Anniversary Services

Next Sunday, May 6, Brown's Corners Church will celebrate the anniversary of the church and services will be withdrawn at Headford and Victoria Square in recognition.
At 11:00 a.m. Rev. H. B. Henderson M.A. Ph.D., of Forest Hill Church will be the guest speaker; at 7:30 p.m. Mr. George Morrison, a former business executive who will be ordained into the ministry of the United Church of Canada in June of this year will speak. Mr. Morrison gave up a highly paid position to enter the preaching profession and last year he won five scholarships. It is likely that he will be the one man chosen by Emmanuel College to receive an overseas scholarship this year.

Vacation School Meeting

On Monday evening of next week Vacation School workers will meet at Victoria Square Church to lay plans for this year's school. All those interested are urged to attend. No one can plead short notice - the date for this meeting was set last July.

Rural Rally

W. M. S. members will be interested to know that this year the Rural Rally will be held at Queensville United Church. May the 9th is the date, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bring a box lunch.
Miss Mary Gough and Mrs. George Hooper sang a duet at the special service held last Sunday evening at Headford Church under the auspices of the Women's Association. Mrs. S. J. English was the accompanist.

Mrs. B. C. Sisler was guest speaker and Mrs. A. W. Miller was soloist on Wednesday evening of last week when Melville W.A. held its monthly meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stots and Gordon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stots last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Walton and their small son spent Sunday with Murray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Walton.

$10.00 Dinner Successful

Buttonsville W. I. executive is grateful for the support they received in their $10.00 dinner project which was held in Buttonsville Hall on Wednesday evening of last week. A turkey dinner was served to approximately 175 guests and several dinners were delivered to people who were unable to attend. An amount of approximately $2000.00 has been raised and this will be applied to the Buttonsville W.I. Hall Building Fund.

W. I. Euchre

There were 15 tables of players at Buttonsville Hall last Friday evening when the Women's Institute held the last Euchre party of the season. Prize winners were Mrs. Grant, Miss E. French, Mrs. H. Dukes, Lloyd Stonehouse, Jim McLaren and Milton Sherman. Mrs. H. Dukes and Mr. M. Sherman won the prize for lone hands and Alex Young won the lucky draw, a chicken. Following play refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and Mrs. Garnet Francy.

Euchre for Cancer Society

Mrs. Alice Gardner is sponsoring a euchre party, proceeds of which will be donated to the Cancer Society. The date is May 9 and the place is the hall at Leitchcroft Farms at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Birthday congratulations to Mrs. Wm. Rodick and Mr. Alice Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner entertained friends to honor the occasion.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Charles Hoover whose mother died at Gormley recently.
A bridge and euchre sponsored by Mrs. A. Gardner for the cancer society will be held at Leitchcroft Farms hall on Wednesday, May 9.

Approximately 40 members of this community attended a performance of Spring Thaw recently. The Friendship Group sponsored the party and Mr. Norman Reid supplied transportation.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Easton are happy to have Joe Jr. home on holiday. Joe is stationed with the RCMP in the Maritimes.

W.I. News

Mrs. Joe Robinson entertained W.I. members at her home for the annual meeting. Mrs. George Oakes was co-hostess. Officers were as follows: President, Mrs. A. The district annual will be held at Stouffville on May 23. The Strawberry Festival will be held July 4 at Buttonsville Hall. Mrs. Charles Hooper conducted the meeting, and following the business, Roy and Billie Robinson entertained the guests with piano solos and a duet. Refreshments were served. The last euchre party of the season will be held in Buttonsville Hall on Friday of this week April 27.

Bridge & Euchre

Recently Buttonsville W. I. members entertained at a bridge and euchre to aid the Buttonsville Hall Building Fund. There were 14 tables of euchre and two tables of bridge. Bridge winners were Mrs. Blanchard and Mrs. Russell-Brown. Euchre prizes were won by Mrs. Denby, Mrs. Calvert, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Rainey, Mrs. A. Brown and Mrs. Sinclair. Mrs. R. Person won the lucky draw prize. A friendly tea hour followed play.

Guests attending the St. Thomas, Ontario, wedding of Mr. Morley Bill Wallen of Buttonsville and Miss Elizabeth Jack of St. Thomas, were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Silver, Mrs. George Kelly Sr., Mr. George McLaren, Miss Doris Bone, Mrs. W. B. Wallen of Ottawa as well as the immediate members of the Wallen family. Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly Jr. of Newmarket were wedding party attendants.

