of his late wife, a former W.L. member. The sum of $19 was realized which will be used to purchase a memorial to Mrs. Nightingale, which will be placed in the Hall.

There were ladies present from Unionville, Thornhill, Buttonville and Steeles. Prize winners were Mrs. Coathup, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Joug, Brown, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Coathup won a draw for lone hands.

A cushion made by Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey and Mrs. E. Hill for the Cancer Society was raffled, netting $14.00.

Neighborhood Notes
Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly have returned from several weeks in Florida.

It is good to note that our invalids are all on the road to recovery. Mrs. W. Craig returned home last week-end after several months in hospital since she was involved in an accident last November. Mr. Richard Prallet is home and doing nicely we hear, and Mr. Tim Patterson was expecting to have his wife home again by Wednesday this week.

Marjorie Barber and Lynda Leaf were two of the five finalists in the R.H.D.H.S. Prom Queen contest. At the Prom held last Friday night at the school, Jeanette Vautier was crowned queen and each of the runners-up was presented with half a dozen long-stemmed roses and a small gift of jewelry.

On Thursday of last week, the Young Women's Association of Brown's Corners Church attended a performance of the John Madsen Players' presentation, "Anne of Green Gables," at Cherry Hill Farm.

The regular monthly meeting of the Thornlea Home and School Association was held on Wednesday night February 9 with the president, Mrs. G. Frazer in the chair. A letter from the school Area Board was read in which an invitation was extended by the board to three selected members of the Home and School to attend their meeting on March first. This committee must come prepared to discuss any matters pertaining to the new school. It was suggested that any questions relative to this matter be given or sent to Mr. A. E. Wright. The committee will then give a detailed report at the next meeting of the Home and School on March 9th and give the answers we receive from the board. The committee consists of 3 members, Mrs. Frazer, Mrs. A. Hunt and Mr. Wright of John Street.

After the business of the meeting had been dispatched a film was shown of the methods of safety patrols and of teaching children to cross busy streets safely and how to recognize the various signals used.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. M. Gutowski was taken to hospital on Saturday. We wish her a speedy recovery.

A very delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Robinson on Saturday evening to honour and welcome Mr. and Mrs. Hubertus Herwynen from Holland. Mr. Herwynen who has worked for Mr. Robinson for the last year went to Holland several weeks ago and returned with his lovely bride. The neighbours gathered to meet Mrs. Herwynen and present the happy couple with three gifts, an occasional chair an end table and lamp. Mr. Lanthier of Leitchcroft presented the gifts with a warm welcome from all. Mrs. Robinson served supper to her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin spent Sunday visiting and enjoying dinner with Mrs. M. Holmes and Mr. F. Sinclair of Yongehurst Road.

Bruce Blackburn observed his 18th birthday Feb. 12 and attended the Maple Leaf Gardens Saturday evening enjoying the game between Detroit and the Maple Leafs.

Home and School
Founder's Night for Home and School will be held jointly for Carrville and Richvale associations on February 21 at 8 p.m. in Richvale school. A very interesting program is planned with Mr. James Butler the guest speaker, who has chosen to speak on "You are the Law." Garry Skippon, an elocutionist, and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls accordion players will also be featured on the program.

Richvale School pupils held a valentine party on Monday, combining it with an effort to raise money for the Junior Red Cross Fund. The girls made box lunches and an auction was conducted with the boys bidding on the boxes, the money going to the fund. The children are all very busy working on the school paper which will be ready for publication shortly.

Health Clinic For Youngsters
The Women's Auxiliary of the Highland Park Association is sponsoring a very worthwhile and needed project in our area, in the form of a free Well Baby Clinic for infants and pre-school children. Mothers will be able to discuss problems of health and have the services of trained staff of the York Health Unit each third Monday at Henderson Avenue School, 1:30-4 p.m. This clinic will commence on Monday, February 21 and we hope many mothers will attend and take advantage of this welcome addition to our community life.

Moving Out West
We are indeed sorry to see Janet and George McLellan and their sons Eon and Bruce leave our area. They have lived at 113 Highland Park Blvd., for the past 2-3 years and have always been active and co-operative to all worth while endeavours in the community. Janet has served as treasurer of Powell Road Home and School for past two terms and taken part in Cub Mothers and any other groups who have needed her services. George was Vice-president of Highland Park Association last year, was committee leader for the tree planting committee, and has served in various capacities in our area. We will indeed miss this wonderful family, but wish them every success in their new location in Edmonton, Alberta. They will travel to their new home in a super trailer and it should be a most interesting trip. Many of their friends wish they could join them. We know we are going to miss them but Edmonton will be glad to have them.

On Tuesday evening February 15, the executive and some of the earlier members of Powell Road Home and School joined together to say farewell to Mrs. G. McLellan and had an inspection tour of their wonderful trailer. As a small token of their esteem and friendship for Janet, they presented her with a pen and pencil set and writing material. All her friends wish her and her family the best of everything in the future.
