

King City, Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox

The Liberal is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. Donald McCallum, telephone King 132M, and in Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox, Mrs. J. Armstrong, telephone TU. 4-3312.

King City Notes

Twenty-eight children attended the Mission Band meeting on Friday afternoon in the United Church. President Douglas Parsons conducted the worship service. A chapter from the Study Book "The Boy with the Busy Walk" was read. For handwork the children colored a Canadian Indian.

Miss Marion Donald of Maple will open the forthcoming, King City United Church bazaar. The ladies of the W.A. have made handmade aprons, towels, little girls' dresses and Christmas corsages for the bazaar. There will also be a plentiful supply of homemade candy for sale.

Church service will be held in the United Church Sunday evening though there will be an anniversary service at Teston United Church at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Somerville of Halleybury spent last week-end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Allan Cook, Kingsville.

The King City Guide Association will meet at the home of Mrs. Hank Davie, R. R. 1 King, Monday evening. The executive and Commissioner Mrs. Ewart Patton hope for a large attendance as there are important matters to be discussed.

Miss Patricia Appleyard, who was a welcome visitor at the King City Guide Association party will be assisting Captain Mrs. Donald Laing and Lieutenant Mrs. Art Ross with guiding. Miss Appleyard has the Gold Cord, the highest honor in Girl Guides and numerous proficiency badges. She became first a Brownie and later flew up to Guides while living at Leaside. She is a fifth form student at Aurora High School.

Because of the small membership in the Firemen's W.A., ladies in the village have offered to assist with the turkey supper.

Assistant Scoutmaster Stan Roots delivered a copy of the 1956 Scout Annual to Scout Donald Gordon, last week-end. Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gordon, King St., has been invalidated at home for three weeks with an injured knee. In the annual there is a record of the World Scout Jamboree in Aug.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Arthur Wellesley and family of Keele St., whose granddaughter, Trudy Ann Wellesley, age six years passed away at the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, on October 31. Trudy Ann was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Earl Wellesley of Port Erie. Mr. and Mrs. Wellesley have two boys, Terry 7 and Arthur 2. Mr. Wellesley is a member of the Provincial Police.

Rev. M. R. Jenkinson conducted the funeral service on Thursday at the Thompson Funeral Home, Aurora. Interment was in King City cemetery.

In County Court at Newmarket last Monday, four young men were sentenced in connection with break-ins at King City Motors, Pottageville and Nobleton. Marcel LeClerc was given two years less one day in reformatory while Alvin Gunn and A. Meagher were each sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Vincent Lake was given suspended sentence.

Family Of 9 Burned Out

Fire broke out in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Nickels, Capell Ave., Lake Wilcox on Thursday, November 3, causing total destruction of the building. Mrs. Nickels led four of her seven children to safety. The other three were attending school at the time. Two representatives of the Oak Ridges Lions, Stan Rule and Ross Davies visited the Nickels family later and with the Red Cross, provided nearly $500 worth of bedding, clothes, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Nickels and family are staying with relatives until new quarters are found.

After rounding up help for the family, Stan Rule, past-president of the Oak Ridges Lions club, declared the house, like several others in the area, was a firetrap. "These places should all be condemned," he said. "They are only winterized with cardboard, and the owners are charging exorbitant rents."

125 Children At Hallowe'en Party
There were 125 children in costume at the community Hallowe'en party sponsored by the Lake Marie and King Athletic Association in co-operation with the trustee board and teachers of King City School at the Langdon bus depot October 31.

Four hundred bags of candies, apples and peanuts were served to the children along with hot dogs and milk by the association. A ventriloquist and his dummy delighted old and young alike. The dummy brought to the attention of the audience that it was George Harvey's birthday. Mr. Harvey, who is president of King City Lions and Cubmaster had been watching proceedings. Everyone joined in singing Happy Birthday to this popular King City resident.

Judging the children in their costumes were Mrs. H. G. Ratcliff, Mrs. I. L. Scott and Mrs. Ted Wallas. Some of the many prize winners were Lois McCoppen, David Drinkwater, Ron Crooks, Jimmy Dixon, Ed Millard, Douglas McKenzie, Marie Minton, Karen Bice, Ellen Richardson, Ann Pearce and Shane Belknap.

King And District Teachers Visit Buffalo Pub. Schools

School teachers from King City and District motored to Buffalo to spend a day observing teaching methods in public schools in that city, Nov. 4.

Teachers who attended from King City were Miss Eva Denis, school principal, Miss Doris Patton, Mrs. Hemphill, Miss Denis and Miss Patton motored with the Eversley teacher, Miss Helen Thompson, her mother, Mrs. Edgar Thompson and a friend. They remained in Buffalo until Saturday.

Also on the trip were Mrs. Whately Finch, New Scotland teacher, Miss Carol Muir, Strangetown teacher, and Mrs. Lorne Scott, Temperanceville teacher.

The teachers found teaching methods and text books similar to those in use in the Province of Ontario. However they thought there was a happier atmosphere in the classrooms in Ontario schools. The Union Jack was displayed in honor of the visiting teachers.

The King teachers found the Buffalo teachers busy with preparations for Education Week being held this week in Buffalo. They discovered that pupils in Grade 7 and 8 try standard examinations set by the city school board, at the end of the year. The schools are not furnished with grants as they are in Ontario, but all educational needs come out of the City of Buffalo taxes. The city has not enough money this year to pay the teachers' salaries, so officials are considering issuing a special edifice tax to cover the educational expenditures.

Dr. John Barrie was present at the meeting when the easement on the Barrie Farm was again discussed. The day following the meeting the trustees again visited the Barrie farm and a minor boundary change was made on the rough plan which would not affect the village water reserve.

