

RICHMOND HILL ..

The Liberal is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1261 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

It is just a little over four weeks until Christmas. Personal greetings are very popular this year and some very beautiful cards are for sale at The Liberal Office. Don't delay—order today. Priced from $2.95 up for twenty-five.

Richmond Hill teen-agers were seen over a national TV hook-up Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Future appearances are scheduled for the same time the next two weeks, Tuesday, November 29 and December 6.

Miss Anne Stephenson of Richmond Hill has received excellent reviews on her performance in the production of The Messiah at Kingston last week. Critics have been high in their praise of Miss Stephenson's voice particularly the clarity in the upper registers.

On Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. the Hon. Justice J. L. MacLennan is to be the guest speaker at the Teen-age Bible Class at St. Mary's Anglican Church. The parents of the teen-agers are invited to attend this special monthly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lazar of Richmond Hill attended the Radio and TV Stars Banquet at the Royal York Hotel last Thursday evening. Mr. Lazar, who is currently heard on the radio programme "Songs of My People", took part in the programme following the dinner.

The Confirmation Series being presented by Rev. A. A. Chote on Sunday evenings will be brought to a close this Sunday with the showing of the film "For Every Child a Faith in God". The annual visit of the Bishop is to be Sunday evening, December 4, when the Confirmation Service will take place.

The Men's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church is meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8:15 p.m. The meeting will take the form of a talk on the layout of the Church and the meaning of its appointments, an open question box, film and the annual election of officers. A social hour will follow this meeting.

Turner - Rodger

— Lagerquist Studio
Mr. and Mrs. Alan Turner are pictured cutting the wedding cake at the reception following their marriage last month at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church. The bride is the former Catherine Rodger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rodger, Richmond Hill, and the groom is the son of Mrs. F. Turner of Toronto.

Polyniak - Iwanciov Nuptials Nov. 19 In R. H. United Church

An attractive Fall wedding was held in Richmond Hill United Church on Saturday, November 19, 1955, when Jennie Iwanciov, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Iwanciov of Richmond Hill became the bride of Mr. Stefan Walter Polyniak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Polyniak of Toronto. The service was conducted by Reverend C. G. Higginson, against a background of white chrysanthemums. Mr. H. G. Fowler was organist.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was gown in heavy white bridal satin. The skirt was covered with layers of net and French lace and ended in a short train. The fitted bodice had a bateau neckline and lily-point sleeves and was sewn with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her full-length veil was caught to a coronet of pearls and rhinestones. She carried white roses with a detachable corsage of purple orchids.

Scout & Cub News

The Scouts in the new Rover Crew are pleased about their new leader, Mr. Robert Butler of Bayview Ave, who has taken on the job of being the guiding hand in the crew's activities. Mr. Butler has had considerable experience in boys' work and athletics and he certainly has the personality and ability to make a success of his part of the effort. The Rover Crew has yet to arrange a regular meeting night, but in the meantime their arrangements for a meeting place are progressing. Mr. Grinnell of Yonge St. South has been good enough to donate chairs and other furniture for the crew's use.

Nature Notes

By Richmond Hill Naturalists
On November 17, the Richmond Hill Naturalists met in the Music Room of the Richmond Hill District High School to hear Joe Barfoot, who, as a member of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists and the Toronto Field Naturalists, is highly qualified to speak on natural history. He told of his original aversion to snakes and how his learning more of their habits and habits became sufficiently interested in them to make a study of reptiles. Some excellent Kodachromes of snakes commonly found in Southern Ontario were shown. Mr. Barfoot's other interests are varied and one of them is ceramics. Both he and Mrs. Barfoot have studied this craft and brought

Initiation Ceremonies

At the last regular meeting of Richmond Hill Kinsmen Club, two new members were initiated. Joining the club were Jim Shephard and Satyen Basu. In charge of the initiation was Kin Eric McQuaig, past national co-ordinator, and a member of North York Kinsmen Club.
