

King City, Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox

The Liberal is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. Donald McCallum, telephone King 132M; and in Oak Ridges - Lake Wilcox, Mrs. C. M. Butt, telephone Turner 4-3066.

King City Notes

Mrs. H. Ratcliff and Mrs. J. Norris gave interesting reports on the W.I. convention at the meeting of King W.I. held at the home of Mrs. Ross Walker Nov. 13. It was noted that both resolutions suggested by King W.I. were passed at the convention. They were the increasing of old age pensions to $65 a month and destination signs being placed on the sides of buses.

The roll call was answered by "A resolution you have made." Miss Blair Acton Burrows explained the motto. A good example is the best sermon. Mrs. Gordon Tetley was the convener for the program.

The sale of cookies at the meeting amounted to $65. It was decided to collect winter clothing for the Save the Children Fund. Both children and adult clothing is needed. Clothing is to be taken to Mrs. Verdun Gordon, 199 King Street East.

The W.I. voted to provide the children's prizes for the essay contest sponsored by King City Memorial Library.

It was decided to invite the women's organizations to the December meeting.

Mrs. J. E. C. Shepherd will open the annual Christmas Bazaar of Eversley Presbyterian Church this week. The bazaar is being held in King City United Church Sunday school rooms.

Firemen's W.A.
The election of officers was held at the monthly meeting of King City Firemen's W.A. at the home of Mrs. Bob Berwick, 2nd line, King, on November 12.

Mrs. Donald McCallum was elected the new president. Mrs. Harold Kirby is the secretary and Mrs. David Glass remains as treasurer. $200 was paid to the King City Volunteer Firemen for boots and helmets during the year. A coffee urn was purchased so that coffee and sandwiches could be taken to the firemen at times of long duration.

The first outing of the W.A. was planned for November 26 with a dinner in Toronto to be followed by a visit to the theatre.

College Play
Miss Suzanne Grew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Grew, Springhill Road who is attending Carleton College at Ottawa is taking the part of a lady sleuth in the play "Ten Little Indians" by Agatha Christie. Miss Grew has been doing her best the past few weeks to develop a cockney accent.

Miss Grew's brother Tim took the part of a rather tall clown in the Santa Claus parade on Saturday in Toronto.

Library Fees Up To $1.00

It was decided at the Library Board meeting in King City Memorial Library, November 12, to raise the library membership fees from 50c to $1.00 as of January 1, 1957.

The increase is necessary because of the cost of heat and light in the new spacious building. Residents will recall the old building in Memorial Park where there was not space enough to move around and where one could not linger too long making a choice of book for fear of catching cold.

The library fees have not been raised since the library opened 10 years ago. Now there are nine librarians giving unpaid service. Membership has increased 50% so that more books are needed to keep up with the demand, and money is needed to pay for them.

Children do not pay fees to use the library. No fines are paid by children. There are approximately 130 children taking out books, and the wear and tear on children's books is greater. Children like to read new and exciting books.

A member can obtain three books from the library each week at a cost of only $1.00 a year. A magazine subscription it was noted would cost around $3.00 a year.

The board feels the increase in membership is very necessary to keep the library up to date and pay for the upkeep of the building.

More services to the public are being given such as the children's Story Hour every Saturday morning.

Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox Socials

The St. Paul's United Church of Oak Ridges is planning a bazaar next week. It is called Christmas Tree Lane and will feature Christmas fancies, hand made goods of many kinds, music and flowers, Tom Thumb pie, and a cake walk. Tea will also be served.

The Lions Ladies met November 17 at the home of Mrs. Wes Jeans, Oak Ridges. Many of the regulars were unable to attend due to other commitments, but a good time was had by all. The group played bingo and several parlor games with all winning individual prizes. Plans were made to assemble the Christmas stockings for the Lions Christmas Tree on December 15. All the ladies will meet at Mrs. Bob Woolleys on December 3 to fill the stockings. Mrs. Ron Laing assisted Mrs. Jeans to serve lunch.

