Sod Turning Ceremony

Mr. Morley Kinnee who has faithfully served the young people of Maple United Church for the past 25 years as Superintendent of the Sunday School is shown as he turns the first sod for the new Church Hall. This new addition which is to be erected at the rear of the present church building will meet growing attendance in the Sunday School and the need for more adequate facilities for mid-week religious education activities. Assisting Mr. Kinnee on this historic occasion were church and lay officials (left to right) Rev. T. R. Robinson of St. Stephens Anglican Church, Maple, Rev. M. R.

Jenkinson of King City who represented the Presbytery of Toronto Centre, Rev. C. H. Bowman of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple, Mr. Kinnee, Mr. John Neufeld Chairman of the Building Committee, Rev. A. G. Donald, Dr. Archer Wallace, and Mr. William Oliver, senior member of the Church Session.

The Consecration service followed a stirring sermon before a large congregation in which Mr. Donald made a strong plea for a greater interest in the worthwhile program of religious education among the youth of the congregation and the community.

Maple Notes

Mrs. Meal Wilson, a sister, 40 nieces and nephews and a few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson on Thursday evening to celebrate his 80th birthday and spent a very enjoyable evening.

On the week-end Mr. and Mrs. McCallum of New Westminster, B.C. also visited.

Edgeley Socials

Among those who are celebrating their birthday this week are Alf Bagg, July 30, John Stuart, August 1; and Mr. Edgar Putterbaugh, who will reach his 88th year on August 3.

Terry Dament, second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dament entered the Hospital for Sick Children last week and underwent surgery on Thursday for the correction of a cleft palate. He is now recovering satisfactorily and it is expected that he will be able to return to his home in about two weeks time.

The roof on the Dalziel Pioneer Barn was renewed last week. On Saturday the north side was replaced and work was nearing completion on the south side.

When the barn was built in 1905, the shingles used were two feet or more long split from blocks and shaved with a drawing knife.

It was re-shingled again in Mr. Dalziel's father time, and Mr. Dalziel, in his time, has renewed part of the roof. Several years ago the roof was surfaced with tin and given a coat of red paint.

Last week, workmen for the Humber Valley Conservation Authority removed all the old roofing, replacing it with plywood, building paper and British Columbia Fir shingles.

Mrs. Charles Agnew and Mrs. W. Maginn spent a holiday at Guelph recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ash and their uncle, Mr. Jack Bonner are planning to return home from the west this coming week-end. Mrs. Ash will have been away eight weeks and Charlie, five weeks, and during that time have seen a great deal of Western Canada. Mr. Bonner has expressed his wish to stay in Canada a while longer in order to view the beautiful spectacle of the changing color of the leaves in the Fall before he returns to England.

Miss Linda Dament spent the past week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Drewry and her cousin Debbie in Mount Albert. This week Linda is spending a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon of Barrie.

We are informed that Elmer Stong, of Bradford, a former Edgeley resident, is going out of the milk producing business. He is holding a cattle sale at his farm on August 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Syd Broadbent and family and Mr. Harrison Broadbent of Mt. Albert attended the Lachowski sale on Saturday and afterwards visited Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel and Mr. and Mrs. Agnew and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Whitmore were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bagg and Mr. and Mrs. George Bagg in Tavistock.

Allan Bagg has recently purchased a farm near Alliston and will be able to take possession of it this Fall.

Her many Edgeley friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Clarence Stong of Weston has been ill for

Prominent Resident, Thomas Keffer, Funeral on Friday

One of Vaughan Township's most prominent residents, Mr. Thomas A. Keffer of Concord, passed away suddenly on Tuesday morning, July 31, at St. Michael's Hospital. Mr. Keffer was in his 86th year. The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, August 3, from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home in Richmond Hill.

Mr. Keffer was born in Maple, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keffer. He attended Maple Public School, where one of his classmates was Lord Beaverbrook, and later Richmond Hill High School. Playing the violin was one of his great pleasures, and he also played a cornet with the Vellore Band in his younger days.

Mr. Keffer farmed until 25 years ago, then developed one of his farms into the Keffer subdivision at Keele St. and No. 7 Highway.

He was an ardent Church worker and a lifetime member of Maple United Church. Always keenly interested in local and national affairs, he and Mr. F. Morrison organized the Edgeley Farmers Club. He was the first chairman of the Vaughan Township Planning Board, and pioneered the extension of hydro and telephone in the district.

