S.S. No. 2 Choir Wins Shield At Woodbridge, Music Festival

S. S. 2 King, King City School competed with two other schools in the class for four-room schools and under at the York County Music Festival at Woodbridge on May 6. King City School won the shield for the third time with a mark of 88. The other two schools in the competition received a mark of 87. As this was the third consecutive win for King City school, they will be able to retain the shield permanently. Mr. Iltyd Harris conducted the choir of 46 voices in Grades 1 to 8. The choir sang "The Song of the Music Makers".

King Lion's Club 'Spring Thaw' Attended By Large Audience

Over 200 people attended the King City Lions Club 'Spring Thaw', a minstrel show in two acts on May 6, in Langdon's Bus Terminal. Approximately $100 was realized from the presentation. Lions Arnold Peter, George Bodi and John Nimmo were on the program committee. Looking after tickets were Lions Ken Sutton and Jack Parsons.

Lions Jim McDonald and Jack Parsons played a medley of Old South tunes to open the program. The interlocutor was John Nimmo and he was assisted by end men Vic and Jim Bodi, Bert Archibald and Jim Langdon. A chorus of 20 pupils from King City school sang the musical numbers. They were black faced and wore red bandanas. The chorus sang a medley of Stephen Foster tunes. While they sang "No. No. A Thousand Times No.", Wendy Gamble, Shirley Bowen, and Rosemary Davidson pantomimed the roles of the village blacksmith, desperate Desmond, and the maid of the village.

Three-year-old Grant Peter delighted the audience with a pantomime of Davey Crockett. Elaine Armistead and Barbara Billings received an encore for their pantomime. Roger Rawlings sang three selections. Julia Bell and Sandra Lynn Berry played piano selections. Mrs. Adam Davidson played the accompaniments.

With Ont. Hydro For 25 Years

Mr. George Harvey, president-elect of King City Lions and clubmaster of the King City Cubs was presented with a clock radio on April 25 by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission. G. J. Alexander, mechanical maintenance engineer in the Head Office section of operations division presented the clock to Mr. Harvey in recognition of his 25 years of service with the hydro.

Mr. Harvey has been employed in the engineering department of the Ontario Hydro since 1929 with the exception of two breaks in service, one of a year in 1933, and three years spent in the Naval service from 1943 to 1946.

Raise $140 For Flyers

Final reports on the hockey banquet for King City Midgets Nichols Flyers were given at the dinner meeting of King City Lions May 3, in King City United Church. The committee reported proceeds from the banquet and donations from people in the community and businessmen had amounted to $140. The money will be kept in trust by the Lions and given to the team next season to purchase equipment.

At the dinner meeting Lion Herb Ross told the highlights of his trip to the southern United States last winter. The draw for the convention fund prize was won by Bruce Hall.

Show Film At All Saints King

Show Film
A film will be shown at All Saints Anglican Church, King, on Sunday evening next, May 15, following a short service of Evening Prayer at 7.30.

The film is in full colour and sound and is technically of a very high standard.

Its purpose is to demonstrate how God has again and again anticipated in the world of nature about us the most amazing of man's inventions.

Elect Janet Finch Pres. 4H Club

The 4-H Club of Laskay held its first meeting May 7 at the home of Grace Glass. Mrs. Whitley Finch is the leader of the group and is assisted by Mrs. F. C. Buddin. The five members elected the following officers for the coming year: President Janet Mary Finch, vice-president Margaret Cairns, secretary Margaret Ruth Finch, treasurer Frances Forrester. The members chose the name of Laskay Green Thumbs for the Club. Their assignment for this month is to plan and plant flower gardens. Next month the girls will be cooking green and leafy vegetables. Next meeting will be on June 4 at the home of Frances Forrester.

King City Pupils Spend Enjoyable Day In Toronto

May 3 pupils from Grade 3 to 8 of King City school had an all day educational jaunt to the city. Accompanying the children on the trip were the principal, Miss E. Dennis, teachers Carson Bice and Mrs. Hemphill. In the morning Grades 3 to 6 were taken by a lecturer to the room on Conservation. Grades 3 and 4 were also impressed with the mummies they saw in the room on Egypt. Grades 5 and 6 visited the rooms on Mexico and the Aztec Indians. Grades 7 and 8 were greatly interested in the armor in the British History room. They heard a lecture on the different rock formations. After lunch in the museum the older pupils went on a self-conducted tour, while the younger pupils were taken to see the dinosaurs.

After the tours at the museum the pupils went to the CBC studio and saw the radio broadcast of the Happy Gang.

The Parliament Buildings were also visited. The pupils sat in the members chairs, while the guide told them where the important members of the government sat. A discussion period followed. The older pupils were taken on a tour of the halls while the younger ones toured the grounds to complete the day.

Henry Towse Dies At Calgary Alta.

Mr. Henry Wilmot (Harry) Towse passed away in Calgary, Alberta, on May 7. He was the eldest son of the late John C. and Emma Towse, and the grandson of Rev. John Towse, the first minister of Eversley Presbyterian church. Mr. Towse grew up in Eversley community, and is a brother of Mrs. Elizabeth Follitt, King (Janet) Mrs. Walter Shropshire, King, Nelson, Malcolm of Toronto, James, (Mina) Mrs. Philip Bridgeman, King, and the late Annie Towse. He is survived by his wife, Emma Towse. The funeral service took place at Calgary, Alberta, on May 10.

Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox Socials

Herb Pantling, George St., who has been convalescing at home, has now returned to hospital with blood poisoning in a cut caused by a recent accident.

Ladies of Aubrey Ave. surprised Mrs. Teirney of the same street with a gift of a play pen for her new-born son.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hind and daughter June, Mimico, spent the week-end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. Baron, Aubrey Ave.

Pallister Baby Dies From Blood Clot At 3 Months

The community was shocked to hear of the sudden passing of three-month old Frances Helen Pallister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Pallister of Oak Ridges on Wednesday, May 4. The sudden death of the little girl was attributed to a blood clot.

The baby appeared in excellent health when given her night feeding at 1:30 a.m. on Wednesday but when Mrs. Pallister went to wake her at 8 a.m. she had passed away. Dr. R. S. Idenon attended.

Funeral services were held at Thompson Funeral Chapel on May 5 and interment was in Aurora Cemetery. Left to mourn her passing are her parents and one brother Tommy.

Ladies' Auxiliary Hold County Fair

The Ladies Auxiliary of the 1st Oak Ridges Boy Scout and Girl Guides held a County Fair on Saturday May 7 at the public school. The class room was very nicely decorated with potted plants by the guides. A general store was operated by Mrs. Beaulier, Mrs. Pilroto and Mrs. Graham, where aprons, plants and tinware goods were displayed. Mrs. E. Knuckey looked after the parcel post for which parcels from as far as British Columbia were received. Mrs. E. Clarke and Mrs. Jean Baron took care of the home baking, jellies and candies. Sheila Hill and Betty Hill served refreshments to the younger children. In the Tea Garden, Mrs. J. Armstrong poured with the able assistance of her junior hostesses, Pat Smith and Karen Davidson. Other Guides assisting were Sharon Brown, Hazel McConnell, Carole Hine and Edith Pantling. Mrs. Nash was in charge of the draw and tea service.

The proceeds of this day will go towards the support of the Cubs, Guides, Brownies and Scouts.
