Maple Socials

Mr. and Mrs. William Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Palmer have returned from a 1,600 mile motor trip to the southern United States. They spent three weeks at Indian Rocks Beach near St. Petersburg, Florida and on the return trip they visited the famous Cypress Gardens. Dr. Cam McKay of Maple Cattle Breeders with Dr. James Henderson, Veterinary College, Guelph, Roy Snider, Waterloo, Bruce Amos, Oxford and District Cattle Breeders, left on Saturday April 16, to attend the cattle breeders' conference at the University of Maine.

Sunday School Entertained

Members of Maple United Church Sunday School were entertained during the Easter vacation period by members of the Teachers and Officers Association, when the annual supper and entertainment were held. A large group of the boys and girls responded to the invitation and did full justice to an excellent repast, prepared by members of the Sunday School staff. Following the supper, colored films were shown, through the courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company, and M. J. Kinnee, General Superintendent of the school showed slides in technical and interesting parts of Canada, and a number, depicting scenes in and around Maple. A special feature was the showing of pictures taken at the last annual Sunday School Picnic.

Mrs. E. Kyle President Women's Institute '55-56

The regular meeting of Maple Women's Institute was held in the Community Centre Hall on Wednesday evening, April 13, with the president, Mrs. D. Allen as chairman of the meeting. A successful financial report of the year was given enabling the W. I. to give donations to Community Centre Hall and other worthy causes. After the reports of the standing committees were given, Mrs. Andrew Snider acted as chairman during the election of officers and Mrs. Harry Jackson was secretary.

Mrs. E. Kyle President
The nominating committee report was given and those elected for the year 1955-56 were: President, Mrs. Edward Kyle, First Vice-president, Mrs. Laurence Clarke; Second-vice president, Mrs. George Miller; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John Leese, Assistant, Mrs. Harry Jackson. Directors: Mrs. Harry Jennings, Mrs. Victor Orr, Mrs. Alfred Jones and Mrs. A. Snider.

D. L. Bagg Weds Joan Milroy At 'Candelight' Ceremony

Amid a setting of gladioli and carnations in St. Presbyterian Church, Weston, the marriage took place of Madelon Joan Milroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Milroy to Donald Locke Bagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bagg, Edgeley. Rev. Mr. Bogg officiated at the candelight ceremony. Miss Constance McEwan, accompanied by Mrs. H. Dixon, sang "Through The Years" and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over white satin with painted basque having a scalloped portrait neckline studded with sequins and seed pearls. Her tulle illusion veil was caught to a cloche embroidered with pearls and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Beryl Milroy, matron-of-honor and Miss Irene Harcourt, bridesmaid, were gowned alike in porcelain shrimp cristalette and wore veils fashioned with pink roses. They carried bouquets of white gladioli, centred with pink roses.

Miss Carol Keffer, flower girl, wore a blue net dress over blue taffeta. She wore pink roses as a headpiece and carried a bouquet of white gladioli centred with pink roses. Mr. Norman Bagg was his brother's best man. The ushers were Bill Moorish and Ronald Keffer.

At the reception at the Four

Nominating committee, Mrs. William Noble, Mrs. George Calder, Mrs. Norman Payne; Standing committee, Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. N. Payne; Citizenship and Education, Mrs. G. Miller; Community Activities and Public Relations, Mrs. H. Stephenson; Home Economics and Health, Mrs. T. F. Jackson; Historical Research and current events, Mrs. E. Harris; resolutions Mrs. M. Palmer; Social Committee, Mrs. V. Orr; Mrs. E. Wade, Mrs. A. Jones; Pianists, Mrs. V. Noble, Mrs. E. Wade; Auditors, Mrs. G. Watson, Miss Mary Carson.

A contest was conducted by Mrs. A. Snider and was won by Mrs. W. Noble. An instrumental given by Mrs. Noble brought the meeting to a close, when refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Forty dollars was donated to the Cancer Campaign for April which is being held this month. The District Annual will be held in Vellore Hall, June 8.

Winds Country Club, the bride's silver brocade dress with corsage of mauve orchids. The groom's mother assisted wearing powder blue crepe dress and a corsage of pink orchids.

For a motor trip to Florida, the bride chose a three piece ensemble of grey wool with navy blue hat and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Bagg will live in Edgeley on their return.

District Briefs

Rev. Foster Hilliard, who has been minister at Flesherston for the past three years, has been called to Downsview United Church to replace Rev. Cyril Leach, who has asked for a change of pastoral relations. W. J. Buchanan, Downsview, Secretary-treasurer of York Federation of Agriculture has asked to be relieved of his duties because of ill health. Members of a panel suggested current topics for Farm Forum broadcasts at the Ontario Farm Radio Forum annual meeting held in Toronto recently. They should also be spontaneous, the panel decided. Some felt that the broadcasts "lacked something," due, they thought, to too much pre-arrangement. Under the present set up, some broadcasts are prepared nearly a year in advance.

W.M.S. Service April 24

Next Sunday morning April 24th special service will be held in Maple United Church, the occasion being the annual Women's Missionary Society service. Guest speaker will be Dr. W. J. Virgin, who spent several years on the staff of Ludhiana Medical School in India. Several of the officers of the W. M. S. will assist in the service.
