Brownie Enrollment
Five Brownies became Brownies in the 1st Jefferson Pack last Thursday evening, when District Commissioner Mrs. R. Gunn enrolled them with traditional ceremony.

The meeting commenced with the 'Brownie' song and the 'Sixer' song, following which, Brownie Judy Kerwin welcomed the Commissioner in for the pack. As Commissioner Gunn took up her position beside the toast, which symbolizes a vital part of the ceremony, the pack gave the Grand Hail.

Then, while the Commissioner tested the five recruits on various Brownie 'laws', the other Brownies carried on with different projects until the enrolment took place.

The five new Brownies are: Heidi Vouker, Elsie Anderson, Judy Kerwin, Wendy Alexander and Christine Ratchford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kerwin and Mrs. Jack Passmore attended the meeting as guests.

Jefferson Girls in Choir
Seven of the senior girls from Jefferson School took part in the Junior Choir concert at Richmond Hill United Church, two weeks ago.

Mr. Herman Fowler, church organist and choir leader, is also the singing instructor at Jefferson School and when he called for volunteers for his junior lowing young girls offered their services: Mary and Joyce Downing, Julie Ensor, Nancy Brown, Wendy Wilson, Florene Pridham and Carol Inreial. Audrey Rushlow, also a member of the choir, is a former Jefferson student now attending Richmond Hill High School.

The girls and their parents appreciated having transportation supplied on rehearsal nights by Mrs. E. A. Terry, Harry Pridham, Stanley Leno, Mr. Wilson, and Miss A. Leary.

at Jefferson Public School, when at least half of the school population succumbed to virus infection as well as a few cases of measles.

We hope those who are still on the sick-list will soon be out and around again.

Birthdays
Belated birthday greetings to Harry Brown for February 25, to Brenda Duncan, who was three years old last Sunday, February 27 and also to John Passmore whose birthday was on February 28. Many happy returns of the day tomorrow, March 4, to Kathleen Barrow, and on Monday March 7, to Peter Terry.

Anniversaries
Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. 'Rod' Kerwin, who celebrated their second wedding anniversary February 25. Greetings also to Mr. and Mrs. Robert 'Bud' Monkman (nee Shirley Bradley) who will observe their third anniversary on Monday, March 7.

Personals
Wayne Haviland, Oxford St., returned to school on Monday and is feeling very well after his recent appendectomy.

Billy Powell, Jefferson had to have nine stitches in his leg after a tobogganing mishap last Friday. Billy was coasting down a snowy slope near his home in company with his brother and a playmate and it is thought he scraped against a jagged tree root concealed by the snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gowan (nee Lorraine Brown) and children, from New Brunswick, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Gowan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Jefferson.

Sorry to hear Colin Crawford of Elgin Mills is ill and hope he will soon be feeling better again.

Mr. R. Williamson of Elgin Mills and a group of young people from that neighbourhood have been joining the teenagers at the L. T. B. and Orange Home in square-dancing every other Friday night.

The ladies of the Jefferson School Community Club held their regular monthly meeting last week at the home of the club's treasurer, Mrs. Bill Hall, Gormley sideroad. Twenty-one ladies were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening together discussing tentative plans for future activities.

The next ladies' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jack Hall, the last Wednesday in March.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flood, Jefferson, on the birth of their daughter, Cheryl Maureen, at Newmarket Hospital, February 5, 1955.

SCARBORO: Township Council plans to protest the erection of an incinerator in North York Township near the Don River. Council feels prevailing west winds will cause it to be a nuisance to Scarborough.
