Superintendent Retires After 40 Years' Service

After 40 years service as General Superintendent of Edgeley United Church Sunday School, Frank Bagg resigned last week, submitting his resignation at a meeting of the church board.

The resignation was accepted with regret and the hearty appreciation of all church officials for a job well done was expressed. Albert Mitchell, assistant superintendent was appointed to fill the vacancy and A. W. Gent was asked to take over the duties as assistant.

The annual Sunday School picnic was arranged for July.

York County Rally Dalziel Park

W.I. Appoints Delegates District Annual Meeting

The monthly meeting of Edgeley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Cook, Thursday afternoon, June 2, when Mrs. W. Maginn, Mrs. Frank Locke and Mrs. Bert Cook were appointed delegates to the annual meeting of West York District W.I.

President Mrs. James Spencer was chairman of the meeting and Miss Ella Whitmore, convener of Citizenship and Education was in charge of the program.

The motto "Privileges make Responsibilities", prepared by Miss Whitmore, was read by Mrs. R. Stuart and Miss Whitmore gave a short paper on the topic.

Mrs. Bert Lackowski became a member of the Institute bringing the membership to 25.

The door prize, donated by Mrs. Jas. Spencer, was won by Mrs. C. H. Boake, Mrs. Lachowski, Mrs. Garne Keffer and Mrs. Spencer were winners of the "Indian Giver" contest conducted by Miss Whitmore.

Mrs. Chas. Agnew and Miss Whitmore displayed the finished hooked rug which they had designed as a W.I. project to be displayed this month at the District Annual Meeting.

Mrs. Bert Cook, Mrs. R. J. Darlington and Miss Whitmore were the social committee for the afternoon.

Rally At Dalziel Park

In lieu of a meeting in July, the members will attend the York County W. I. Rally at Dalziel Pioneer Park, July 7. This rally will mark the closing of the inaugural year of the York County Women's Institute and the annual meeting and election of officers will take place at 10 a. m.

Ken Higgs, fieldman for the Humber Valley Conservation Authority, will be guest speaker in the morning. A good representation from all 55 branches in the county is desired. All women in York County are invited to attend the rally whether they are institute members or not. Each person will please bring her own basket lunch and a cup.

To Present Scholarship

An important highlight of the afternoon will be the presentation of the York County Anna P. Lewis Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship to Miss Marion Eves of Queensville. Established two years ago, the scholarship is awarded annually, and Miss Eves is the first York County girl to receive it. To qualify, Miss Eves, a North York 4-H Club member, was required to successfully complete six or more Homemaking Projects and to show steady improvement and definite personal progress during the course of club work. She was also required to give leadership and carry on club work of a high quality. Miss Eves' work was of exceptionally high calibre.

Picnic at Sharon Temple

The joint picnic of the York Pioneer and Historical Society and the Women's Institutes of York County will be held at the Sharon Temple in the afternoon of June 18, with the W.I. providing the program. A series of tableaux depicting pioneer life will be presented with Mrs. R. H. Neil, Thornhill, as director.

W. I. Holiday

Women's Institute members from all parts of the province are invited to attend the 7th annual Women's Institute holiday to be held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, July 18-22. All reservations are made through Mrs. Loren Guild, Rockwood, Ont. This is a holiday and members are at liberty to attend as much or as little of the program as they wish.

Deadline for all applications to Mrs. Guild is July 10.

Addition Made To Staff Increase In Registration Concord Sch. Next Sept.

When Concord School opens in September there will be a new classroom and a new teacher.

Edward Wells of Willowdale has been engaged by the school board to begin his duties with the opening of school. Mr. Wells graduated from Teachers' College two years ago and since then has taught at Kettleby Public School.

The grades will be divided among five teachers. Mrs. Wearing will teach the youngest children and Miss Dalgleish will teach Grade 2. Mr. Wells will take Grade 4 and Miss Dorothy Duke will teach grade 6. Mr. McWhirter will instruct grades 7 and 8. It is undecided yet who will teach grades 3 and 5, but it is expected these grades will be apportioned to the present teachers.

The registration figure last September was 145. This year it will be 160. In order to accommodate the increased attendance it will be necessary to use the last spare classroom in the new addition, built last year.

Isolated Parts Dominion Get Lessons By Mail

Illustrating her talk by the use of a large map of Canada and by many interesting stories about light-houses, logging camps, and isolated homes of the Dominion, Miss Gertrude Patmore of Toronto held the attention of Maple United Church Sunday School, parents and friends at the annual Sunday School anniversary services held on Sunday, June 5.

Miss Patmore is Superintendent of Sunday School in the home, by mail and air, of The United Church, and as such, is head of the largest Sunday School in that particular denomination. She is responsible for sending to families who are not within reach of any church or Sunday school, the regular weekly lesson aids and story papers. With the help of two Sunday School scholars from Toronto, she broadcasts special stories and messages over 21 radio stations in Canada.

