Maple United Exceeds $30,000 Building Goal

Members of the Canvass Committee of Maple United Church, who have been engaged in Every-Family Visitation of the congregation in the interests of the building fund for the erection of a new religious education building, met July 6 for a Victory Banquet, to mark the close of the campaign.
 It was reported that, with a number of visits still to be made the insured objective of $30,000 had been exceeded by a considerable amount and reports indicated that the local church budget would be increased by over $1,000.
 Dr. R. A. Bigford, chairman of the Canvass Committee, pre-

Marian Eves Presented Anna P. Lewis Scholarship

Presentation of the York County Anna P. Lewis Women's Institute Scholarship to Miss Marian Eves of Queensville was witnessed by 173 people at the York County Women's Institute Rally held at the Dalziel Pioneer Park on Thursday, July 7.
 It was the 1st rally of the newly organized county group and the first public function held in the park since it was established a year ago.
 Mrs. Anna P. Lewis Ewen, director Women's Institutes, F.W.I.O., presented Miss Eves with the Scholarship and Miss Bors-trum, County Home Economist, cited Miss Eves' many accomplishments and high calibre of work which made her an outstanding club girl. Miss Eves is planning to use the $85 award to further her education in music.
 Ken Higgs, fieldman for the Humber Valley Conservation Authority outlined the history of the museum barn and spoke of future plans for the park and the Humber Valley Watershed. He

The slick surface of wet asphalt roadways has sent many a motorist limping to the garage with flattened fenders and shattered headlamps. But now research engineers have come up with something that sharply reduces this accident hazard. When their special aluminum oxide abrasive is applied to the road surface, it cuts down by more than 30% the stopping distance of your car when you apply the brakes at 30 m.p.h.
 ... So in addition to saving weight and work in a thousand everyday and special applications, aluminum may prove a major factor in saving lives, too.

Norma Lorene Poole Wed To Stanley Mack Harrison

At a candlelight service in the Edgeley United Church, with Rev. A. G. Donald officiating at the double ring ceremony, the marriage took place of Norma Lorene Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Poole of Concord to Mr. Stanley Mack Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harrison of Maple. Mrs. Allan Bagg played the wedding music and Mr. Bert Boyd sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Through the Years".
 For travelling, the bride chose a pale blue crystaletta dress, matching duster coat, white accessories and corsage of pink roses.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harrison have returned from a trip to Northern Ontario and are living in Maple.

Infant Baptism Maple United

The Sacrament of Infant Baptism was observed in Maple United Church on Sunday, July 10, when the following children were received into the membership of the church by Rev. A. G. Donald — Catherine Ann Pile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pile, Maple; Judyth Grace Beck and Roger Douglas Beck, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Beck, 3rd concession of Vaughan.
 Rev. Donald was assisted in the ceremony by Dr. R. A. Bigford, secretary of the Maple Church Board, representing the Church Session.
