

RICHMOND HILL

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1261 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mrs. A. J. McLatchy returned this week from holidays in the south-western United States.

The Sunday School of St. Mary's Anglican Church will hold a combined Children's Church Service beginning at 9.45 a.m. at which time the Jr. Choir will be in attendance and the Rector will be teaching the Easter lesson.

The regular meeting of the Evening W.A. of the United Church was held Monday in the Sunday School Room. Mr. J. D. Parks, who was guest speaker delivered an interesting talk on Development of Personality.

The Rev. Thomas Hargraves of Wycliffe College, recently returned from post-graduate studies in England will be assisting the Rev. Arthur A. Chote at St. Mary's Anglican Church for the Easter Sunday Services, at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. Evensong and Post-Communion will be held at the 7 p.m. Evening Service.

The Easter Thankoffering meeting of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the United Church held today had Dr. Winnifred Bryce M.A. as special speaker. Dr. Bryce who has spent several years in India has latterly been particularly interested in the movement for improving family and home conditions.

Dr. J. P. and Mrs. Wilson returned last Friday from a month's holiday in southern United States. Among the points of interest they visited were New Orleans; Douglas, Arizona; Chattanooga, Tenn.; White Sands and the Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico. Accompanying the Wilsons were Mr. and Mrs. Melville White of Maple.

Miss Jane E. Little attended the Garden Symposium at Williamsburg, Virginia stopping over in New York.

As Landscaping and Garden editor of Canadian Homes and Gardens, Miss Little was recently interviewed on CKFH, Monday, in connection with the landscaping of the model home now showing in Exhibition Park, Toronto.

Miss Ernest Stevenson, from the studio of Ernesto Vincl, gave a Song Recital at the Royal Conservatory of Music Monday afternoon. Among her selections were the Air de Lia - Debussy and Four Shakespeare Songs - Crener.

Miss Stephenson will sing with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra on April 11, Dr. Goldschmidt conducting, and on April 17 will appear on Nos Futures Etoules, the French equivalent of Singing Stars of Tomorrow, as one of the 10 finalists.

WOODHEAD — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodhead (nee Lorna Baker), Montreal, are happy to announce the arrival of their son on April 3, 1955. clw41

In Memoriams

LLOYD — In loving memory of my dear husband Clifford Lloyd, who passed away April 9, 1953.

Death only comes to let us know, We love more deeply than we show. But love in death should let us see, What love in life should always be.

I am lonesome here without you Cliff, I miss you more each day Somehow life does not seem the same.

Since death called you away, My heart still aches with sadness My eyes shed many a tear, God knows how much I miss you.

As it ends another year, Sadly missed by his wife Barbara. clw41

LLOYD — In loving memory of our dear dad, Clifford Lloyd, who passed away April 9, 1953.

You can only have one father, Patient, kind and true, No other friend in all this world will be as kind to you. For all his loving kindness He asked nothing in return. If all this world deserts you, To your father you can turn. So you who have a father, Cherish him with care. For you'll never know the heartache Till you see his vacant chair.

Lovingly remembered by his sons, daughters-in-law and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS JONES — We wish to express our deep gratitude to our many friends and neighbors for the assistance, sympathy and floral offerings during the loss of our wife and mother. clw41 Joseph Jones & family

CARD OF THANKS The family of the late Wilfred Wellington Booth would like to express their appreciation to friends, relatives and neighbors for their kind remembrances, during Mr. Booth's illness, and about the same time crows were seen. Robins arrived on March 12 and 13 and Kildeers were here even earlier. Dr. Helen Hogg reports that the day of the snow storm, on March 26, a cowbird and a red-winged blackbird, joined 14 grackles at her feeding station. The males of the Cowbird and Redwing came before the females and these were both Dr. Hogg watched a Robin eating the grain she had put out. The Song Sparrows were singing on March 18 and the Mourning Doves were mourning in gardens on Church St. north on March 20. Meadowlarks have been heard for two weeks. Mrs. Peter Addison reports a Great Blue Heron on March 31. This may have been a wintering bird. She also saw two brown creepers the same day. James Hogg found a pair of Bluebirds April 3 in the Observatory Lane. Two watchers report Kingfishers on April 2 and 3. Cedar Waxwings were seen by Mrs. Addison, April 2. The North Church St. feeding stations are still being visited by Cardinals (and it is noted that the male is now feeding his lady — a sure sign of spring — he neglects her shamefully all winter) and Evening Grosbeaks.

CARD OF THANKS Mrs. Janet Clapham wishes to express her heartfelt thanks for their kind remembrance to those who called on Sunday to help make it a very happy birthday. A special thank you for the beautiful basket of 80 roses. clw41

CARD OF THANKS Mr. and Mrs. Milton Heise, Donald, Karen, Brenda, wish to express sincere thanks and appreciation to their many relatives, friends and neighbours, for their kind expressions of sympathy and floral tributes extended during our recent sad bereavement, in the loss of our Little Love, Ceinwen Roberta. *1w41

CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our relatives, friends, neighbours and everyone who helped in any way for their acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings in our recent bereavement in the loss of a dear wife and mother. *1w41 The Diceman Family

Wilfred W. Booth Dies After Lengthy Illness

A resident in Richmond Hill for 23 years, and a popular figure among his friends, Wilfred Wellington Booth died Friday, April 7, at his home, 18 Richmond Street, following a lengthy illness. He was in his 71st year.

