Mrs. Curtis gave a Good Friday meditation. Mrs. Norman Wade sang an Easter hymn and Mrs. Cora Specht gave an Easter reading. Plans were made for a quilting bee.

The Easter Thankoffering meeting of King City United Church W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. H. Ratcliff, King City, April 7. Mrs. L. Scott, President conducted the Easter worship service. Miss Maud Hawkins who has held offices in the United Church Presbyterial and has served on the Dominion Board of the United Church was the guest speaker. Miss Hawkins is a member of Glebe Rd. United Church, Toronto, where the auxiliary is named after her because of her work on behalf of the Mission fields. She was a former teacher at Harbord Collegiate, Toronto, and gave an address on the mission work in Trinidad. Not a missionary herself, Miss Hawkins has twice flown to Trinidad at her own expense to visit the mission field. After slavery was abolished in Trinidad, stated the speaker, Hindus were brought to work the sugar plantations as the climate is like that of India. The Hindus settled in Trinidad after they had worked for the required seven years. The descendants of these Hindus now populate the island. They brought with them their customs and religions. A number of them have since been converted to Christianity.

Mrs. George Stone poured tea for the more than 20 present. The Easter Thankoffering of Laskay United W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Marvin Hunter on Wednesday afternoon, April 6. Mrs. Pearson Smetzer read the study book chapter on The Growing Church in India. Miss Helen Hunter and Mrs. Marvin Hunter sang an Easter Duet. Mrs. W. Bryson and Mrs. Louis Marwood were appointed delegates to Aurora on May 4 for the Rural Spring Rally of Toronto Centre. Church Social

The three Presbyterian churches of Eversley, Strange and West King are holding a social on April 27 at 8 p.m.

Six members of Eversley W.M.S. and two members from the Strange W.M.S. visited Maple Presbyterian W.M.S. April 5 to hear Professor W. K. Andrews of Knox College, Toronto, give his travelogue on the Holy Land. Ladies Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Firemen's Ladies' Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Bob McLeod, April 11. Plans for raising money to aid with purchase of equipment were discussed. A lucky draw was held with Mrs. David Glass winning a box of chocolates. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Donald McCallum on May 9.

Social Notes