In her talk to Maple Sunday School she read interesting and amusing letters from her scholars, scattered in the far north and on islands on Canada's coast lines, and asked youngsters to remember their fellow Sunday School members, in their prayers and with their gifts.

Rev. A. G. Donald was in charge of the service, assisted by M. J. Kinnee, general superintendent.

25 Years' Service

At the close of the service, Norman Lund, assistant superintendent called the attention of the congregation to the fact that Mr. Kinnee was completing 25 years as their leader, rendering effective and helpful service for a quarter of a century. On behalf of the Sunday School Garry Palmer presented Mr. Kinnee with a suitably inscribed silver tray and Donna Reed presented Mrs. Kinnee with a bouquet of 25 red roses.

Scholars of the Sunday and a junior choir under direction of Mrs. Roy C. ... suitable music for the necessary occasion. ... accompanied Mrs. ... who was at the organ ... at the piano.

Alvin Puterbaugh Life-Long Resident Vaughan Township

Alvin Puterbaugh, a native and life-long resident of Vaughan Township, passed away Sunday evening, May 29, in his 82nd year. He had been in ill health for several months.

Mr. Puterbaugh's school days were spent at Vellore and Edgeley Public Schools. During the early part of his life, he attended Zion Lutheran Sunday School and in later years became closely connected with Edgeley United Church, a former Methodist Church.

Possessing a very friendly disposition, he made many lasting friends. He is survived by a brother Edgar, and sister Alma.

The funeral was held from the Undertaking Parlours of Mrs. A. W. Lawrie, Maple, Wednesday June 1 and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Rev. A. G. Donald conducted the service.

There were many beautiful floral tributes. The flower bearers were Harold Ambrose, Albert Mitchell, James Marwood, Percy Usher and Earl and Russell Robb. Active pallbearers were Wesley Stong, Daniel, Clarence, Ernest, Arthur and Oliver, cousins of the deceased.

Interment took place in Zion Lutheran Cemetery at Sherwood.

District Farmers See Planting Demonstration

The correct selection and planting of annuals was a feature studied by district farmers and gardeners at two twilight demonstration meetings sponsored by the Vaughan Federation of Agriculture on June 2.

In the race against darkness, the demonstrations were conducted promptly under the guidance of John E. Bradshaw, author, radio and TV authority.

Held at the farms of Norman Bagg, Edgeley, and Orland Downey, Sherwood, it is the first demonstration of its kind held in the township. For the planting, Mr. Bradshaw chose scarlet zinnias, white petunias and deep purple and white alysium and demonstrated the proper planting methods to achieve the best effect.

The 4-H Garden Club of Elgin Mills, with their leader, Miss Gladys Foster, was on hand to view the demonstration.

Lutheran Picnic June 24

Zion Lutheran congregational picnic will be held June 24 at Sherwood church.

The women of the church meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eric Winter, Thornhill, on June 14. Plans are underway for a picnic in July.

Couples' Club Ends Season

The May meeting of the Couples' Club of Zion Lutheran Church took the form of a bowling tournament at the Richmond Bowl, Richmond Hill, on Tuesday evening, May 31.

High scorers were Mrs. Ross Percival and student pastor Harold Lindeman. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Keffer assisted Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boeckner in serving lunch at the Boeckner home in Maple following the bowling.

The members decided to have a picnic and annual meeting on June 26.

Mrs. Ruth Mills Pres. Auxiliary

Mrs. Ruth Mills was re-elected president of 1st Concord Cub and Scout Mothers' Auxiliary at the first annual meeting of the group held at the home of Mrs. Saunders, Concord, on May 30.

Other officers include Mrs. Ruth Thomson, vice-president, Mrs. Norma Spearing, secretary and Mrs. Verna Saunders, treasurer.

A busy year was reported and included sewing neckerchiefs for the cubs and scouts and assisting at the Father and Son banquet. A successful progressive euchre party was held in January. Mrs. Gardner from headquarters was guest speaker at one meeting. The group is at present purchasing some equipment for the boys, including a first aid kit.

The auxiliary will begin its second year with a meeting in the autumn.

History Of Hymns Topic Luther League

Twenty-three young people attended the Sherwood-Unionville Luther League meeting at Unionville on Sunday evening, June 5.

Lorne Smith led the devotions and Harold Lindeman took for his topics "The Brief History of Our Hymns" and "The Histories of Isaac Watt and Charles Wesley."

Ball Season Opens

The first baseball of the season was played on Wednesday night, June 1, with the St. Ansgar League of Toronto and resulted in a score of 35-5 in favor of the Sherwood-Unionville League.
