

RICHMOND HILL . . .

The Liberal is always glad to receive sock- and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1261 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Friends of Mrs. M. L. McConaghy will be pleased to know that she is progressing favourably. She was taken to St. Michael's Hospital recently and is now being treated in the Toronto General Hospital. The Liberal joins with her many friends and former pupils in wishing Mrs. McConaghy, Richmond Hill's nonagenarian, a speedy recovery.

On Tuesday, November 13, the afternoon group of the Women's Association of Richmond Hill United Church held its regular meeting, with an excellent attendance. The members were entertained by Dr. Lillian Langstaff assisted by Miss Edna Izzard with the showing of color pictures, together with a graphic description of their recent visit to Old Mexico.

Following the Commencement Exercises at the Richmond Hill High School on Friday night, a reception will be held for the graduates, their parents and friends.

Coffee will be poured by Mrs. Collard, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. McMullen, Mrs. Rumble and Mrs. H. Sayers, assisted by Misses Anne Hall, Margaret Beattie, Marlene Lloyd, Jane Lepper, Catharine Farrell, Joan McMahon, Mary Schell, Marilyn Burr, Patty Waern, Martha Scretteburg, Nancy Barrow, Betty Pringle, Frances Mackay, Marlon Peters, Margaret Lockart, Sandra Koning, Nancy Higginson.

Afternoon tea will be served at the annual bazaar of the Women's Association in Richmond Hill United Church Saturday afternoon next under the sponsorship of Mrs. George Fenwick. The bazaar featuring a variety of booths will open at 3 p.m.

Mr. Z. Zelany of the staff of the local High School was guest speaker at last Sunday's meeting of the Young People's Fireside Group of the United Church. The young people met following the evening service.

Rev. C. G. Higginson and choir of the United Church and Rev. R. D. Binning and choir of the Mount Heights United Church will exchange pulpits and churches for this Sunday evening service.

On Monday, November 19, the Richmond Hill United Church Men's Club will hold their annual Father and Son dinner in the Sunday School room at 8.30 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mr. Douglas Maxwell, T.V. and Sports announcer for the CBC. His subject 'Sportsmanship and the Olympic Games' will be interesting to father and son alike.

Last Friday, November 9, was the opening night of the Fiestarama Dance at the Lions Hall, Richmond Hill, with over 100 in attendance. In addition to the door prizes, there were a number of spot dance prizes, which, together with the dancing, refreshments resulted in an enjoyable evening for everyone.

Proceeds from the Friday night Fiestarama were all turned back into the club's funds for a bigger and better Fiestarama future. With a fine, lively band, the club plans to hold regular dances every Friday night at the Lions Hall. The drawing of a "big bushel of groceries" will be one of the prize attractions of their next dance on Friday, November 16.

The Community Swing square dancing club held an election of officers for the coming season at the regular dance on November 12. The retiring executive received a hearty vote of thanks and appreciation for their efforts in the past season, and a feeling of optimism was present as the new executive took over the reins for the coming season. It was encouraging to the club members to have a good attendance including more newcomers.

The executive officers are as follows: President, Mr. Pete Savage; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Bill Boone; committee members, Mrs. Bill Campbell, Mr. Stan Pipher, Dr. Gordon Martin.

After another visit to New York City, Mr. James Ellis has just returned to his home on Centre Street East. During his three week's stay, Mr. Ellis accomplished a great deal more than sightseeing in the "big city". After a pleasant stay with his daughter, Mrs. Lehr, a former resident of Richmond Hill and family at Ironk, New York, a visit was then made to his grandson, Mr. Wm. Lehr in Plainfield, New Jersey, affording the opportunity for Mr. Ellis to meet his new great-grandson. Another happy event during "the family get-together" was the celebration of Mr. Ellis' 84th birthday.

The 65th anniversary of St. Mary's Anglican Church after-noon W.A. was celebrated on October 30, with over 200 in attendance. Fourteen branches in the Deanery were represented, as well as other churches in the village. The Clergy present included Archdeacon H. D. Cleverdon, Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rev. Canon J. F. Rhodes, Rev. McLellan.

Scout & Cub News

Fathers, mothers and friends of Cub Pack and Scout Troops which meet in the Scout Hall, are reminded that the annual meeting of the First Group Committee is to be held in the Scout Hall at 8 p.m. on November 13. All are welcome at this meeting which is the occasion for reports from Group Committee on last year's activities and for nomination and election of members of this group committee for the coming year.

We are especially grateful to Mr. P. Addison of the Department of Lands and Forests who, last week-end took eight Scouts to the seed centre at Angus to see procedures for seed planting of trees. Later the group went to the reforestation centre at Midhurst. In these settings, Mr. Addison described the process involved in planting seeds and raising trees to several years of age. Mr. Addison had also arranged a planting trip early in the Spring with a group of Scouts. All this is in line with the theme of Conservation which is on the national program for Canadian Scouts this year. The work, Mr. Addison has done will help several Scouts to obtain their Conservationist Badge. The Scouts who took the trip were: Paul Brent, David Gibson, Bruce Elson, Sandy Keith, Jim Harvey, Wayne Koning, John Thompson and Peter Addison. Mr. Jack Wharton also assisted in providing transportation.

Three new Chums were welcomed into A Pack a week ago — Gary Charly, David Southwell and George Graham. There are also three new Sixers, Miles Langstaff, Jim Anderson and David Smith. In addition to gaining his Toy-maker's Badge, John Bamford has been appointed second-coder of the Red Six. Other new seconders are John Madill, David Deighton and Ron Hutchinson. Akela Walter Smith and Assistant Mrs. Dorothy Turner want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith for their visit when many of the Cubs were passing tests. Barry Smith expressed a word of praise too in helping with A Pack.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Benton McKeddie are seen above following their marriage recently in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill. The bride is the former Shirley McDermid, daughter of Mr. Alex McDermid and the late Mrs. McDermid of Richmond Hill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKeddie of Renfrew, Ontario. — Photo by Lagerquist

Men's Club To Visit Ford Plant
The Men's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church have arranged a tour of the Ford Company Plant at Oakville on Thursday evening, November 29. This field trip has been arranged for the members and their friends and will conclude with a luncheon being served at the close of the evening. Cars will leave from the Church at 7.30 p.m. and the Executive of the Men's Club are figuring on a large turn-out for this interesting evening.

CGIT Doings
Richmond Hill United Church By Barbara Southwell and Penny Parmenter
Last Thursday evening was the first regular meeting of the C.G.I.T. for November. The worship service was done in the department, rather than in groups. The girls of Mrs. Paton's group led the worship service on a Remembrance Day theme. This week the girls will be starting the Bible Study projects.