Social Notes
A good many of the district residents have returned from successful hunting expeditions in the north. Both Herb Fowler of Park Cresc. and Chas. Swan of Aubrey Ave., Oak Ridges, enjoyed successful hunting parties. Mr. Fowler plans to hunt again this week-end.

We are glad to see Schelle Stychno back in the neighbourhood after his trip to the north.

A hearty welcome is extended to another new family at Treecroft Cottage, Mr. and Mrs. Buck and family who moved in on Saturday, November 17.

Mrs. E. Findlay Passes Nov. 13

Mrs. Ellen Findlay passed away suddenly at Gormley on Tuesday, November 13. She had been in poor health for some time.

Mrs. Findlay, the former Ellen McLelland, was born in Toronto. She was the wife of the late Miller H. Findlay. For the past two years she has been residing with her son, Donald M. Findlay, Q. C. of Fisher Street, King City. She is also survived by another son, Kenneth B. Findlay, Perth. Rev. M. R. Jenkinson officiated at the funeral service at the Thompson Funeral Home, Aurora on Thursday, November 15. Interment was in King City cemetery.

The pallbearers were nephews, Norman and Bill Turner of Toronto. Jack Jones representing King City Legion, Peter Boyd, Bill Pote and Harry Race.

Bucket Brigade Quells Fire

Fire was quickly put out by a bucket brigade of pupils at the Sacred Heart Church, 5th line, King, on Thursday, November 15, at noon. The quick action of the pupils had the fire under control before the Aurora and King City Fire Brigade arrived on the scene.

The fire started in a confession cubicle of the church.

Oak Ridges-Lake Ratepayers Support C. Butt For Council

The Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox Ratepayers' meeting of Monday, November 19, was attended by a large crowd. Held in the Lake Wilcox school, extra seats had to be set up to accommodate the people. As this meeting was called for the purpose of nominating a candidate from the area to run as councillor in the December 3 Whitechurch election, the first business was Mr. Hanson's address to the public, giving his reason for his sudden decision not to stand for councillor candidate as he had planned. Mr. Hanson's statement, made it quite clear to all that the choice he had made was the wisest one in view of the circumstances.

Mr. Cole, chairman of the association then left the meeting open for nominations. Mr. Ide nominated Mr. Chester Butt, seconded by Mr. Knapp. Mr. Butt accepted the nomination. In order to give candidates every opportunity, Mr. Cole asked that nominations be left open for an extra half hour in case other interested parties were late arriving. However, no other nominations were made. Mr. Butt expressed his thanks to the ratepayers for their hearty endorsement. Further plans were made by the campaign committee regarding car pool, etc., for voting day, and publicity was arranged. It was suggested that a silver collection be taken up to help cover the cost of advertising. Thanks to Mr. Clyde who took the hat around, a sizeable amount was collected. Seven new members also joined the association.

The ratepayers' group is very enthusiastic about the coming election and hopes run high for a representative in council from the area. Mr. Butt has four children attending school and has lived on the South Road for three years. He is an enthusiastic ratepayer, member of the Oak Ridges Lions Club, and has served on the Lake Wilcox school board for two years. He is an employee of DeHavilland Aircraft of Canada. During the last war Mr. Butt served five years in the Royal Canadian Air Force, two years overseas service.

Missionary Speaker Tells Of Conditions Inside Israel

Missionary bands are small in number and the forces of evil are very great in Israel and Jordan, stated Miss Kay Provart, the prayer partner of All Saints Anglican Church, King City W.A. she was addressing the auxiliaries of All Saints, Maple and St. John's, Oak Ridges at the monthly meeting of the W.A. held in the church November 15.

British Missionary
Miss Provart, a British Missionary stationed in Jerusalem, had many interesting facts to tell pertaining to the present situation in the Far East. Miss Provart left Jerusalem last July for a six-months furlough. She was reluctant to leave as the trouble in the Far East was getting worse and she was afraid she might not be able to get back. Miss Provart is cutting her furlough short and hopes to be able to get back to Jerusalem for the Christmas festivities. The mission is very short staffed.