Predeceased by his wife, Amelia Shunk, 11 years ago, he is survived by his twin sons, Roy and Ellsworth; daughter, Mrs. W. H. (Mary) Hoiles; and sons Joseph and Stanley; his twin sister, Mrs. W. P. Campbell; 16 grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

The funeral service will be conducted by the Rev. A. G. Donald of Maple United Church and the pallbearers will be his six grandsons, Donald Keffer, Bruce Hoiles, Kenneth Hoiles, Douglas Keffer, Ronald Keffer and Carl Keffer. Interment will be at the Maple United Church Cemetery.

Union Summer Service In Maple United Church Charge

A Union Summer Service for the Maple Charge of The United Church of Canada has been arranged for each Sunday of the month of August. On Sunday, August 5, Rev. C. H. Dickinson, D.D., Book Steward of The United Church will be the guest preacher. Dr. Dickinson before taking over his present duties occupied some of the most important pulpits in Canada and is a preacher of great power. On Sundays, August 12 and 19, Rev. E. S. Leaker, B.D., of the Periodicals Department of the Presbyterian Press will occupy the pulpit. Mr. Leaker was called to his present position after an extended ministry in Saskatchewan and this will be his first visit to Maple. On Sunday, August 26, Rev. M. R. Jenkinson of King City will be the guest of the Maple Congregation, where he has a host of friends.

Rev. A. G. Donald will resume regular services on the charge on Sunday, September 2. During the month of August Sunday School will continue its regular sessions in the Maple Church at 10.15 a.m.

Mr. Musselman, Former Maple Resident, Passes Suddenly

Mr. Ivan Beatty Musselman, station agent at Maple for 32 years, passed away on Friday, July 27, in the Orillia Hospital. He suffered a stroke while on a vacation. For the past five years, Mr. Musselman has lived in Willowdale.

While in Maple he always took an active part in village affairs. He was an elder in the Maple United Church, a member of the Board of Stewards, and secretary of Maple United Church Cemetery Board. A Mason, he was a member of the Vaughan Lodge at Maple and was a Grand Lodge officer.

He is survived by his son, Oscar Musselman of Willowdale, his niece, Mrs. J. Watson of Maple, and two brothers, Alvin of British Columbia, and Oscar of Hamilton.

The funeral took place on Monday, July 30, from the Maple United Church. Rev. A. G. Donald and Dr. Archer Wallace officiated. Interment was in the Maple United Church Cemetery.

Bowes - Archer Nuptials At Central United Church, Weston

In a setting of colorful summer flowers at Central United Church, Weston, Arlene Joan Archer, daughter of Mrs. Robert Archer of Weston, became the bride of Edgar Ernest Bowes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lapping of Concord, Ont. Rev. R. J. Bogg officiated and the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Donald McCreary, gave her in marriage.

The bride chose a cocktail length gown of white embroidered nylon over taffeta fashioned with a full, double tier skirt, tight fitting bodice, a square neckline and cap sleeves. She wore a shoulder-length tulle veil held by a small cap studded with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Donald McCreary was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a cocktail length pale blue silk frock with draped bodice and full skirt and carried a cascade of pink roses.

Ronald Clapham of Concord was best man and ushers were William Wilson and Gordon MacMillan.

At the reception in Central United Church, the bride's mother received wearing a pale pink silk dress with gold tracings, and white accessories. The groom's mother assisted wearing a pale blue silk sheath dress and white accessories. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. A. Archer, and the groom's grandfather, Mr. Murray assisted in greeting the guests.

After the reception the bride and groom left on a wedding trip through the southern United States, the bride travelling in a navy blue linen suit with white accessories. On their return they will reside on William St., Weston.

PINE GROVE: Answering a petition from the residents of Pine Grove Community, the Vaughan Township Council has deemed it not expedient to expend public money to assist in erecting a footbridge as the land approach is on private property, and because of the uncertainty of the acquisition of further property by the Province of Ontario in Pine Grove along the Humber River, where the residents want the footbridge located.

Concord Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Man-wearing of East Toronto visited Mrs. E. Witney and son John on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witney and family, Master Andrew Bay of Toronto and Mr. Bolen Henderson visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stenson of Flesherton on Sunday on the occasion of the arrival of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Henderson and family from Rocky Mountain House.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hallawell have returned home from overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clapp celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary August 3.

