Lions News
Sergeant Bert Dorkin of the Toronto Police Force Safety Division and Ernest West, Personal and Safety Director for Consolidated Truck Lines were the guest speakers at the King City Lions dinner meeting on March 1st.

"Traffic accidents are the greatest disease we have in Canada today," said Sergeant Dorkin in his address. Thoughtlessness is the usual cause of an accident. The greatest problem facing the safety division is the prevention of accidents, he said. Automobiles are satisfactory — human error is the problem. New habits and new attitudes are needed by people towards driving. The three E's toward greater traffic safety are engineering, enforcement and education.

One-sixth of the drivers in Ontario are under 25 years of age. Accidents to that group equal one-third of the accidents. Every driver should attempt to sell safety to his family, said the speaker.

Truck lines employ the best drivers they can obtain, said Mr. West in his address. Consolidated Truck Lines drivers have driven 7½ million miles with only 309 accidents. These accidents include anything from crumpling a fender, knocking a rear vision mirror off to demolishing a truck completely. A humorous film was shown illustrating "How Not To Drive." Lion Keith Campbell was in charge of Safety Night.

Lion President Jack Walkington presented the treasurer's report to new treasurer Lion Don Hadwin. Lion Jim McDonald led the dinner sing-song and also sang a solo.

This Sunday evening, March 13, following a half-hour service in church, a film of unusual interest will be shown in the Parish Hall of All Saints Anglican Church, King, entitled "The Stones Cry Out." The film is a

King City Trustees Set 15 Mill General Rate

At a meeting of the King City village trustees February 28, trustee Alex Campbell moved the adoption of the budget as outlined. A general rate of 15 mills based on an assessment of $310,605, was set. The estimated revenue total is $5,850. Estimated expenses which include fees of township of $1,500, deficit from fire truck $2,475, purchase of fire hose $800 and salaries, roads, lighting, etc., totalled $6,850. There will be a budget deficit of $1,000.

School Site
King City school board trustees, chairman John Whalley and Lawrence Scott and school secretary Ray Burt met with the village trustees to discuss a proposed future school site behind Patton Street. "It was the unanimous feeling of the school board that the land had all the advantages and few disadvantages for a school site," said Mr. Whalley. The present school in King City will provide adequate accommodation for only one or possibly two years more.

Mr. Whalley suggested the school trustees meet with the village trustees again to discuss the proposal further.

Present Kingcraft Plan
The president of Kingcrafts, Mrs. B. O. Partridge and Mrs. Henry Borden, 1st vice-president presented rough plans of the proposed Kingcraft building on Keele St. Mrs. Henry Borden said the Kingcrafters wish to build one storey at a time.

"We are satisfied with the layout and are convinced it will meet any revised requirements," said Trustee Alex Campbell. The trustees then passed the motion that permission be granted to Kingcrafts to proceed as directed.

Alfred McBride again presented his subdivision plans to the trustees for approval. He said the Planning Board wanted definite location of the 5% land designated for school or park purposes, etc., before giving final approval of the plan. The trustees agreed the 5% is to be lots 91 and 122, subject to adjustment at a later date when further divided.

Approve Supermarket

Ernest Smith presented plans for a supermarket on the lot at the corner of Hoop and Keele St., where the 116 year old Hall building now stands.

Chairman McLeod said the proposed building would violate the commercial by-law which states the building should be 40 feet from the highway and five feet from the property line.

Mr. Smith said King Township council had unanimously approved his proposal for a supermarket subject to approval by village trustees.

The by-law in question may be amended in the near future, commented chairman Bob McLeod. He suggested the building of the supermarket be put off until amendments were made, but Mr. Smith said he wished to have the building ready by June 1.

After further discussion on the plan, trustee Don Findlay suggested the building be put back 18 feet from King St. A majority of the trustees approved the suggestion.

Chairman Bob McLeod opposed the proposal as the building requirements of the township by-law were not being met.

Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox

Leaving Sunny Florida on Monday, February 28, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rule and their son returned to Oak Ridges after a month's vacation in Miami, on Thursday evening.

Ladies of the Women's Group of St. Paul's United Church on Wednesday, March 2, met at the home of Mrs. L. Harnden to hear an interesting talk given by Mrs. G. W. Fish of Aurora. The minister's wife, Mrs. Wood, and Mrs. Wood Sr. attended the meeting.