Harry Noakes who looks after the water service for the village presented bills to be paid. He also consulted with the trustees on problems relating to water service in the village.

Local Lions Hear District Governor

District-Governor Caskey in discussing the progress made by King City Lions during the past year said he was well satisfied with the work being done by the Lions in the community. The District Governor spoke on "Lionism". He stressed in his talk the fact that the Lions club is a welfare club serving the community, adding Lions are not Lions for their own good, but for the good of all.

Twelve Oak Ridges Scouts represented the Troop at the Remembrance Day church parade at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday, November 6.

Birthdays Party
A surprise birthday party in honor of Capt. Mrs. Helen Clarke of the Oak Ridges Guides, was held in her honor by the Guides in her company in place of the regular meeting on Nov. 7. Refreshments including a birthday cake were provided by Guides and many gifts were presented. A program of singing followed. An interesting talk on camping was given by Guide Karen Davidson and Guide Karen Kirst spoke on her visit to the Richmond Hill Ranger Company. The evening closed with a camp fire.

Friends and neighbors are pleased that Mrs. Tim Woolley is now feeling much better and is up and around again after being on the sick list for the last four weeks.

J. D. Smith, South Rd., is spending a few days in Louisville, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Woolley Jr., spent a few days holiday in North Bay recently visiting friends and former Oak Ridges residents, Flight Sgt. and Mrs. Murray Kemp.

J. Day is spending a few days in the north, deer hunting. Bill Haappa has returned after a successful week of hunting.

Mrs. Betty Fitzsimmons, Wendy Hay spent a pleasant week-end visiting friends in Whitby, Ont.

King Nomination Planned Nov. 22

Following the token meeting on October 31 by King City village trustees in the Masonic Hall it was decided that the Nominations for King City trustees will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, between 8 and 9 p.m. at the Masonic Hall.

If more than three are nominated, elections will be on Monday, December 5, at King City Masonic Hall. In the event that there will not be a King township election, then the poll for the King City election will be open from noon to 8 p.m.

Dr. John Barrie was present at the meeting when the easement on the Barrie Farm was again discussed. The day following the meeting the trustees again visited the Barrie farm and a minor boundary change was made on the rough plan which would not affect the village water reserve.

Harry Noakes who looks after the water service for the village presented bills to be paid. He also consulted with the trustees on problems relating to water service in the village.

The Lamplighters Group of St. Paul's United Church (Lake Wilcox branch of the W.A.) met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Stanley Lloyd, Lake Wilcox.

Father and Son Banquet

The 1st Oak Ridges Scouts and Cubs held a very successful Father & Son Banquet at St. John's Anglican Church November 4 with 91 present. Rev. D.C.H. Michell said grace and T. Hill, chairman, proposed a toast to the Queen.

After dinner, Scoutmaster Jeff Cook presented Queen Scout trophies to Ross Gunn and Earl Newhall, and a trophy for the best scout of the year to Patrol Leader Jim McRithter.

Trophies were also presented to Cubs Donald Smith and Jerry Hopkins, by Cubmaster Len Hopkins. Chairman T. Hill was called on to present wallets to all Scout and Cub Masters for their fine efforts.

Guest speaker Doug Wright, District Commissioner for York Central Division was greatly enjoyed by those present. Entertainment included Jack Blyth with his bag of magic tricks and an interesting film of his vacation in Quebec.

Gas Stove Explodes

Mrs. Gordon Rowe, Elmgrove Ave., suffered severe and painful burns to the face and arms when the gas stove exploded in her home on Friday evening.

Mrs. A. Gibeault, a neighbor, assisted Mrs. Rowe in treating the burns until medical attention was secured.

Mrs. Rowe is reported to be progressing favourably.

Award School Tender

Officials of Whitechurch Council have received word from Trustees of Gormley public school that the tender of Forfar Bros., Stouffville for $35,801, has been accepted for an addition to the school. Final approval has yet to be sought from the Ontario Municipal Board.

Mrs. L. Marwood, Mrs. Les Glass, Miss Linda McMahon won the ladies' prizes at the Laskay W.T. euchre on Friday evening.

Mrs. L. Marwood won the ladies' travelling prize and Mr. Clyde Cairns won the men's. Winners of men's prizes were Jesse Richards, James Davidson and Ross Bryson. Convoys for the euchre were Mrs. Laurie Boys and Mrs. Charles Black.

Loses Control On Slippery Pavement

Malcolm Prier, 23, of Lansing, was involved in an accident on the King sideroad on November 7, when he struck a Liquid-Flame Oil Truck. The Prier car was travelling eastward behind the truck at the time of the crash. Prier attempted to pass the truck but had to pull in to the line again to avoid an oncoming westbound car. The road was wet and slippery and as the Prier car pulled back into line it went out of control and struck the rear of the truck.

Both drivers were uninjured and little damage was done to the truck. The car, however, suffered about $400. damage.

Nursery School Opens

Twelve children, ranging in age from four years to the one five-year-old, were enrolled at the Springhill Nursery School on Keele St., King City, on Nov. 7. Mrs. Geo. Harvey assisted with registering the children who spent the morning getting acquainted with their teacher, Mrs. Paul Knowles of Aurora.

Children make up nearly half the 906,000 Arab refugees under the care of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees. All of them can now get elementary education in the 304 schools run by the Agency or in those aided by it. Shown here at a spinning wheel is one of hundreds of refugee girls at one of several centers in the Gaza Strip area to give training in weaving, embroidery, tailoring and sewing. Products of centers are sold locally and to various Arab states.
