The first six months will tell...

It's a pretty picture! But for you, there must be profit in it, too. So start building those calf profits right away. Feed CALF-PAB and Blatchford's CALF PELLETS from 3 to 30 days. From four weeks to six months old, feed CALFADINE (Calf Grower), just as it comes from the bag... with good hay, of course, and water too. It's as simple as that!

Blatchford's CALFADINE (Calf Grower)
... assures maximum calf growth and development. Remember, those first six months can increase or lessen a calf's natural productive capacity. For top production and profits feed Blatchford's Calf Grower. It's a complete feed containing molasses. If you have your own grain, feed CALF PELLETS.

RICHVALE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. R. F. PAUL
TU. 4-2800

The regular business and reports of executive meetings were the first items of the meeting held Monday night at Richvale school.

It has been decided to hold a eucharie in place of a December meeting to raise funds for the library books the Home and School hope to get the children.

Mrs. Thomas asked for help from the mothers in providing more place mats to be used during the lunch hour. Sometimes there are as many as 90 children having lunch in the basement and the desks are becoming marred. Burlap, linen or cotton are most useful as they are absorbent.

A motion was made by Mrs. R. Paul, seconded by Jack Kirk that Home and School sponsor the effort to obtain a Television set for the school.

The monthly attendance prize was won by Mrs. Thomas' room. Mr. J. McCarthy, liaison officer of Home and School and the school board reported on the last meeting of the groups. Religious education will be starting in the schools soon with local ministers taking turns in visiting each school.

The TSA Board as yet has not offered any help or support regarding rink and hockey cushions for the school. The president recalled that the same situation existed last year and suggested that Home and School members might assist in this matter.

The School Board still feels a noon hour bus is unnecessary for children to return home for hot lunches. Mr. McCarthy was asked by Mr. Craigie and Mr. Taylor to approach the board regarding over-crowding of the buses to and from school. Mr. Craigie mentioned that at times it has been noted there were as many as 85 children on the bus.

An interesting feature of the evening was a most comprehensive explanation of the new school reports by Mr. K. Kinzinger.

Miss A. Harris introduced the speaker for the evening, Mrs. Gentles, Chairman of the Reading Committee for the Home and School.

Mrs. Gentles made the request that teachers and librarians should be the ones to choose books for the children at school and in their libraries. It had been suggested by the Chairman of the school board that a drive for books take place, but it is thought many unsuitable books would be acquired.

The speaker remarked how much of a privilege it is for children to be allowed to read, as they learn self-reliance and gain great insight. Also the pleasure of reading to and with the children gives great family happiness and draws them closer together. Books give such great knowledge of other countries, people, animals and flowers, they can help orientate people who have changed their countries.

Mrs. Gentles remarked that comic books are only put out by the manufacturers to make money, not improve ideals in reading.

SMITH—VAUTIER

On Friday, November 18, at 7 p.m. Lorraine Joyce Vautier, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest John Vautier, Thornhill, became the bride of Murray Keith Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Keith Smith, in Asbury and West Union Church, Toronto.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a delustrated satin gown, designed with a v-neckline, lace sleeves and empire waist. The skirt, which fell to a long train was embroidered with lace and seed pearls. Her fingertip veil, was adorned with a pearl and rhinestone tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and mums.

Her attendants were Jennette Vautier, a sister, as maid of honour in celeste blue; Greta Stahl, bridesmaid in rose; and Elizabeth Vautier, another sister, as Junior bridesmaid, in light blue. Their dresses were similar in style with matching jackets and headresses. They carried crescents of roses and mums.

Earl Thompson was groomsmen, with Ken Hall and Glenn Kennedy as ushers.

At the Four Winds the bride's mother received wearing a paquin pink gown with a corsage of cream roses. The groom's mother assisted in light pink with a corsage of pink roses and mums.

Following their honeymoon in Florida, the couple will live in Lansing.

A shower was held in honour of Miss Nora Berta of Henderson Avenue on November 18 at the home of Mrs. Helen Orvis on Morgan Avenue. Miss Joan Smith and Mrs. June Burt were hostesses. Miss Berta is to be married later this month.

Mr. Richard Barbour spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Orillia.

Mrs. J. Steele of Morgan Ave., is visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Elliot of Markham.

ing, and added that if children are started with good books they "won't want junk."

Mr. R. Masters thanked Mrs. Gentles for her interesting talk and the list of approved books she had brought with her.

Mrs. R. Wood won the draw prize donated by the staff to obtain funds for library books.

Flying-Up Ceremony

On Wednesday, November 16, 5 Golden Hand Brownies flew up to Guides. They came through a tunnel of singing Brownies wearing silver wings, to meet Brown Owl, who sped them on their way to Guideland. They were met by their new Patrol Leaders and introduced to the Guide Companies.

Marilyn Huston flew to the first Richvale Guide Co. and Margo Martin, Avril Lunau, Mary Parker and Harriet Morningstar moved to 2nd Richvale Company.

Mrs. H. Gottschalk, Captain of the 2nd Richvale Guide Co., making her first appearance since her recent illness, enrolled the girls into her Company and Mrs. M. Lawson, Captain of the 1st Richvale Guide Co., put on the ties for the new Guides.

Capt. Lawson also presented Gail Lewis with her Cook, Child Nurse and Needle - woman's Badges.

The local association for Guides and Brownies held their November meeting at the home of the Commissioner, Mrs. J. Kirk, last Thursday. It has been decided that there will not be a December meeting, and the annual visit of the children to the Home for the Aged was discussed. Mrs. Kirk reported her recent eucharie was a great success and hopes to hold another one after Christmas.

The main event of the evening was a demonstration of making Christmas decorations. Mrs. F. Martindale showed the ladies how to make many beautiful table and door displays which will come in so handy during the coming season.

Personals

Mr. Leo Butler Sr. has undergone a recent knee operation and is still in Sunnyside Hospital with his leg in a cast. He is making excellent progress.

Richvale Cubs and Scouts

The Group Committee and Cub and Scout leaders wish all boys and parents to know that Cub and Scout meetings will be held on Wednesday nights, from now on. Cubs will still meet at 6:30 and Scouts at 8:30.

A group of eight Scouts, accompanied by Acting Scoutmaster Glen Turnbull, Jack Christie and Cec Smith of the Group Committee spent the weekend at Glen Cross Camp. This is the official York Central Scout camp at Orangeville. Despite the weather, the boys had a very good time.

Langstaff Cubs

Akela Mrs. Perry invested Rickey Ward, Johnnie Brash and Bob Bouden in the Kego Pack at their last meeting. She also presented stars to the following boys—1st year service stars to Alan Every and Herb Girard, 2nd year to R. J. Brash, Alan Webster, David Le Roux, Doug Davies and John Perry. 3rd year to Joe Kramer and Paul Reynolds and Bob Spears.

Charles Howitt H. & S.

Monday, November 28 will be the next meeting of the Charles Howitt Home and School. Dave Smith, co-ordinating Principal for the area will speak on the Level System, and Bob Everist, Principal of Charles Howitt school will discuss senior report cards. A junior grade teacher will also explain the junior report cards.

This is a most fitting topic, as the first report cards are expected to be issued on Friday, December 2, and Parents' night will be on Thursday, December 8.

The staff of the school hope as many parents and guardians as possible will attend both these events, as it would be very beneficial to teachers, parents and pupils if reports and progress could be discussed personally.

Richvale School

The pupils of Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 are designing new crests for the school which will soon be displayed to the parents.