Orthodox Religion
"The orthodox religion," she continued is the recognized religion. It does not go beyond the old testament. The difficulties are great as the orthodox Jew is determined to keep out Christian religion. Besides the orthodox Jew there are the Zionists who are for the state in place of religion. Then there is a big proportion of Jews who have no faith in anything but a longing for something — a belief in God. The younger generation is growing up not believing in the orthodox religion but have nothing to believe in. There is no such place as Palestine now. It is divided into Israel and Jordan.

Most of the Holy Places are in Jordan. Nazareth is in Israel and has a population nearly all Arab, she pointed out. Trouble has been going on for many years. There has always been skirmishing one way or another. It is worse since last spring. The Russians paid a visit to the Holy Land and the Israeli began to build fortifications along the borders, she added.

"The Holy Land has become my home," said Miss Provart. She has been stationed in Jerusalem for three years. Even after 2,000 years, she commented, the land has something that grips you. The tiny wild flowers growing around the Lake of Galilee and the ruins of Capernaum, a flourishing seaport in Christ's time have great appeal. Nazareth, inhabited mostly by Arabs who allow the streets to run with filth. All

News Notes From Strange

Three life members were created at the monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Strange, held at the home of the president, Mrs. Robert Farren, Springhill Rd., King City on November 14.

For their faithful service to the W.M.S. and the church throughout the years, Mrs. Johnston Egan who had become a member in 1916, Mrs. Fred Gray of Richmond Hill, who has been a member for over 30 years, Mrs. Ernest Hollinshead, who has been a member for over 20 years, were honored by the society. Mrs. Whatley Finch read the address and Mrs. J. E. C. Shepherd made the presentation.

The scripture for the meeting was read by Mrs. Donald McCallum. Mrs. Wm. Willoughby and Mrs. W. Finch led in prayer. Mrs. Shepherd read the concluding chapter in the study book. Mrs. Gray read a poem entitled "Chrysanthemums" by Miss Alice Ferguson. Mrs. McCallum gave a reading entitled "Recipe for Happiness."

It was voted to send $10 to Armagh House, the Presbyterian Home for Girls; $20 to Care and $10 to the Scout Mission. Jams and jellies valued at $10 were sent last month for hospital work at Christmas time.

though they have not been forced to alter their way of life, there still is the impression of life as it was lived in Biblical days.

Miss Provart spoke of church services at the mission, adapted to the congregation. If you want a service at 7 p.m. you have to start ringing the bell at 5 p.m. because the Arabs are a slow moving race. She told of the enthusiasm with which the Arab children sang Jesus Loves Me.

Christianity Hazardous
In the Bible study groups they come to believe in the Lord Jesus. Some pay much greater price than others. Jews suffer from their own people if they follow Christ. They may lose their families, their jobs, their businesses if they remain Christians.

The Jews, Miss Provart said, are offended to think they need saving to bring them to the fulfillment of their faith. They think the missionaries are trying to bring them a new religion.

Miss Provart was introduced by Mrs. Ray Butt and thanked by Mrs. A. E. Jarvis.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. C. Harris vice-president and Mrs. Donald Rawlings, president of All Saints Anglican W.A.

Mrs. Geoffrey Beatty, of St. John, Oak Ridges read the scripture and gave the explanation. At the tea Miss Provart was given a gift of money which she said would be turned over to the mission. She showed the members a lovely shell plaque done by the Arabs with intricately carved scenes of the Last Supper and the Nativity.

C.N.R. Employee For Forty Years T.J. Patterson Dies

Thomas James Patterson, well-known King City C.N.R. station agent for the past 14 years passed away suddenly of coronary thrombosis on November 14 at the Toronto Western Hospital. Mr. Patterson had been at the station for the 8:10 train that morning suffering the attack later on in the day.

He was born and educated at Huntsville and graduated from telegraphy in 1916. He was a station agent for 40 years having been stationed first at Aurora, and from there went to Orillia and Footes Bay and back to Orillia before being stationed at King City. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers for a number of years.

He leaves his wife, the former Zelta May Mosley of Aurora and his son Ronald.

Among the many floral tributes were flowers from the Railroad Brothers Telegraphers at Allandale, the CNR employees at Aurora, King, Maple and Concord and the Robinson Clay Products.

