To Hold Sixth Rural Clergy Sch. The sixth annual School for Rural Clergy at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, will be held from July 25 to July 29, 1955. The purpose of the program is to make possible discussion of the problems of the rural community, to give clergymen a greater knowledge of the basic principles of agriculture in relation to the work of the church, and to provide systematic instruction for those clergymen wishing to specialize in the study of rural sociology, agricultural economics, or nutrition. The course in rural sociology will conclude a three-year plan to deal primarily with rural institutions—the home, school, and church. The studies in agricultural economics will deal with the marketing of farm products, and include marketing schemes and the growth of Ontario co-operatives. The nutrition course will present basic information to give clergymen a deal in the nutrition of livestock for efficient production, and its relation to human welfare. Field trips and other projects will complete the week-long course. All Ontario clergymen and their wives will be invited to attend the School.
