Helen Millen Weds David Carter

Standards of pink and white gladioli formed an attractive setting in the Richmond Hill United Church on Saturday, July 16, at 3 p.m., for the marriage of Miss Helen Joyce Millen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gould, Richmond Hill, to Mr. David Donald Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter, Weston. Rev. J. O. Totton was the officiating clergyman for the double-ring ceremony. Mr. H. G. Fowler played the wedding music, and the soloist was Miss Carol Babcock, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," and "Because."

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was gown-ed in white angelskin silk taffeta, made on fitted lines with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her three-quarter-length veil was caught to a sequinned bandeau. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and baby red roses.

Mrs. Anna Simpson of Richmond Hill was her sister's matron of honour, and wore an orchid silk taffeta dress, with fitted bodice and floor-length skirt. Mrs. Eleanor Preston, Scarborough, the bride's aunt, wore a pale pink; Mrs. Jacqueline Carter, sister-in-law of the groom in pale yellow, and Miss Beulah Baskerville of Richmond Hill in light green, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were made on similar lines to that of the matron of honour. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Sandra McClelland, cousin of the groom, from Huntsville. Her dress was of orchid taffeta. All attendants carried bouquets of matching gladioli.

Ronald Carter of Weston was his brother's groomsmen, and the ushers were Robert Simpson and Ronald Millen of Richmond Hill and Ronald Rich-mond Hill, uncle of the groom, of Weston.

Four generations of the bride's family attended the wedding and the reception which followed at the Graystones, Aurora. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a dress of pale blue silk with white accessories, and a corsage of pink gladioli. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Carter chose a navy sheer dress with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of red gladioli.

For the honeymoon trip to Huntsville, the bride donned a two-piece mauve suit dress with pleated skirt, white accessories, and a corsage of white gladioli. — photo by Lagerquist

Margaret Isabel Scotchmer Passes In Her 74th Year

Margaret Isabel Drysdale Scotchmer, a resident of Richmond Hill for the past 15 years, passed away July 12 at Stouffville in her 74th year. Mrs. Scotchmer had been ill for the past three years.

Born at Lanark, Ontario, on December 12, 1882, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Drysdale of that town.

Prior to 1912 she had attended Queens' University at Kingston, later teaching school in the West. She was married on April 12, 1912, at Moosejaw, Saskatchewan, to Mr. F. G. Scotchmer.

Coming to Richmond Hill in 1940 from Toronto, the Scotchmer family took up residence at 63 Roseview Avenue. Mrs. Scotchmer was a member of Richmond Hill United Church and was affiliated with the Woman's Association of that church.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Rev. George Scotchmer and Douglas Scotchmer, both of Galveston, Texas, and a daughter Catherine of Willowdale.

The funeral service was held Friday, July 15, from Wright & Taylor Funeral Chapel with interment following in Richmond Hill cemetery. Rev. J. O. Totton conducted the funeral service.

Palbearers were Reg. Macey, Maple, Alfred and Chas. Scotchmer of Bayfield, William Scotchmer of Egmondville, Thomas Scotchmer of Guelph and Delbert Haw of Dundalk.

The Liberal gives with the community in expressing sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Nolan - Weaver Nuptials Donlands United Church

The marriage of Laurie Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alva Weaver of Toronto, formerly of Richmond Hill, to Benedict Francis Nolan, Richmond Hill, formerly of Markham, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nolan, took place at Donlands United Church on June 25.

The bride chose a full skirted white dress of silk organza with lace edging in scallop design. Inside each scallop were pale pink and blue rosettes, and she wore a pale blue cummerbund at the waist. A satin and pearl edged cap held her elbow length veil, and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses touched with blue bachelor buttons.

Maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Nolan, Richmond Hill, sister of the groom, wearing a pink nylon dress and a headpiece of pink roses. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Miss Marion Weaver, Toronto, and Mrs. C. A. Taggart of Elgin Mills, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. Gowned in blue and yellow full skirted nylon dresses with headpieces of red roses, they carried bouquets of white and pink carnations.

The groom's brother, Thomas Nolan of Richmond Hill, was best man and ushers were Eric Cruickshank of Richmond Hill and C. Allan Taggart of Elgin Mills.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the mother of the bride received the guests in a grey and coral dress with grey accessories and a corsage of coral and white roses. Mrs. E. Greetham of Toronto, the groom's aunt, received in a dress of royal blue, and her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Attina Johnston and Miss Elaine Johnston of Iroquois; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyall, Mr. Reg. Lyall and Mr. and Mrs. D. Grant of Beaverton.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan left for Niagara Falls for a week's holiday. For travelling, the bride chose a coral tissue faille suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses and carnations.

They are now living at their new home in Toronto.

Late Mrs. Florence Sims Was Lifelong Resident Of Village

The community was saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Florence M. Sims, who slept quietly away on July 18, at her home on Roseview Ave., Richmond Hill. She was in her 82nd year and had been ill for several years.

Mrs. Sims, who was formerly Florence Hopper was a lifelong resident of the village and for years was a familiar figure to many as she helped her husband, the late Frank Sims, in his store on Yonge Street. Mrs. Sims was a member of the Methodist congregation in the village and later of Richmond Hill United Church. She took an active part in the Women's Association where she held an executive position for many years.

Mrs. Sims is survived by a brother, Fred Hopper of Whitestone, one sister, Mrs. J. H. Lever of Blackwater, two daughters, Mrs. R. Dibb (Mabel) and Mrs. E. Mansbridge (Mildred), and one son Lewis of Richmond Hill and three grandchildren, Eleanor Mansbridge and John and David Sims.

The funeral service was held today (Thursday) from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Interment was in Richmond Hill Cemetery and the service was conducted by Rev. C. G. Higginson.

Palbearers were John Stallibras, I. D. Ramer, Bert Cook, Jack Dibb, Floyd Perkins and Peter Savage.
