Maple Socials

Mr. and Mrs. William Perry, who are living with their son, John Perry, Maple, celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robson and family spent the week-end at their cottage at Lake Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wells and family were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weir at their cottage in Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Langille and family spent the week-end at their cottage on Lake Scugog.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glen, Maplewood Farm, have returned home after an extended trip to England and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Dougald Cowan, Maple, spent the Thanksgiving week-end holidaying at their cottage at Port Severn, Ontario.

Turkey Dinner Planned For The Cancer Research Fund

The meeting last week of the Edgeley Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. B. Keffer, R. R. 2 Maple, was well attended and a good supply of articles for the Cancer Cupboard were received in answer to the roll call.

Mrs. James Spencer presided and was assisted by the secretary, Mrs. W. Maginn.

Mrs. E. A. Godfrey, a graduate physiotherapist and Convenor of Home Economics and Health offered many helpful suggestions on the proper care of the feet and demonstrated a few foot exercises for easing foot strain.

Mrs. C. H. Boake, representing the W.A. of Edgeley United

Church and Miss Ella Whitmore, representing the Edgeley W. I., attended the general meeting on Monday of the district Cancer Society and reported that funds are needed to further Cancer research. To help meet this need, a mammoth Turkey Dinner has been planned to be held at the Maple Community Centre, on or about November 19.

Mrs. Paul Snider outlined briefly the medical and surgical benefits that are available through the York Co-operative Medical Service.

Mrs. Alf Bagges, Mrs. E. Phillips and Mrs. Paul Snider were the social committee.

Community & School Club Meeting

Hope Community and School Club's first meeting for this term was well attended and it was good to add new members to the role. Miss E. Izzard and Dr. Lillian Langstaff of Richmond Hill were guests of the evening and everyone enjoyed their presentation of European pictures and the talk of experiences in other countries. The members have been asked to help with the Cancer Society's planned turkey dinner and it was moved that each family be asked to donate a pie.

Concord Graduates Will Be Honoured

The 1955 Graduating Class of Concord Public School is to be honored at a Graduation Banquet at the school on Monday evening, October 17. Twelve students and their parents will be served by members of the 1955 Graduating Class. Those to be honored are Martha Baker, Sharon Baker, Nancy Bwies, Patsy Dinoff, Dorothy Jackson, John Lightfoot, Brian McLean, Clifford Nuttall, Marie Salmon, Mary Snider, David Voigt and June Spearing. Mr. Newstead of Concord will be the speaker and Miss Martha Baker will give the valedictory address. Mrs. Spurgeon is convening the banquet.

Pastor's Wife Speaks To W.A. At Downsview United Church

The Thanksgiving meeting of the W.A. of Downsview United Church was held in the church on Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 8 p.m. Mrs. K. Middleton was in the chair, and was assisted by the secretary, Mrs. G. Henderson, who also supplied a solo to the Devotional Period, conducted by Mrs. Ed Hawes.

The special speaker was Mrs. Margaret Hilliard, wife of the new pastor, who spoke on "The more aware you are, the more alive you are." Quite a few new faces were in the audience.

Mrs. Hilliard touched on progress to maturity through taking on added responsibilities.

She concluded as follows, "The Church seems to ask a great deal of people, their time, talents, money, but it has much to give in return. For it can help people to overcome their fears, gain inner peace, and receive inner strength; in the words of the Scripture, 'They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.'"

Mrs. Hilliard touched on progress to maturity through taking on added responsibilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle R. M. Boyle are seen with their attendants on the steps of St. John's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges, after their recent marriage. Mrs. Boyle is the former Irene Patricia Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Meyers, Maple, while the groom is the son of Mrs. O. Boyle and the late Mr. Boyle of Thornhill. The maid of honour, was Miss Edna Anderson while the best man was Albert Boyle, brother of the groom. The Rev. D. C. H. Michell conducted the ceremony.

Stratford Choir To Entertain

Maple United Church Makes Plans For 85th Anniversary

The 85th anniversary of the dedication and opening of Maple United Church will be observed on Sunday, October 23, and plans are now being made to make it a day long to be remembered by members and friends of the congregation.

Rev. W. Harold Young, D.D., LL.D., Secretary of the Board of Colleges for the United Church will be the special preacher at the morning service, and Stanley Harper, baritone of Westminster United Church, Weston, will assist the Maple choir in the service of praise.

At 7:30 p.m. Rev. W. Stuart MacLeod, M.A., B.D., minister of St. John's United Church, Stratford, will be the guest preacher, and he is bringing with him the senior choir of St. John's Church which will sing two anthems in the regular service, and present a half hour program of sacred music following the worship period. This choir has won the highest award for church choirs at the Kiwanis Music Festival in Toronto in both 1954 and 1955, and delighted a congregation which filled Maple church to overflowing on the last anniversary occasion.

John Boyden, 19-year-old baritone, who has won distinction at Toronto and other festivals and who is being sent by the citizens of his native city of Stratford, in December, to continue his studies at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Britain, will be heard in special numbers.

Harvest Service United Churches

Harvest Thanksgiving services were held at Maple United Church charge on Sunday and large congregations were present to share in the observance of the annual festival.

Rev. A. G. Donald was in charge of the services and preached on the subject, "The Unfailing Harvest", basing his remarks on words found in the Prophecy of Jeremiah. "They do not say in their hearts, let us fear the Lord our God, who keeps for us the weeks appointed for the harvest."

Special music was rendered by the choirs at all appointments, and at Edgeley, two children were received into the church through the ordinance of baptism — William Randall Wilson and Barrie Alexander Wilson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wilson, Highway No. 7.

Special decorations of flowers and fruits from garden and field added to the beauty of the occasion.

Concord Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon and family spent Thanksgiving week-end at their cottage at Twelve Mile Lake, Haliburton.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Baker and family joined Mrs. Baker's family for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of their mother, Mrs. D. J. Reaman.

Miss Beverley Lean was relieved of her nursing duties in St. Joseph's Hospital for the Thanksgiving holiday which she spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lean.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery is wished Mrs. E. Witney who has been ill for the past couple of weeks.

Mrs. R. Smirhwaite spent Thanksgiving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, Toronto.

Mrs. E. Pink Hostess For Fisherville W.A.

Mrs. E. Pink was hostess for the October meeting of Fisherville W.A. at which Mrs. A. Holdgate presided.

Mrs. Holdgate was also in charge of the topic "The Bread of Life". Mrs. Quackenbush read the scripture, and Mrs. Kenny read a letter of appreciation from the Overseas Relief Committee.

Plans were made to sponsor a Wear-ever brush demonstration at the home of Mrs. Passer, Bathurst St.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Quackenbush, Dufferin St., on November 1.

Elia W.A. Meets

The monthly meeting of the Elia Women's Association was held on Tuesday evening, October 4, at the home of Mrs. Percy Snider, with the president, Mrs. Thos. Bush of St. Regis Park, in the chair. About 15 members were present. Schemes for raising money, such as talent money exploitation, a euchre party at Mrs. Carlson's, St. Regis Park on October 21, a dance later on in November, were discussed and approved. The meeting closed with lunch and lots of fun and fellowship. Rev. F. Hilliard arrived at 9 p.m. from the Community Chest Supper meeting in Weston. Mrs. Hilliard was prevented from being present by her CGIT activities the same evening.