Wedding

WALLEN - JACK

A lovely spring ceremony took place April 21, 2:36 in Alma St. Presbyterian Church. St. Thomas, when Elizabeth May Jack became the bride of Morley Leonard Wallen. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jack, St. Thomas, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wallen of Buttonsville. Rev. J. K. West officiated and Mrs. J. Pollock played the wedding music. Mrs. Robert Lacy sang "Through the Years" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace over duchess satin, featuring a scalloped neckline, long lily-point sleeves and a full gathered skirt falling into a chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil of French illusion held in place with a queen's crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. Her only jewellery was a single strand of cultured pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a cascade of white hyacinths with ivy trails tied with satin ribbon and a spray of heather sent to the bride by her aunt in Scotland. Mrs. William Lang, St. Thomas, sister of the bride, was matron of honour, wearing a floor-length gown of shirred antique crystallette fashioned with scalloped neckline, short sleeves and full gathered skirt. She wore a matching hat and gloves, and carried a cascade of white shasta daisy chrysanthemums with ivy trails and narrow ribbon. Bridesmaid was Mrs. George Kelly Jr. of Newmarket, Ont. Both Mrs. Kelly and the flower girl, Miss Margaret May Fleming, niece of the bride, wore costumes similar to the matron of honour, and carried white daisy chrysanthemums and ivy trails.

Dr. George Kelly, of Newmarket, Ont., was groomsmen, while ushers were George Wallen, brother of the groom, and Arnold Fleming; brother-in-law of the bride.
Mrs. Jack received her guests wearing a gown of brown tan and turquoise flowered silk with natural accessories and a corsage of pink Delight roses. Mrs. Wallen, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue triple sheer gown with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of pink Delight roses. A reception for approximately 75 guests was held in the church parlours. For a wedding trip to Washington, D.C. and the southern United States, the bride chose a tan flowered silk dress with neutral butcher linen duster, neutral accessories and a mauve orchid corsage. On their return the couple will live in Willowdale, Ont.

Out-of-town guests attended from Ottawa, Newmarket, Windsor, Sarnia, Bothwell, Bradford, Rodney, London and Markham. The bride who was much entertained prior to her marriage is a graduate of the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. The groom is a member of the North York police force.

Name - the - Camp Contest
Carolyn Cowley, 32 Henderson Ave., submitted the winning name in the Name-the-Camp Contest which was held in Henderson Ave. School and Powell Rd. School. Carolyn's entry 'Camp Tom Tom' has been chosen as the name of the summer camp. Carolyn Cowley, seven years old, is a grade two student in Miss Cowden's room at Henderson Ave. School. Carolyn's prize will be two weeks free camping.

A Crest Contest is now being held in the schools. The children are being asked to submit drawings which could be used for a camp crest. The child whose drawing is chosen for the crest will receive two-weeks free camping.

Camp Site
A camp site has been chosen south-east of Henderson Ave. in a wooded area near the School. Permission has been received from the School Board to use Henderson Ave. School as headquarters for the camp, and to use the school auditorium in the event of a rainy day.

Highland Park Association

The Highland Park Association held an executive meeting at the home of Mr. Harry Barrow, 18 Highland Park Blvd. on April 26th. Plans were made for the annual fireworks display which will be held this year on May 21st. The usual house-to-house canvass will be made. It is hoped each house will contribute $1 towards this fireworks display. Funds permitting, popples, sparklers and favors will be distributed to the children.

Card Party

The Cub mothers held a card party at Henderson Ave. School on April 24th. Sixty people attended the party, and the proceeds totalled $39. Bridge, Euchre and Court Whist were played. The game prizes were won by Mrs. A. Carter, Mrs. A. Stevens, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Dockman, Mr. Bob Waterson, Mr. Russel, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Metcalfe. Party refreshments were served.

Margaret Brodie, Joyce McDonald and Jimmy Curtis, were among the 50 students of Grade XII of Thornhill High School, who journeyed to Ottawa under the direction of Mr. Lavender of the staff on Thursday last for a conducted tour of points of interest in the Capital City. While here, they visited such places as the Mint, the Houses of Parliament, an art exhibition, and staying at the Chateau Laurier. It was a tired but very happy crowd that reached home late on Saturday evening.
