Leadership Training Course For Home & School Commences

The Council for York-Simcoe Home & School were hosts to some 40 associations throughout the area at their October Workshop held at Charles Howitt School, Richvale. Among those attending was a good representation from schools in Richmond Hill.

This was the first of four council meetings to be held in the forthcoming year at various locations, incidentally giving parents the opportunity of viewing different types of school design.

Register for Conference
 Registration was made for a choice of one of four conferences, i.e. for Presidents and Vice-presidents; Chairman, Mrs. A. Toogood, Unionville; for Treasurers, Recording and Corresponding Secretaries; Chairman, Mr. F. Wolfe, Unionville; for Public Relations, Chairman, Mrs. H. E. Lemasurier, Langstaff; and for Programmes, Chairman, Mrs. O. Jacques, Holland Landing. The general assembly was chaired by Mrs. B. Kays, President. Each group appointed a secretary who gave a digest of their conference which was followed by general discussion. This pointed up the benefits gained by a pilot group who took the Leadership Training Course conducted last spring. Mrs. Toogood outlined Council's further plans for the Leadership Training Course, which was designed by Mr. Kenneth Young, Community Programmes Branch, Dept. of Education. It is anticipated a course will be given in each Council Area in the near future. Any Home & School member in the area may be a member of one of the Leadership Training Groups. Mr. Young's services have been on loan from the Dept. of Education to the Federation of Home & Schools for the past year, and he will continue to work with council on this project. To quote Mrs. Toogood, "What can Leadership Training do for you? It can give you a better understanding of the part of the leader and role of the member in an association. It can give you help in actual methods of planning and conducting meetings. Leadership Training, because it is practical and provides opportunities for all to participate, establishes the confidence of the individual to contribute either as a leader or member to any group. Then, because more active participation by members leads to better and more interesting meetings, you and all other members of your organization will benefit from Leadership Training."

Reading Display
 Of particular interest to the parents and teachers present was a display on Children's Reading, appreciation for which was due to Mrs. N. R. Clifton of Richmond Hill. Mrs. E. Pope, Holland Landing, showed a representative sample of books available free to members from the well-stocked Courtice Memorial Library. This library receives annual contributions from the associations, and is kept up-to-date by experts in the various fields. It is a tangible tribute to Mrs. A. C. Courtice, the Founder of Ontario Home & School. Mrs. Pope also drew attention to the many fine pamphlets available by way of Parent Education and Child Study.

Bulletin Competition
 Mrs. Lemasurier presented the newly-designed cover of the York-Simcoe Council "BULLETIN." Over many entries from the public schools, this had won the prize in the "Cover Competition." As well, this cover has received special interest from, and is being used by the Ontario College of Education. Congratulations to Miss Penny Parmenter, Richmond Hill.
