In Memoriams

BOWEN — In loving memory of Thomas Bowen, who passed away, May 12, 1942. Dad's life is a beautiful memory.

His death a silent grief, He sleeps in God's beautiful garden.

In sunshine of perfect peace I miss him so very much, But realize God knew best, He gave us Dad for many years, Then gently bade him rest. To me he has not passed away, Nor has he travelled far, He has entered God's most lovely room.

And left the door ajar, It's only good night, Dad, dear, That's what we used to say, I will see you again in the morning.

At the dawn of a beautiful day, — Sadly missed by daughters and sons. clw47

FULLER — In memory of our uncle, the late George Fuller, who passed away May 16, 1955. Our family circle has been broken. A link gone from our chain, But though we're parted for a while, We know we'll meet again. — Sadly missed by his niece Edna and nephew, George. clw47

GATER — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Herb Gater, who passed away on May 21, 1954. — Ever remembered by Herb, Helen, Robert and Richard. clw47

LUNAU — In loving memory of our dear parents, Jacob Lunau (1865-1943), and Harriett Lunau (1865-1955). Their memories are as dear today as in the hours they passed away. — Sadly missed by daughters Alice and Greta. clw47

PEELAR — In loving memory of our dear mother, Emma Alice Peelar, who died May 24, 1955. One year has passed since the day, The one we loved was called away. God took her home, it was His will, But in our hearts, she liveth still. — Bert and Eva. clw47

Over 160 Ladies Attend Presbyterian Spring Luncheon

Dafodils, forsythia, and tulips created a springlike scene inside the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church hall on Thursday of last week when the ladies of the Women's Association of the church entertained at their annual Spring Luncheon. Over 160 ladies attended the gala affair.

Mrs. Dorothy Lash Colquhoun, who was attractively attired in a grey suit and one of the new organdie tambourine hats, was speaker of the afternoon and spoke in a charming fashion on homemaking. She told of her recent trip to Europe, commenting at length on the hard work the homemakers abroad have with their limited equipment in comparison to the Canadian women with their modern appliances.

"Though," Mrs. Colquhoun pointed out, "Our own homemakers know in spite of our equipment we still have many irksome tasks to perform if our families are to live comfortably and well."

This is a devastating season for there is so much for us to do and to think about doing. Cleaning and re-decorating our homes and apartments and working in our gardens. We are interested in the trends so that we can utilize all the new decorating ideas. I can say colours and fabrics are lovelier than ever; lighter arrangements are being used at the windows, and colours are bright and clear," Mrs. Colquhoun stated.

Mrs. J. Kingsborough of Maple, accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Andrews sang two solos. Both she and Mrs. Colquhoun were presented with roses by Mrs. J. A. Latimer.

Mrs. Garfield Yerex, president of the W.A., presided. She told the ladies the proceeds from the luncheon would be used for work in the Sunday School room which is being partitioned off by folding doors to provide extra classrooms for the influx of new students.

Seated at the head table were Mrs. H. H. MacKay, Mrs. C. G. Higginson, Mrs. J. A. Latimer, Mrs. J. A. Hepburn, Mrs. Thos. Moore, Mrs. A. A. Chote, Mrs. H. Yerex, and Mrs. S. C. Smith.

Garden Gertie Says

by Robert D. Little
There is possibly no perennial growing that has as wide a color range as the Iris. In fact there is an Iris called "Rainbow Room" which actually has almost all the colors of the rainbow. Hybridizers have done some wonderful things in producing newer Iris - with their splendid form, fringed falls, strong stalks, etc. - that are a far cry from the old flags that grew in every dooryard a few years ago.

New gardeners, who plan to plant Iris this year, would probably like to have some information on the handling of this very fine perennial. We suggest the following:

Where to plant: The ideal location for Iris is a sunny, well-drained location. Sunshine at a minimum half days. Iris will not do well in deep shade. The beds should be raised slightly above the level of the garden paths, so that no water will stand on them.

Depth to plant: Place your rhizomes just below the surface of the ground, with the roots well spread out underneath, so the rhizome is in reach of the sun's rays, while the roots beneath are in moist (not soggy) soil. Be sure to firm the soil tightly around each rhizome when planting. Follow ordinary good garden practice of watering well after they have flowered, although Iris will grow if planted almost anytime during the growing season.

Distance apart: Generally Iris are planted from eight inches to two feet apart. Closer plants are for immediate effect and will need thinning sooner. Plant three of a kind to give an immediate clump effect, in a triangle with the toes of the rhizomes pointing inward.

In choosing an initial planting, it is wise to order varieties that will give good increase, have flowers of good quality, and will be reliable for annual and profuse blooming. Some of the newer (and higher priced) varieties are not too reliable as to increase and blooming habits.

Iris roots are priced from fifty cents to twenty dollars a root. We have found the following low and medium priced varieties to have desirable qualities:

White: Matterhorn, Sharkskin, Jake, Gudrun, New Snow; Blue: (light) Great Lakes, Azure Skies, Distance, Cloud Castle, Jane Phillips; Blue: (medium and dark) Missouri, Blue Rhythm, Chivalry, The Admiral, Vatican purple; Yellow: Cloth of Gold, Goldbeater, Ola Kala, Golden Hind, Zantha, Golden Sunshine.

Red: The Red Douglas, Ranger, Red Gleam, Display; Pink: (framing with tangerine beads) Pink Gem, Cherie, (and higher priced but very beautiful) Paradise Pink, Pink Sensation, Happy Birthday, Party Dress, Pink Formal; Orchid and Rose: Chantilly, Inspiration, Mulberry Rose, Mary Randall; Plicata: (various colors) Blue Shimmer, Tiffany, Minnie Colquist; Copper & Tan: (some blends) Bryce Canyon, Arab Chief, Russett Wings, Stardom, Cascade Splendor; Purple & Violet: Sable, Master Charles, Indiana Night, Cameroun, Elmohr, Grand Canyon.

Have you any garden problems? Send your inquiries to Garden Gertie, Box 709, Richmond Hill, and they will receive prompt informative answers.

Lion Doings

At their meeting on Thursday, May 17th, the Lions had as their speaker Duncan (Bob) Smith, chairman of the Richmond Hill Industrial Commission.