Mrs. Allan Poole celebrated her birthday last Sunday.

Mr. Gordon Poole left on Monday for California with Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Toronto.

EDGELEY SOCIALS Continued several weeks with a condition resembling rheumatic fever. Mrs. Stong has been bed-ridden for the past three weeks and has been advised by her doctor to remain in bed several weeks longer.

It was pleasant to see the friendly reunion at the Lachowski sale on Saturday as several families who had moved away returned to the community for the day. Renewing acquaintances were Elmer Stong of Bradford, Bill Glass of Malton, Ernie Stong of Langstaff, Harry Broadbent and Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Broadbent of Mount Albert and Don Storey of Toronto. Mr. Storey, we were interested to hear, has been in the employ of the T. Eaton Co. as an interior decorator for the past 12 years.

Frank and Eddie Young and John Stuart are holidaying this week in Northern Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barton, of Carville, celebrated their first wedding anniversary July 30. Mrs. Barton is the former Jean Ash of Edgeley.

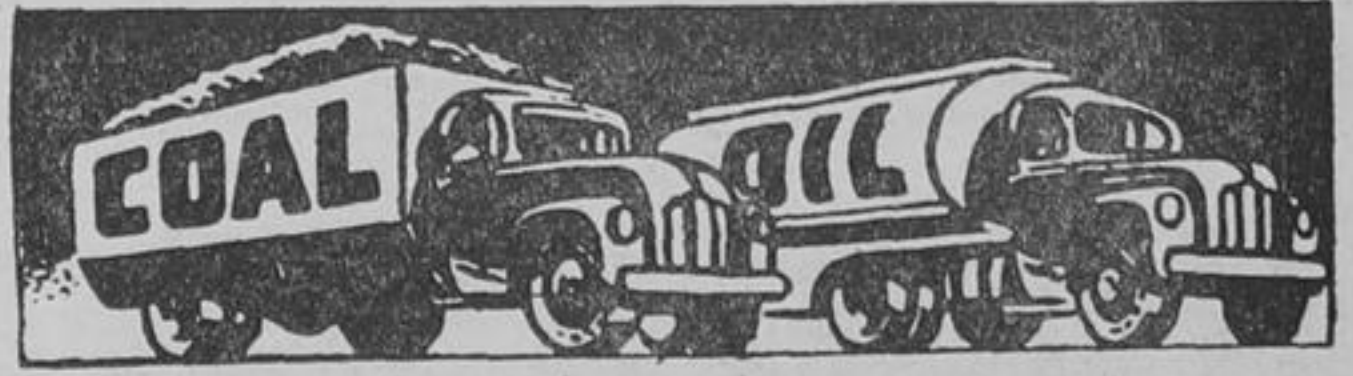

Crowd Small but Bidding Brisk At Lachowski Auction

Prices ranging from $142 to $199 for several head of registered Holstein Cattle was the highlight of the dispersal sale on the farm of Mrs. Sophie Lachowski at Edgeley last Saturday afternoon. The crowd was small but bidding was brisk. A W-C tractor brought $1500. It was purchased by Eldon Fierheller, Edgeley. Other implements and a few household effects brought a fair price.

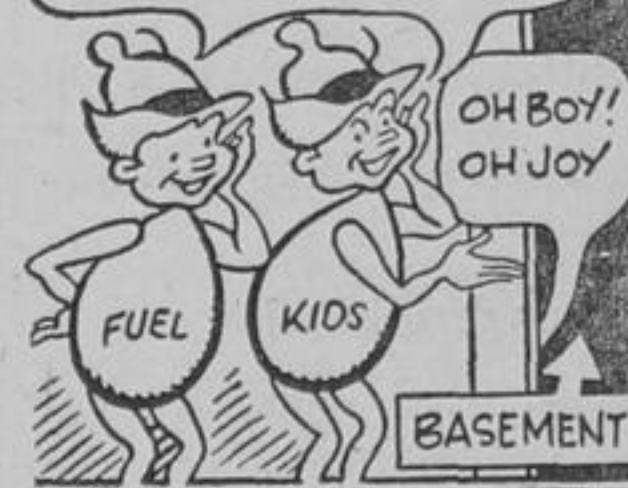

The farm was sold recently for a cemetery site. The Lachowski's plan to remain on the farm until December, and by then hope to have another location in Edgeley to which they can move.