Although appearing in good health on Wednesday evening when he turned out to bowl as usual, Len Finch of Lakeland Ave., Wilcox Lake, was later taken to Newmarket Hospital suffering from a heart attack. Mr. Finch who is 75 years old lives alone.

On vacation from his duties as teller of the Oak Ridges Bank of Nova Scotia, Duane Warren left on February 25 for Belleville. Mrs. Dorothy Phillips unfortunately is away owing to illness and J. J. Medinon from Eglinton and Castle Knock, Toronto, is assisting Mr. Ellins in the temporary absence of Mrs. Dorothy Phillips.

Sunday afternoon, March 6, proved an entertaining time for several youngsters around Lakes Wilcox, when Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLeod were out sailing in their ice boat, Eskimo. Although the weather was gusty, the children had several good trips.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. George Bayford of South Lake Rd., were pleased to see the cast returned from her left hand injured six weeks ago in a fall on the ice.

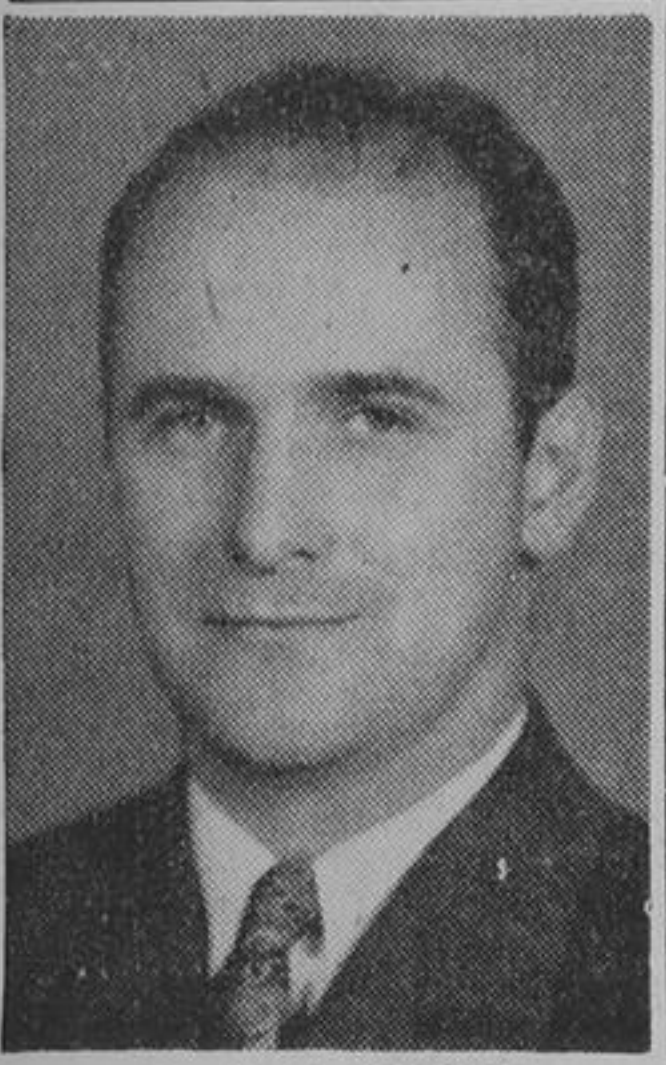

Two old school mates renewed their friendship when Mrs. Ellen Clarke of South Lake Rd. joined Miss Isobel MacFarlane of Toronto for lunch on Monday, March 7.

Roy Robson is busy coaching six Girl Guides in singing to take part in the Ladies' Auxiliary Talent Night at Oak Ridges School on March 29. Jack Blyth has promised a magic act and several other talented performers including the Barber Shop Quartette will appear.

Kathleen Gunn, Jackie Miller, Carol Fish and Helen Doan spent an enjoyable Sunday afternoon on March 6 at Toronto Art Gallery viewing the collection of Dutch paintings.

After a period away from work owing to illness, Custodian L. Dion was welcomed back to Oak Ridges School on Monday, March 7.

District Commissioner Joan Gunn of Dun-Robin, Oak Ridges, enrolled eight Brownies at Markham recently.

DR. R. S. IDESON
Dr. Ideson, well-known in Richmond Hill announces the opening of a general practice in Oak Ridges. This additional office will be located on the second floor of the Davis and Day Building at the corner of the King side road and Yonge Street.
