DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TWP. OF NORTH YORK

Your Optimum Weight

See your doctor before attempting to reduce. Virtually all cases of overweight are due to overeating. Some cases, however, may be complicated by other conditions.

After a thorough examination, the doctor can determine whether or not you have complications that require special medical attention. He can also decide how much weight you should lose, and advise approved methods by which you can lose it safely. Follow your doctor's advice about diet. Authorities say that weight loss usually should not exceed 6 to 8 pounds a month. A diet that causes more rapid loss, may fail to provide food elements the body needs.

HEADFORD NEWS

Mrs. H. Acreman Correspondent: R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont. Phone TUrner 4-2236

Mr and Mrs. James Giles and daughter Miss Frances of Cedarpines Park, California, U.S.A., spent a few days last week with Mrs. Wm. Wellman and called on friends in the district.

Wednesday of last week was Farmer's Day at the C.N.E. and some Junior Farmers of Headford did very well in the field of Judging of Dairy Cattle, with contestants from all over Canada, Don Brodie got top honours in the senior division, while Bob Clarkson was sixth among the juniors. Margaret Brodie placed fifith in judging vegetables and fruit. Margaret entered Teachers College on Tuesday of this week.

Next Wednesday will be the ions! Also birthday greetings to Barker.

Mrs. Morris was visiting early in the week with Lorraine and Murray Acreman and went with them to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stan Headford W.A. opened its fall season's activities with a meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ben Terry. Despite the storm fifteen members were present. Some plans for Anniversary, now only a week away, were discussed, before Mrs. Terry instroduced Mrs. Sissler, guest of the evening. We were entranced to hear of Mrs. Sissler's two years sojourn in the lovely city of Copenhagen, Denmark, although she said life there is still very backward as far as "Modern Living" is concerned. However, a student there, gets education quite free, and one might almost say they are directly toward it from childhood. At nine years of age, all children have an examination, and if they pass this, and a succeding one in their early teens, they are launched on a university study which may take them far. And this goes, literally, for all Danish students are widely travelled. In fact, generally Danish people, are widely travelled. They belong to the Lutheran Church, and make much of their Confirmation into the Church, but it seems almost as though it ends there. Mrs. Sissler said her observations led her to the opinion, the Danes are not a spiritually minded people. The women are excellent house-keepers, marvellous cooks, extremely thrifty; and the men are considered to be first class workers.
