John Thibert - Valena Chester Take Vows At Fort McLeod

Baskets of multi-colored gladioli decorated Trinity church, at Fort McLeod, Alta., August 20, for the wedding of Valena Mae Chester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Chester of Fort McLeod, Alberta, and John David Thibert, of Medicine Hat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Midas Thibert, of Richmond Hill. The Rev. J. Muir officiated at the double ring ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. A. McLean. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father who gave her in marriage. Her ankle length gown of white lace and net over satin featured a fitted bodice with lilyprint sleeves, and two rows of velvet flowers centered with rhinestones outlined the portrait neckline. Her fingertip nylon net veil was held in place by a pill box hat of white lace, studded with rhinestones. She carried deep red baby roses, arranged on white satin streamers, falling from a lace centerpiece.

The bride's only sister, Mrs. Kaye Chester, was the bridesmaid. Her ankle length gown of powder blue satin had a flowered net overskirt, and was worn with a short-sleeved bolero jacket. Her matching headpiece was a halo with rhinestone trim and a short veil and she carried a colonial hat of white cartons and white gladioli, with lace ruffle and satin bows. The best man was Mr. Tom Gunter of Medicine Hat and the ushers were Norman Clarke and Leonard Chester of Fort McLeod. The reception was held in the United church hall, which was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, and vases of mixed summer flowers. The bride's table was centered by a four-tier wedding cake. Mr. A. A. Neddow was master of ceremonies and the toast to the bride was proposed by her great-uncle, Mr. Cyrus Chester of Lethbridge.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of navy blue, with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom chose a gown of dusty rose, with navy accessories, and her corsage was of yellow roses. Telegrams were read from Barrie and Galt, Ont., and from Medicine Hat. Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Chester, who will soon be celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary. The honeymoon is being spent at Waterton Lakes. The bride travelled in a suit of navy blue, with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. The young couple will reside at Medicine Hat, where the bridegroom is a radio announcer, with station CHAT there.

Nature Notes

By Richmond Hill Naturalists On Sunday, September 11, a small group from the Richmond Hill Naturalists spent a rewarding morning at Bond Lake through the courtesy of the owners. Their quest was for migrating birds, and although not too many were seen, they had the big thrill of the day in a pair of ospreys, soaring and diving over the lake. Ospreys are also known as "Fish Hawks." These birds are large - some have a wingspread up to six feet and have been known to fly at a speed of from 25 to 30 miles per hour. They are mainly fish eaters and when they have caught one are particular that the fish is kept in one particular position while the bird is in flight. The plumage of this large bird is rather oily which imparts a special odour. Their feet are covered by small scales, while the soles of the feet are rough with many small horny spikes. There are no webbed between the toes. Nestling ospreys have a brownish pink patterned down that is unlike other hawks. Ontario is a logical place as a home for ospreys, as the many lakes provide plenty of fish. It isn't until May as a rule that the birds return to the north from their winter homes in the Gulf of Mexico region. Their call is shrill, being a "pee-a, pee-a" sound. They often return to their previous nest and add to or repair it. It is sometimes noted that an osprey returns to the same nesting year after year. These bird homes are usually found at the top of some dead giant tree trunk overlooking the surrounding forest. Ospreys usually lay three eggs, whitish or tawny in colour and heavily marked with brown and drab. The latest fall date noted of their migration to the South is October 22.