Mr. Booth had been to the hospital Thursday afternoon for treatment. Born on March 6, 1885, at Cedar Grove, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Booth. In 1916 he married Myrtle Helmka, coming to Richmond Hill from Cedar Grove in 1932 where he had lived 23 years this May.

Mr. Booth operated the refreshment concession booth at the arena for 15 years and was a labourer by trade. He was a member of the United Church. Surviving are his wife, Myrtle Helmka, one daughter Mrs. Murray Blanchard (Helen) of Richmond Hill, two grandsons Bobby and Jackie, and two brothers, Albert and Levi of Cedar Grove.

The funeral service was held Monday, April 4, from Wright and Taylor Funeral Chapel followed by interment in Richmond Hill cemetery. Rev. C. G. Higginson conducted the service.

Palbearers were nephews of the deceased, Charles Booth, Cedar Grove, Fred Marquis, Markham, Thomas Mashinter, Richmond Hill, Ross Maxwell, Milton, Fred Childs, Milton, and Grant Helmka, New Toronto.

Mr. Booth will be greatly missed by his family and friends and The Liberal joins with the community in extending sympathy to the family during their bereavement.

Horticultural Highlights

Landscape Gardening Richmond Hill Horticultural Society will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Lions Community Hall at 8 p.m. on Thursday, April 14. Professor John Weall, popular landscape architect of O.A.C., will present an informative talk on Landscape Gardening. No new home owner can afford to miss this lecture, as Prof. Weall will explain simply and concisely, how to landscape the home grounds.

Bird Night R. V. Corlett's lecture last month on Ontario Birds and Wild Flowers was pronounced by many to be the finest the society had yet witnessed. No one but a master photographer could ever have captured such life-like beauty of local birds to be permanently recorded on colored slides. The interesting commentary and practical suggestions on camera equipment and how to obtain such pictures, as provided by Mr. Corlett, were highly appreciated by the large audience.

Mrs. Ruth McMullen, one of the four official delegates to the Ontario Horticultural Association Convention held in Toronto March 10 and 11, gave a most complete and interesting account of the facts and highlights that transpired at the meetings.

It is to be hoped that many more birds will be attracted to the garden of Laurier Glass, for he was the lucky winner of the bird bath.

Richmond Hill Naturalists Report Early Bird Arrivals

The second week in February brought the first Horned Larks, Richmond Hill naturalists report, and about the same time crows were seen. Robins arrived on March 12 and 13 and Kildeers were here even earlier.

Dr. Helen Hogg reports that the day of the snow storm, on March 26, a cowbird and a red-winged blackbird, joined 14 grackles at her feeding station. The males of the Cowbird and Redwing came before the females and these were both Dr. Hogg watched a Robin eating the grain she had put out.

The Song Sparrows were singing on March 18 and the Mourning Doves were mourning in gardens on Church St. north on March 20. Meadowlarks have been heard for two weeks.

Mrs. Peter Addison reports a Great Blue Heron on March 31. This may have been a wintering bird. She also saw two brown creepers the same day. James Hogg found a pair of Bluebirds April 3 in the Observatory Lane.

Two watchers report Kingfishers on April 2 and 3. Cedar Waxwings were seen by Mrs. Addison, April 2. The North Church St. feeding stations are still being visited by Cardinals (and it is noted that the male is now feeding his lady — a sure sign of spring — he neglects her shamefully all winter) and Evening Grosbeaks.

Bluejays, Hairy and Downy Woodpeckers, Chickadees, and White-breasted Nuthatches. An unusual visitor is the robin picking out the crumbs.

Bill Addison saw three nests of the Great Horned owl when taking Christmas Census, as well as one long-eared owl. First Phoebe's were reported March 27 by Mr. Large. He also records seeing a phoebe dive and bring up a small minnow and eat it. This is an interesting observation and it would be of interest to know if anyone can duplicate it? Mr. Large also reports a Cooper's hawk, March 20, and the Bittern April 3.

NOTE: During the next two weeks Mrs. Addison, Phone TU. 4-2787, will be glad to receive notes about new arrivals of birds or any interesting observations for the records of Richmond Hill Naturalists.

Wedding

SPRACKLIN—UNDERHILL The marriage of Barbara Joan Underhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Underhill, to Gerald Ralph Spracklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spracklin took place at a beautiful candle light service on Saturday April 2 at 7 p.m. in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Rev. A. A. Chote officiating. The church was decorated with spring flowers and the soloist was Mrs. B. Brett, organist from Toronto.

The bride was given in marriage by her father Mr. C. Underhill. Her dress was a floor length gown of white taffeta and nylon net with jacket of Chantilly lace, finger-tip veil and cascade bouquet of pink roses and white carnations. The matron of honour was Mrs. Margaret Jones, bridesmaids were Mrs. Jun. Crosbie, Miss Marilyn Spracklin and Miss Nancy Underhill, all were gowned in floor length aqua blue taffeta and nylon net with matching hats and all carried cascades of pink carnations, sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

The best man was Joseph Jones and the ushers were Joseph Stanley and David Edney. At the reception held at the Four Winds, Willowdale, the bride's mother wore a gown of dusty rose crepe and nylon with mink furs and navy accessories, her corsage was of roses and sweet peas. The mother of the groom wore turquoise blue crepe with matching hat, white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

For going away the bride chose a beige suit with brown accessories and wore a corsage of tallisman roses. Mr. and Mrs. Spracklin will spend their honeymoon in Montreal and reside in Forest Hill, Toronto on their return. Out-of-town guests at the wedding came from Cobourg, Niagara Falls, Halifax and Winnipeg.
