Cub News
 Reg. Webb and Phil Major received their first star at the last Richvale Cub meeting. There was also a special going-up ceremony for John Muirhead and Barry Edward Smith, who are now in Scouts.

There is still a desperate need for Cub leaders to assist the boys in their work.

The Scout and Cub Mothers' Auxiliary is planning a bake sale in connection with the Cub's Rummage sale in December. This is the boys' big effort to raise money for their Christmas hampers for needy families and they would appreciate any contributions of clean rummage, or if a pick-up is desired, please phone TU. 4-3234.

Guide and Brownie Mothers
 There will be a euchre at the home of Guide Commissioner Mrs. J. Kirk, Spruce Avenue on Nov. 10 at 8.30, and Nov. 17 is the monthly mothers' meeting, same time, same place, as many mothers and friends as possible are asked to attend.

School News
 The teachers in School Area No. 1 Markham and Vaughan, visited public schools in Buffalo last Friday. They studied teaching methods, exchanged ideas, made comparisons with other teachers and felt the day had been most beneficial as well as enjoyable.

Friday, Nov. 11, Remembrance Day, will be a school holiday for the children who will hold their own services at the schools on Thursday.

If You Catch A Cold

1. Be thoughtful — stay at home to protect others and yourself — cover coughs and sneezes. Start treatment at first sign of a cold.
2. Rest in bed.
3. Eat simple, wholesome food with plenty of liquids.
4. Destroy tissues or sterilize handkerchiefs contaminated with nose or throat discharges.
5. Do not return to work too soon.
6. Consult a physician immediately if fever, body-aches or weakness occurs, or if coughing of mucus from the chest occurs.

An added reason for never neglecting a cold — particularly in the case of a child — is that measles, whooping cough and scarlet fever, often start off as apparently simple colds.

CANADIAN PLOWMEN ABROAD
 by WILL C. BARRIE, Manager

CANADIAN PLOWING TEAM

W. C. Barrie

EDITOR'S NOTE:
 W. C. Barrie of Galt, Ont., a past president of the Ontario Plowmen's Association and manager of the Canadian plowing team at the third annual World Plowing Match in Sweden, has sent home on-the-spot reports of his trip with team members Joe Tran of Claremont, Ont., and Ivan McLaughlin of Stouffville, Ont. Here is the first of his reports.

LIVERPOOL — We never knew we had so many friends in eastern Canada until shortly before we set out on the first leg of our journey, from Toronto to Montreal.

Perhaps I should explain that by "we" I mean our party of five: Joe Tran, who won the 1954 Canadian plowing championship at Ballantrae, Ont.; Ivan McLaughlin, who also qualified for the trip by finishing second; Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Barrie, and myself, who was lucky enough to be appointed team manager.

The first indication was a most enjoyable luncheon given for us by Imperial Oil, which was sponsoring the team's trip to the World Plowing Match. The luncheon was held in Toronto, and we met many friends there, new and old.

Next, at Union Station, we met a party of York County Council members and their wives, who were just returning from a Canadian Good Roads Association convention at Banff. One of my plowmen, Ivan McLaughlin, who

Many Relatives
 But the most surprising encounters we had, came after we were on our way to Montreal. We thought it would be an uneventful trip, but Joe Tran seemed to have at least one relative — and usually several — waiting at every stop on the way. We kidded Joe a lot about having so many relatives all over the country, but the boxes of chocolates, cakes and other things they brought as gifts were most acceptable to the rest of us, as well as Joe.

At Belleville, Mrs. Barrie and I got a special surprise, for we were greeted by our daughter and son and six of our grandchildren.

We arrived in Montreal and were half way to the dock to catch the Empress of Scotland, when J. D. Thomas, who was making the trip as president of the World Plowing Organization, missed his cane and declared he had left it in the station. We had one of our taxis turn back, and after I had searched all over the railway station for the cane, Mr. Thomas found he had been sitting on it all the time.

Tour Ship
 Aboard ship, Ivan, Joe and I left the ladies to handle the unpacking in the cabins and we began a tour of the vessel.

Suddenly we saw a number of the crew members pointing excitedly to a man who was swimming in the water beside a boat anchored near by. We were told he had jumped out of a window more than 40 feet above the water. After swimming around for a while he climbed a rope ladder thrown him by some sailors on the boat. But no sooner was he on the boat than he

Home and School
 Headford Home and School Association held a Civic Night at its regular November meeting on Tuesday evening of last week. The Reeve of Markham Township, Alfred Le Masurier, with Ronald Forrest, Planning Board Director, and Mr. Rettie, Roads Engineer of York County, formed a panel, and discussed with those present many facts of township administration, and answered many questions. The prevalence of severe colds among the membership was responsible for a diminished audience, however, there were 21 present, with a good representation of men. The December meeting will be in the form of a pre-Christmas party for the school children, and an executive meeting to discuss plans for this, is to be held on Tuesday, November 15. The social committee wishes especially to thank all those who brought cups and saucers and tea bags to the "shower", with a special "thank you" to our former president, Mrs. Kal Vizey, who still retains a keen interest in our Association.

Church services were withdrawn in Headford on Sunday, in deference to the Anniversary services at Victoria Square, and Sunday School met at ten o'clock instead of the usual eleven o'clock. For those who were not there, it was announced that next Sunday will be Missionary Sunday, the last one of the current year, and we will have a film "Each with his own paint brush." The committee extends a cordial invitation to those members of the Church who can, to remain for this film. Mr. Wes Middleton was at the microphone to lead the singing at the Service of Remembrance held in Richmond Hill on Sunday, November 6.

Headford was pretty well represented at the Victoria Square Anniversary Services on Sunday. Among those noticed were the Freeman Barkers, the Brodies, Smiths, the Merrill Johnsons, Mrs. W. H. Wellman and Melvin Wellman and Mrs. H. Deverell. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schotes, with Paul and Gail-Ann were Sunday visitors with the Murray Acremans.
