W.I.
 The Temperanceville W.I. will hold its March meeting on the 9th at the home of Mrs. John Umehara. The program convenors for the topic "International Day" are Mrs. Nelson Thompson and Mrs. Gordon Baldwin. The roll call, "Something I have read about A.C.W.W." Current events will be taken by Mrs. Charles Henshaw. The hostesses are Mrs. Fred Hare, Mrs. F. Burnett and Mrs. Gordon Baldwin. The members are asked to bring an article which has been made in A.S. This should make an interesting exhibit of Japanese and Chinese as well as other Asian products.

Church News
 The Temperanceville CGIT has chosen the name "The Four Star Group." On March 18 at 8 p.m. they will feature a travelogue and candy sale. Rev. and Mrs. Victor Wood will show pictures on their travels.

The Mission Band meeting, which had to be postponed because of illness among the membership will be held Saturday, February 27.

Friends in Temperanceville are very sorry to hear that Mr. Norgaard has had to return to the hospital as infection has set in in his injured finger.

Greetings to Audrey Herrima on her ninth birthday, February 28.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hare spent a quiet 54th wedding anniversary with their family on Sunday, February 20.

We are very happy to relate the steady progress of Clayton Beynon in recovering his health since his homecoming.

Greetings to Mrs. Beynon whose birthday was Sunday, Feb. 27.

Temperanceville Couple Celebrate Silver Wedding

Twenty-five years ago Miss Mae Beck and Mr. Nelson Thompson solemnized the marriage vows at the King United Church parsonage, with Rev. A. H. Halbert officiating. Their attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. Nelson Kerr, and the groom's brother, Mr. Edgar Thompson. On February 22, 1955, the happy couple recalls the weather of the day as similar to that of 25 years ago, when it was very mild with a little less snow.

The reception was held in the afternoon and evening at their home on the 2nd concession of King, south of Temperanceville. This is the home to which the bride and groom of 25 years ago arrived after their honeymoon. About 150 guests were welcomed by the joyous couple, Mrs. Thompson wearing black taffeta and a corsage of red roses and white hyacinths.

The tea table was most attractive with its pure white linens, tablecloth adorned by a three-tier silver wedding cake. This was decorated with silver doves and cupids on the columns between the layers.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Nell Snider, sister of Mrs. Thompson poured tea. In the evening, Mrs. Edgar Thompson, wife of groomsmen of 25 years ago, presided at the tea table.

The tea assistants were Mrs. Nelson Kerr, Mrs. John Cliff, Miss Florrie Beynon and three nieces, Misses Betty Snider, Sylvia Kerr and Helen Thompson.

Mother of the groom, Mrs. John Thompson, Toronto, in her 82nd year attended the reception in the evening. Friends, Miss Marjorie McMurchy and Mrs. Laurine Prendergast assisted in the gift room. The exquisite gifts included hand-wrought aluminum, silver and an electric tea kettle.

In the evening Peer Norgaard, Verner Michaelson and Danny

Temperanceville Couple Celebrate Silver Wedding

Crosley supplied music for the entertainment of all. In the final analysis the reception was ended by square dancing.

The wedding dress worn by Mrs. Thompson on her wedding day was on display. It was a delicate beige georgette with long sleeves, long waistline and very short skirt and was a vivid contrast to the 1955 wedding gown. Miss Betty Snider modelled the gown to a hilarious group during the late evening.

The fern used in making the corsages of the assistants was from a plant given Mr. and Mrs. Thompson 25 years ago by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Phillip Phillips.

Among the guests were friends and relatives from Toronto, Gormley, Vellore, King, Newmarket, Eversley and the community. Reeve Elton Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong attended and brought a gift of spring flowers.