Rev. M. R. Jenkinson officiated at the funeral service on Friday, November 16, and the interment was in Aurora Cemetery.

Christmas Bingos To Aid Lions Welfare

The Oak Ridges Lions are planning a monster Christmas Bingo to be held on two days, Thursday, November 29, and Thursday, December 13. These will be held in the Oak Ridges public school in the evening and all the prizes will be turkeys. The entire proceeds will go toward the Lions Welfare Christmas baskets. Turn out and support your neighbourhood Lions Club and help them to help others!

The latest edition of the telephone directory now being distributed here does not become effective until December 2 when new two-letter, five-figure telephone numbers will be put into use at Newmarket and Oak Ridges. On the same date, dial telephone service will be introduced in both centres. Shown above, the Bell's Jean Nesbitt reminds telephone users of the date this new directory comes into effect.

Telephones in the new Oak Ridges exchange will be brought within direct dialing range of Richmond Hill telephones on December 2. C. E. Bosdale, Bell Telephone manager for this region, reminded residents here this week.

The latest telephone directory, containing new numbers coming into effect at Newmarket and Oak Ridges — as well as many other new and changed listings — now is being mailed to homes and offices here, Mr. Bosdale pointed out.

"Richmond Hill telephone users should not consult the new directory for the numbers of persons in Newmarket, or those to

57 Entries Library Contest

There have been 57 entries so far from grades 5-8 at King City and King Horn public schools for the King City Memorial Library essay contest. The subject is "My favourite book and why I like it". Prizes are to be presented on November 22 at 12:45 which is during Young Canada Book Week. There will be first and second prizes awarded in each grade in addition to a special prize. Judges are Mrs. Eric Johnston, Mrs. Alfred Gilham and Mrs. B. Barker.

Laskay News

Mrs. Charles Hately, first vice-president, presided at the Laskay W.I. meeting on November 13. Mrs. R. Baycroft, Historical Research convener for the district gave a report on the W.I. Convention. She also gave a report on Historical Research. Mrs. Baycroft resides in Gormley. She presented Laskay W.I. with $3 for having received honourable mention for their Tweedsmuir History at the convention. This was given by the Federated Women's Institute, Laskay W. I. had also received honourable mention for their Tweedsmuir History book at the district convention for which they also received $3.00.

The roll call 'old time pieces of equipment' brought some interesting items to the meeting. Miss Winnie Boys brought an old fashioned measuring spoon, Mrs. Pearson Smeltzer a cherry pitter and Mrs. Walter Monkman a design mould for making butter.

Mrs. Charles Black gave a short report of the W.I. convention. Mrs. Marshall McMurchy gave the current events.

At the conclusion of the meeting a birthday cake was cut by Miss Winnie Boys in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the hall. Mrs. Len Glass poured tea.

Members of Laskay Learner 4-H Club who attended the 4-H Club luncheon at the Royal York on November 14, were Janet and Margaret Finch, Frances Forrester, Janet Buddin, Nora Jane Hately, Grace Glass and Margaret and Linda Cairns. Following the luncheon the girls visited the Royal Winter Fair. Accompanying the girls on the trip, were Mrs. Clyde Cairns and Mrs. Chas. Hately.

Winners of prizes at the Laskay W.I. euchre on November 16 were Mrs. Clyde Cairns, Mrs. Ed. Harris, Mrs. Frank Buddin, Mrs. L. Murdock, Tommy Walker, Clyde Cairns, Chas. Black and Isaac Boys.

Mrs. Chas. Black and Mrs. F. O'Brien will convene the next euchre.

Property Sale Nets County $90,000

York County Council in session last week approved the purchase of three of its Toronto properties by Metropolitan Toronto for $90,000. The properties are the Children's Aid Society building, St. Clair Ave. West for $135,000; York Cottage, Yonge St. for $115,000; and the East-West York Registry office, Richmond St. East for $300,000.

The continuance of county of York will receive $90,000 from the sale since it holds a 15 per cent interest in the properties. The Metropolitan Area municipalities have the remaining 85 per cent interest.
